BILL: SB 1134

INTRODUCER: Senator Yarborough

SUBJECT: Official Actions of Local Governments

DATE: February 2, 2026

REVISED: _____

I. Summary:

SB 1134 prohibits counties and municipalities from funding, promoting, or taking official actions such as adopting ordinances, resolutions, rules, regulations, programs, or policies, related to diversity, equity, and inclusion. A county or municipality may not expend any funds, regardless of the source, or establish, support, sustain, or staff a diversity, equity, and inclusion office or officer.

The bill provides that a member of a county or municipal governing body acting in their official capacity who violates the prohibitions commits misfeasance or malfeasance in office. An action may be brought against a county or municipality that violates the bill's provisions by a resident of the county. The bill does not prohibit official action required for compliance with general or federal law or regulation, and includes a series of exceptions.

Further, the bill requires any potential recipient of a county or municipal contract or grant to certify before such award that they do not and will not use local government funds to require employees, contractors, volunteers, vendors, or agents to ascribe to, study, or be instructed using materials related to diversity, equity, and inclusion.

The bill takes effect January 1, 2027.

II. Present Situation:

Unlawful Discrimination in Florida

In 2019, Governor DeSantis reaffirmed the policy of non-discrimination in government employment and declared it the policy of his administration to prohibit discrimination in employment based on age, sex, race, color, religion, national origin, marital status, or disability.<sup>1</sup>

Florida Civil Rights Act (Part I, Chapter 760, F.S.)

The Florida Civil Rights Act (FCRA) of 1992 protects persons from discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy, national origin, age, handicap, or marital status.<sup>2</sup> The FCRA establishes the Florida Commission on Human Relations (the Commission) within the Department of Management Services.<sup>3</sup>

The Commission is empowered to receive, initiate, investigate, conciliate, hold hearings, and act upon complaints alleging discriminatory practices.<sup>4</sup> Additionally, the Attorney General may initiate a civil action for damages, injunctive relief, civil penalties of up to $10,000 per violation, and other appropriate relief.<sup>5</sup>

Local Ordinances

The governing body of a county or municipality has broad legislative powers to enact ordinances, local laws, to perform governmental functions and exercise power to promote the health, welfare, safety, and quality of life of a local government's residents. Ordinances address a wide variety of local issues, from government structure and zoning laws to speed limits and noise ordinances. Procedures for passing local ordinances are prescribed by the Legislature and differ only slightly between counties and municipalities.

Local Government Authority

The Florida Constitution grants local governments broad authority to take actions furthering citizens' health, welfare, safety, and quality of life. This "home rule" authority includes legislative powers to enact local laws. Specifically, non-charter county governments may exercise those powers of self-government that are provided by general or special law.<sup>6</sup> Those counties operating under a county charter have all powers of local self-government not inconsistent with general law or special law approved by the vote of the electors.<sup>7</sup> Likewise, municipalities have those governmental, corporate, and proprietary powers that enable them to conduct municipal government, perform their functions and provide municipal services, and exercise any power for municipal purposes, except as otherwise provided by law.<sup>8</sup>

This authority, under the umbrella of governmental or municipal purpose, extends broadly to any ordinance necessary to promote the health, welfare, safety, and quality of life of a local government's residents.<sup>9</sup> Local governments' authority has been liberally construed when reviewed by courts. For example, courts have found the following to meet the standards for what constitutes a "municipal purpose," and therefore were valid local government actions:

- Acquisition and maintenance of a golf course;<sup>10</sup>
- Sale of souvenir photographs;<sup>11</sup> and
- Prohibiting the rental of motorized scooters.<sup>12</sup>

In general, this broad home rule authority is limited by two guideposts: preemption, where a higher level of government such as the state has already legislated on a topic, and standards of reasonableness. Local governments may not pass ordinances which are apparently arbitrary or unreasonable, despite their wide-ranging powers.<sup>13</sup> Anyone affected by an ordinance may challenge its validity in court by filing a civil action against the local government.<sup>14</sup>

Preemption

An ordinance can be declared invalid on the grounds that it is inconsistent with the State Constitution or Florida Statutes. Inconsistency may be found where a local ordinance is either preempted by or in conflict with the State Constitution or Florida Statutes.<sup>15</sup> Preemption means that a local government is precluded from exercising authority in a particular area, while conflict exists where a municipality has the right to act but such action frustrates the purpose of the state regulation.<sup>16</sup> Express preemption refers to instances where the Legislature has directly written into law that the state intends to occupy a field of law, prohibiting local governments from taking action in that field.<sup>17</sup>

Malfeasance or Misfeasance in Office

Misfeasance has been described broadly as a "misdeed or trespass" while malfeasance has been described as a "wrongful, unlawful, or dishonest act."<sup>18</sup>

