ANALYSIS

EFFECT OF THE BILL:

Lewd or Lascivious Images

CS/CS/HB 757 prohibits a person from possessing with the intent to promote any photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, includes a lewd or lascivious image. A person who violates this prohibition commits a second-degree felony. This offense is not ranked on the offense severity ranking chart \(OSRC\), and as such, defaults to a Level 4 offense. The bill provides that the possession of three or more copies of such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or presentation is prima facie evidence of an intent to promote. (Section 1)

Under the bill, it is a third-degree felony, if a person knowingly solicits, possesses, controls, or intentionally views a photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, image, data, computer depiction, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, he or she knows to include a lewd or lascivious image. This offense is ranked as a Level 3 offense on the OSRC. The bill provides that the solicitation, possession, control, or intentional viewing of each such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, image, data, computer depiction, representation, or presentation is a separate offense. Additionally, if such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, image, data, computer depiction, representation, or presentation includes a lewd or lascivious image depicting more than one minor, then each such minor in each such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, image, data, computer depiction, representation, or presentation that is knowingly solicited, possessed, controlled, or intentionally viewed is a separate offense. (Section 1)

The bill specifies that the prohibitions on soliciting, possessing, controlling, or intentionally viewing such material do not apply when such actions are taken as part of a law enforcement investigation. (Section 1)

The bill defines “lewd or lascivious image” to mean:

- Any image depicting lewd or lascivious exhibition; or
- Any image that has been created, altered, adapted, or modified by electronic, mechanical, or other means, to portray lewd or lascivious exhibition in the presence of an identifiable minor. (Section 1)

Under the bill, an “identifiable minor” means a person:

- Who was less than 16 years of age at the time the image was created, altered, adapted, or modified, or whose image as a person less than 16 years of age was used in the creating, altering, adapting, or modifying of the image; and
- Who is recognizable as an actual person by the person’s face, likeness, or other distinguishing characteristic, such as a unique birthmark, or other recognizable feature. (Section 1)

Child Pornography

The bill specifies that in determining whether an image constitutes child pornography, “actual or simulated lewd exhibition of the genitals” of the minor, may be evidenced by the overall content of the image, taking into account the age of the minor depicted and, including, but not limited to, whether:

- The focal point of the image is on the minor’s genitals;
- The setting of the image is sexually suggestive or in a place or pose generally associated with sexual conduct;
- The minor is depicted in an unnatural pose, or in inappropriate attire, considering the age of the minor;
- The image suggests sexual coyness or a willingness to engage in sexual conduct; or
- The image is intended or designed to elicit a sexual response in the viewer. (Section 2)

The bill prohibits a person from knowingly soliciting a photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, image, data, computer depiction, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, he or she knows to include child pornography. A violation of this prohibition is a third-degree felony, ranked as Level 6 offense on the OSRC. (Section 2)

The solicitation of each such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, image, data, computer depiction, or other presentation is a separate offense. If such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, image, data, computer depiction, or other presentation includes child pornography depicting more than one child, then each such child in each such photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, image, data, computer depiction, or other presentation that is knowingly solicited is a separate offense. (Section 2)

Altered Sexual Depictions

The bill prohibits a person from willfully generating an altered sexual depiction of an identifiable person, without the consent of the identifiable person. A person who generates such an altered sexual depiction commits a third-degree felony, ranked as a Level 3 offense on the OSRC. (Sections 3 and 4)

The bill also prohibits a person from soliciting any altered sexual depiction of an identifiable person, without the consent of the identifiable person, when he or she knows or reasonably should have known that such visual depiction was an altered sexual depiction. A person who solicits such an altered sexual depiction commits a third-degree felony, ranked as a Level 2 offense on the OSRC. (Sections 3 and 4)

The bill prohibits a person from possessing with the intent to maliciously promote any altered sexual depiction of an identifiable person, without the consent of the identifiable person, when he or she knows or reasonably should have known that such visual depiction was an altered sexual depiction. A person who possesses such an altered sexual depiction with the intent to maliciously promote it commits a third-degree felony, ranked as a Level 3 offense on the OSRC. (Sections 3 and 4)

The bill authorizes a person who is portrayed in an altered sexual depiction without his or her consent to initiate a civil cause of action against a person who willfully generates such an altered sexual depiction or against a person who possesses such an altered sexual depiction with the intent to maliciously promote such visual depiction to obtain appropriate relief to prevent or remedy the generation of such a depiction, including:

- Injunctive relief.
- Monetary damages to include $10,000 or actual damages incurred.
- Reasonable attorney fees and costs. (Section 3)

The bill defines “generate” to mean to create, alter, adapt, or modify any image by electronic, mechanical, or other computer-generated means to portray an identifiable person or to offer or agree to do the same. (Section 3)

The bill provides an effective date of October 1, 2025. (Section 5)

SUBJECT OVERVIEW:

Lewd or Lascivious Exhibition

The Florida Supreme Court has held that the terms “lewd” and “lascivious” mean a wicked, lustful, unchaste, licentious, or sensual intent on the part of the person doing an act.^{1,2}

Section 800.04\(7\), F.S., prohibits a person from intentionally doing the following in the presence of a victim who is less than 16 years of age:

- Masturbating.
- Exposing his or her genitals in a lewd or lascivious manner.

² Whether an act or conduct is lewd or lascivious is a factual issue to be decided on a case-by-case basis. Andrews v. State, 130 So. 3d 788, 790 (Fla. 1st DCA 2014).

