460 pursuant to s. 624.401 and its affiliates as defined in s.
461 624.10; a title insurance agent or title insurance agency as 462 defined in s. 626.841(1) or (2), respectively; or an attorney
463 duly admitted to practice law in this state and in good standing
464 with The Florida Bar.

465 8. The exempt status of a home address contained in the 466 Official Records is maintained only during the period when a 467 protected party resides at the dwelling location. Upon 468 conveyance of real property after October 1, 2021, and when such 469 real property no longer constitutes a protected party's home
470 address as defined in sub-subparagraph 1.a., the protected party
471 must submit a written request to release the removed information 472 to the county recorder. The written request to release the 473 removed information must be notarized, must confirm that a
474 protected party's request for release is pursuant to a 475 conveyance of his or her dwelling location, and must specify the

476 Official Records book and page, instrument number, or clerk's 477 file number for each document containing the information to be 478 released.

479 9. Upon the death of a protected party as verified by a
480 certified copy of a death certificate or court order, any party
481 can request the county recorder to release a protected
482 decedent's removed information unless there is a related request 483 on file with the county recorder for continued removal of the 484 decedent's information or unless such removal is otherwise 485 prohibited by statute or by court order. The written request to 486 release the removed information upon the death of a protected
487 party must attach the certified copy of a death certificate or 488 court order and must be notarized, must confirm the request for 489 release is due to the death of a protected party, and must 490 specify the Official Records book and page number, instrument 491 number, or clerk's file number for each document containing the 492 information to be released. A fee may not be charged for the 493 release of any document pursuant to such request.

494 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 495 necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of 496 birth, and photographs of current or former employees of the 497 Judicial Qualifications Commission; the names, home addresses, 498 telephone numbers, dates of birth, photographs, and places of 499 employment of the spouses and children of current or former 500 employees of the Judicial Qualifications Commission; and the

501 names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended 502 by the children of current or former employees of the Judicial 503 Qualifications Commission be made exempt from s. 119.07(1),
504 Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the State
505 Constitution. The responsibilities of the Judicial 506 Qualifications Commission include the investigation of 507 allegations of judicial misconduct which are routinely received 508 from criminal and civil litigants who are dissatisfied with 509 adverse results in judicial proceedings. If the commission,
510 after review and investigation of such complaints, does not 511 discipline a judge or does not take the complainant's preferred
512 course of action against a judge, dissatisfied litigants
513 sometimes turn their ire toward commission employees as part of 514 their campaign against the actions of the judge in the 515 underlying litigation. Employees of the commission have been 516 subject to acts of intimidation by such dissatisfied litigants, 517 including online doxing of staff members, posting of false and 518 defamatory statements concerning employees on social media,
519 threatening e-mails and telephone calls, and inappropriate
520 contact regarding commission affairs at the personal residences 521 of employees and employees' family members. These acts of 522 intimidation have left commission employees in fear of harm by 523 disgruntled litigants who seek punishment of judges by the 524 commission for unfavorable litigation results. The Legislature
525 finds that the release of personal identifying and location

HB 1373

526 information of current or former employees of the Judicial 527 Qualifications Commission and their family members may place
528 them at risk of physical harm and harassment and that the risk
529 of such harm and harassment outweighs any public benefit that 530 may be derived from the public disclosure of such information.

531 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2026.