Under Article IV, s. 7 of the State Constitution, the Governor is authorized to suspend from office by executive order any state officer not subject to impeachment, any officer of the militia not in the active service of the United States, or any county officer, for malfeasance, misfeasance, neglect of duty, drunkenness, incompetence, permanent inability to perform official duties, or commission of a felony. The Governor may temporarily appoint someone to fill the office during the suspension and may choose to reinstate the suspended officer.<sup>19</sup> The Senate has the authority to remove from office or reinstate the suspended officer in proceedings prescribed by law and may convene a special session for such purpose.<sup>20</sup>

In reference to municipal officers, the State Constitution only authorizes the Governor to suspend municipal officers indicted for crime, unless such power is vested in law or a municipal charter.<sup>21</sup> Section 112.51, F.S., provides that the Governor may by executive order suspend from office any elected or appointed municipal official for malfeasance, misfeasance, neglect of duty, habitual drunkenness, incompetence, or permanent inability to perform official duties. The Governor may temporarily fill the office during the suspension.<sup>22</sup> If the municipal officer is convicted of any of the charges contained in the indictment or information by reason of which he or she was suspended, the Governor must remove the official from office.<sup>23</sup> If the municipal official is acquitted, found not guilty, or otherwise cleared of the charges, the Governor must revoke the suspension.<sup>24</sup>

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Sections 1 and 2 create ss. 125.595 and 166.04971, F.S., to prohibit counties and municipalities, respectively, from funding, promoting, or taking official actions, such as adopting or enforcing ordinances, resolutions, rules, regulations, programs, or policies, related to diversity, equity, and inclusion. A county or municipality may not expend any funds, regardless of the source, or establish, support, sustain, or staff a diversity, equity, and inclusion office or officer.

“Diversity, equity, and inclusion” (DEI) is defined as any effort to:

- Manipulate or otherwise influence the composition of employees with reference to race, color, sex, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation other than to ensure that hiring is conducted in accordance with state and federal antidiscrimination laws;
- Promote or provide preferential treatment or special benefits to a person or group based on that person’s or group’s race, color, sex, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation; or
- Promote or adopt training, programming, or activities designed or implemented with reference to race, color, sex, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

The term does not include the use of equal opportunity or equal employment opportunity materials designed to inform a person about the prohibition against discrimination based on protected status under state or federal law.

“Diversity, equity, and inclusion office” is defined as any office, division, department, agency, center, or other unit of a local government which coordinates, creates, develops, designs, implements, organizes, plans, or promotes policies, programming, training, practices, meetings, activities, procedures, or similar actions related to diversity, equity, and inclusion.

“Diversity, equity, and inclusion officer” is defined as a person who is a full-time or part-time employee of, or an independent contractor contracted by, a local government, whose duties cover the same fields as the office described above.

The bill provides that a member of a county or municipal governing body acting in an official capacity who violates the prohibitions commits misfeasance or malfeasance in office. An action may be brought by a local resident against a county or municipality that violates the bill’s provisions; the court may enter judgment awarding declaratory and injunctive relief, damages, and costs. Declaratory relief is a form of relief in which a court pronounces the legal status of an item or pronounces the correct ownership of something.<sup>25</sup> Injunctive relief occurs when a court grants an injunction to require a party to do something or refrain from doing a particular thing to prevent irreparable injury.<sup>26</sup>

The provisions do not prohibit official action required for compliance with state or federal law or regulations. These sections do not apply to the actions of an appointed board or commission composed of nonelected volunteers, or basic administrative support provided to such a board, unless such support is provided by a government employee whose sole function is such support.

Additionally, the bill does not prohibit a county from doing any of the following:

- Recognizing or promoting federal or state holidays;
- Recognizing or promoting patriotic and national observances recognized by federal law;
- Recognizing or honoring the individuals and groups honored by state monuments and memorials, including recognizing the events forming the basis for such monuments and memorials; or
- Using equal opportunity or equal employment opportunity materials designed to inform a person about the prohibition against discrimination based on protected status under state or federal law.

The bill provides that the sections may not be construed to conflict with:

- State or federal law protecting the right of males and females to restrooms and changing facilities corresponding to biological sex;
- State or federal law ensuring that victims of domestic violence and dependents have access to emergency shelters;
- State or federal law prohibiting discrimination based on biological sex in educational programs, sports, activities, and employment;
- State or federal law ensuring males and females have access to public health services corresponding to biological sex; or

- Any other state or federal laws recognizing the inherent biological differences between males and females for the purpose of ensuring their health, safety, and welfare.

Section 3 creates s. 287.139, F.S., to provide that any potential recipient of a county or municipal contract or grant must certify before such award that they do not and will not use local government funds to require employees, contractors, volunteers, vendors, or agents to ascribe to, study, or be instructed using materials related to diversity, equity, and inclusion, as defined above.

The bill takes effect January 1, 2027.
