SUMMARY

Effect of the Bill:

CS/HB 777 revises the age of the victim involved in luring or enticing offenses to include any child under the age of 14. The bill prohibits a person 18 years of age or older from intentionally luring or enticing, or attempting to lure or entice, a child under the age of 14 into or out of a structure, dwelling, or conveyance for other than a lawful purpose.

The bill increases the penalty for offenses of luring or enticing a child under the age of 14 and ranks a first violation of such an offense as a Level 6 on the offense severity ranking chart (OSRC) and a second or subsequent violation or a violation subsequent to a specified prior conviction as a Level 7 on the OSRC. The bill also prohibits certain age-related defenses from being raised in a prosecution for any offense related to kidnapping, false imprisonment, luring or enticing a child, interference with custody, removing minors from the state or concealing minors contrary to state agency order or court order, human trafficking, or human smuggling, when the victim's age is an element of the offense.

Fiscal or Economic Impact:

The bill may have an indeterminate positive impact on jail and prison beds by revising the age of the victim involved in luring or enticing offenses to include any child under the age of 14, expanding the scope of the offense to include luring or enticing a child out of a structure, dwelling, or conveyance for other than a lawful purpose, increasing the penalty for luring or enticing a child into or out of a structure, dwelling, or conveyance, and prohibiting certain defenses to such offenses and other similar offenses, which may result in more jail and prison admissions and offenders being sentenced to longer terms of incarceration.
