17 educational opportunities available through approved virtual 18 instruction program providers pursuant to s. 1002.45 or 19 available through the school district's virtual instruction
20 program the Florida Virtual School.

21 (21) EDUCATIONAL EMERGENCY.—To free schools that have with 22 a school grade of "D" or "F" or are persistently low-performing 23 schools as described in s. 1002.333 from contract restrictions
24 that limit the school district's school's ability to implement
25 programs and strategies needed to improve student performance, a 26 district school board may adopt salary incentives or other 27 strategies that address the selection, placement, compensation, 28 and expectations of instructional personnel and provide 29 principals with the autonomy described in s. 1012.28(8). For 30 purposes of this subsection, an educational emergency exists in 31 a school district if one or more schools in the district have a 32 school grade of "D" or "F" or are persistently low-performing 33 schools as described in s. 1002.333. "F." Notwithstanding 34 chapter 447, relating to collective bargaining, a district
35 school board may:

36 (a) Provide salary incentives that differentiate based on 37 a teacher's certification, subject area taught, or grade level
38 taught. Such incentives are not subject to collective bargaining 39 requirements.

40 (b) Notwithstanding s. 1012.2315, relating to assignment
41 of teachers, adopt strategies to assign high-quality teachers
