COMMITTEE/SUBCOMMITTEE AMENDMENT

Bill No. HB 1063 (2026)

Amendment No.

17 period. The Governor-elect must designate in writing each person
18 to be provided with information technology and related services.
19 At a minimum, information technology and related services
20 include:

- 21 a. Computers and any necessary equipment for their use.
- 22 b. Secure e-mail accounts.
- 23 c. Cybersecurity training and monitoring.
- 24 d. Technical assistance related to the use of the 25 information technology.

26 2. Before the Governor-elect or a designee of the 27 Governor-elect is provided with information technology, he or 28 she must sign a memorandum of understanding acknowledging that 29 he or she will adhere to state cybersecurity practices and will
30 return the information technology to the department upon
31 conclusion of the transition period.

32 (5) (a) Upon request and in coordination with the 33 transition liaison, each state agency shall provide the 34 Governor-elect and his or her staff with access to agency
35 leadership personnel during the transition period, including the 36 chief of staff, general counsel, deputy chiefs of staff, deputy 37 secretaries, division directors, and bureau chiefs.

38 (b) Each state agency may assign limited personnel to 39 assist the Governor-elect and his or her staff during the 40 transition period to the extent consistent with the agency's 41 operational needs.

Amendment No.

42        (6) (a) During the transition period, the Governor-elect
43        and his or her staff shall be granted access to all state agency
44        records upon request.

45        (b) 1. During the transition period, the Governor-elect and 46        persons designated by the Governor-elect shall be granted access 47        to records that are confidential or exempt from s. 119.07(1) or 48        s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. The Governor-elect
49        must designate in writing each person who must be granted access
50        to such records. No more than one person per temporary office 51        provided pursuant to paragraph (4) (a) may be designated by the 52        Governor-elect under this paragraph.

53        2. Before accessing any confidential or exempt records,
54        the Governor-elect and his or her designees must sign a
55        memorandum of understanding acknowledging that:

56        a. Such records will remain confidential or exempt.
57        b. Disclosure of such records or the information contained
58        therein is prohibited unless specifically authorized by law.
59        c. All records will be returned to the custodian at the
60        conclusion of the transition period.

61        d. The Governor-elect and his or her designees may not 62        disclose or use confidential or exempt information for their 63        personal gain or benefit or for the personal gain or benefit of 64        any other person or business entity.

65        e. A violation of sub-subparagraphs a. through d. is a
66        crime punishable as a felony of the third degree.