- Committing any other sexual act that does not involve actual physical or sexual contact with the victim, including, but not limited to, sadomasochistic abuse, sexual bestiality, or the simulation of any act involving sexual activity.

Lewd or lascivious exhibition is a second-degree felony³ if the offender is 18 years of age or older⁴ and a third-degree felony⁵ if the offender is younger than 18 years of age.^{6, 7}

The term may not be construed to require proof of the actual identity of the identifiable minor. S. 827.071\(1\)\(e\), F.S.

contact with a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or, if such person is a female, breast with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of either party; or any act or conduct which constitutes sexual battery¹⁶ or simulates that sexual battery is being or will be committed.¹⁷

U.S. v. Dost

In U.S. v. Dost,¹⁸ the critical issue for the court to determine was whether pictures taken by the defendants depicted minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct, which included the lascivious exhibition of the genitals or pubic area.¹⁹ The court opined that a determination of whether there was lascivious exhibition should be made on a case-by-case basis using general principles as a guide for analysis. The court held that a trier of fact should look at the following factors, among any others that may be relevant in a particular case, when determining whether a visual depiction of a minor constitutes lascivious exhibition of the genitals or pubic area:

- Whether the focal point of the visual depiction is on the child's genitalia or pubic area;
- Whether the setting of the visual depiction is sexually suggestive, i.e., in a place or pose generally associated with sexual activity;
- Whether the child is depicted in an unnatural pose, or in inappropriate attire, considering the age of the child;
- Whether the child is fully or partially clothed, or nude;
- Whether the visual depiction suggests sexual coyness or a willingness to engage in sexual activity;
- Whether the visual depiction is intended or designed to elicit a sexual response in the viewer.²⁰

The court asserted that a visual depiction need not involve all of the above-listed factors to constitute lascivious exhibition of the genitals or pubic area, but rather that, a determination should be made based on the overall content of the visual depiction, taking into account the age of the minor.²¹

Generated Child Pornography

Section 827.072, F.S., prohibits a person from knowingly possessing or controlling or intentionally viewing a photograph, a motion picture, a representation, an image, a data file, a computer depiction, or any other presentation which, in whole or in part, he or she knows includes generated child pornography. A person who violates this paragraph commits a third-degree felony.²²

Additionally, a person, commits a third-degree felony, if he or she intentionally creates generated child pornography.²³

"Generated child pornography" means any image that has been created, altered, adapted, or modified by electronic, mechanical, or other computer-generated means to portray a fictitious person, who a reasonable person would regard as being a real person younger than 18 years of age, engaged in sexual conduct.^{24, 25}

¹⁶ "Sexual battery" means oral, anal, or female genital penetration by, or union with, the sexual organ of another or the anal or female genital penetration of another by any other object; however, "sexual battery" does not include an act done for a bona fide medical purpose. S. 827.071\(1\)\(j\), F.S.

¹⁷ S. 827.071\(1\)\(i\), F.S. A mother's breastfeeding of her baby does not under any circumstance constitute "sexual conduct."

¹⁸ 636 F. Supp. 828 (S.D. California 1986).

¹⁹ "Sexually explicit conduct" as defined in federal law means, actual or simulated: sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal, whether between persons of the same or opposite sex; bestiality; masturbation; sadistic or masochistic abuse; or lascivious exhibition of the genitals or pubic area of any person. 18 U.S.C. § 2256.

²³ S. 827.072\(2\)\(b\), F.S. This offense is not ranked on the OSRC, and as such, defaults to a Level 1 offense. S. 921.0023, F.S.

²⁴ S. 827.072\(1\)\(a\), F.S.

²⁵ "Sexual conduct" has the same meaning as in s. 827.071\(1\)\(i\), F.S.

Section 836.13, F.S., prohibits a person from willfully and maliciously promoting²⁶ an altered sexual depiction of an identifiable person,²⁷ without the consent of the identifiable person, when the person promoting such altered sexual depiction knows or reasonably should have known that such depiction was an altered sexual depiction. A person who promotes an altered sexual depiction commits a third-degree felony, ranked as a Level 3 offense on the offense severity ranking chart.²⁸

“Altered sexual depiction” means any visual depiction²⁹ that, as a result of any type of digital, electronic, mechanical, or other modification, alteration, or adaptation, depicts a realistic version of an identifiable person:

- With the nude body parts³⁰ of another person as the nude body parts of the identifiable person;
- With computer-generated nude body parts as the nude body parts of the identifiable person; or
- Engaging in sexual conduct³¹ in which the identifiable person did not engage.³²

The presence of a disclaimer within an altered sexual depiction which notifies a viewer that the person or persons depicted did not consent to or participate in the creation or promotion of the material, or that the person or persons depicted did not actually perform the actions portrayed, is not a defense and does not relieve a person of criminal liability for promoting an altered sexual depiction.³³

A person who is portrayed in such an altered sexual depiction without his or her consent may initiate a civil cause of action against a person who willfully and maliciously promoted such depiction and may obtain appropriate relief to prevent or remedy the promotion, including:

- Injunctive relief.
- Monetary damages to include $10,000 or actual damages incurred.
- Reasonable attorney fees and costs.³⁴

Legal Considerations

As a general rule, pornography can be banned only if obscene.³⁵ However, nonconsensual altered sexual depictions are distinguishable from consensual pornography as the person being depicted has not given his or her consent and did not actually engage in the sexual behavior he or she is depicted as doing. Such depictions may exploit the depicted person for other’s gratification and may cause emotional and reputational harm stemming from subsequent uses of the depiction and society’s response to the person depicted.³⁶
