ANALYSIS

EFFECT OF THE BILL:

The bill creates the University Town Center Improvement District (District), an independent special district in Sarasota and Manatee Counties, and provides a charter for the District. The District's purpose is to install, operate, and maintain stormwater and flood control facilities.

The bill states the property owners within the District have developed the area subject to a comprehensive water control plan that provides drainage and water control infrastructure and protection to the commercial properties in the area, and also the surrounding adjacent commercial and residential properties, as well as constructed and maintained infrastructure to connect attractions within the District and facilitated numerous regional and seasonal entertainment attractions. The bill states the property owners within the District seek an ongoing funding source for the continuation of a comprehensive stormwater and flood control management program. (Section 1)

The bill provides that the District is created to provide the aforementioned program. (Section 2)

District Charter

The bill creates the District as an independent special district in Sarasota and Manatee Counties possessing all powers provided by the bill, as well as powers granted by general law to special districts generally. The bill provides that the District may exercise most powers granted to water control districts by general law. (Sections 3 and 4)

The bill provides a metes-and-bounds legal description of the District, describing an area of approximately 1,470 acres. The bill provides that if any acreage in the District is converted from commercial or multi-family acreage to residential condominium usage, such acreage must be contracted from the boundaries of the District. The contraction occurs when the residential conversion is recorded with the applicable county clerk of court and the

At the initial landowners meeting, the landowners of the District elect one member to a one-year term, two members to a two-year term, and two members to a three-year term. All members elected thereafter will serve a three-year term. Each Board member must be a Florida resident and United States citizen. (Section 4)

SUBJECT OVERVIEW:

Special Districts

A "special district" is a unit of local government created for a particular purpose, with jurisdiction to operate within a limited geographic boundary.¹ Special districts are created by general law, special act, local ordinance, or rule of the Governor and Cabinet.² A special district has only those powers expressly provided by, or reasonably implied from, the authority provided in the district's charter. Special districts provide specific municipal services in addition to, or in place of, those provided by a municipality or county.³ Special districts are funded through the imposition of ad valorem taxes, fees, or charges on the users of those services as authorized by law.⁴

³ Intergovernmental Affairs Subcommittee, Local Government Formation Manual, p. 56 (last visited Jan. 25, 2026).

⁴ The method of financing a district must be stated in its charter. Ss. 189.02\(4\)\(g\) and 189.031\(3\), F.S. Independent special districts may be authorized to impose ad valorem taxes as well as non-ad valorem special assessments in the special acts comprising their charters. See, e.g., ch. 2023-335, s. 1\(6\), Laws of Fla. (East River Ranch Stewardship District). See also, e.g., ss. 190.021, F.S. (community development districts), 191.009, F.S. (independent fire control districts), 197.3631, F.S. (non-ad

Special districts may be classified as dependent or independent based on their relationship with local general-purpose governments. A special district is classified as “dependent” if the governing body of a single county or municipality:

- Serves as governing body of the district;
- Appoints the governing body of the district;
- May remove members of the district’s governing body at-will during their unexpired terms; or
- Approves or can veto the budget of the district.⁵

A district is classified as “independent” if it does not meet any of the above criteria or is located in more than one county, unless the district lies entirely within the boundaries of single municipality.⁶

Special districts are governed generally by the Uniform Special District Accountability Act (USDAA).⁷ The USDAA centralizes provisions governing special districts and applies to the formation,⁸ governance,⁹ administration,¹⁰ supervision,¹¹ merger,¹² and dissolution¹³ of special districts, unless otherwise expressly provided in law.¹⁴ The USDAA requires notice and publication of tentative budgets and final budgets.¹⁵ Certain budget amendments are allowed up to 60 days following the end of the fiscal year.¹⁶

Special districts do not possess “home rule” powers and may impose only those taxes, assessments, or fees authorized by special or general law. The special act creating an independent special district may provide for funding from a variety of sources while prohibiting others. For example, ad valorem tax authority is not mandatory for a special district.¹⁷

Formation and Charter of an Independent Special District

With the exception of community development districts (CDDs),¹⁸ the charter for any new independent special district must include the minimum elements required by ch. 189, F.S.¹⁹ Special laws or general laws of local application relating to any special district may not:

- Create a special district with a district charter that does not conform to certain minimum requirements;²⁰
- Exempt district elections from the requirements of s. 189.04, F.S.;²¹
- Exempt a district from the requirements for bond referenda in s. 189.042, F.S.;²²

- Exempt a district from certain requirements relating to²³ issuing bonds if no referendum is required,²⁴ requiring special district reports on public facilities,²⁵ notice and reports of special district public meetings,²⁶ or required reports, budgets, and audits;²⁷ or
- Create a district for which a statement documenting specific required matters is not submitted to the Legislature. The statement must include:
 - The purpose of the proposed district;
 - The authority of the proposed district;
 - An explanation of why the district is the best alternative; and
 - A resolution or official statement from the local general-government jurisdiction where the proposed district will be located stating the proposed district is consistent with approved local government plans and the local government does not object to creation of the district.²⁸

The charter of a newly created district must state whether it is dependent or independent.²⁹ The charters of independent special districts must address and include the:

- Purpose of the district;
- Powers and duties of the district concerning ad valorem taxation, debt issuance, budget preparation and approval, liens, the use of tax deeds and tax certificates for non-ad valorem assessments, and contractual agreements;
- Method by which the district is established and for amending the district's charter;
- Membership, organization, maximum compensation, and administrative duties of the district's governing body;
- Applicable financial disclosure, noticing, and reporting requirements;
- Procedures and requirements for issuing bonds, if a district has authority to issue bonds;
- Procedures for conducting required elections and referenda, as well as the qualifications for electors;
- Methods of financing the district;
- Maximum millage rate the district may levy, if the district is authorized to levy ad valorem taxes;
- Methods used by the district for collecting non-ad valorem assessments, fees, or service charges;
- Planning requirements for the district; and
- Geographic boundaries of the district.³⁰

Water Control Districts

Chapter 298, F.S., governs the creation and operation of water control districts (WCD). A WCD has authority and responsibility to construct, complete, operate, maintain, repair, and replace any and all works and improvements necessary to execute the water control plan adopted by that district.³¹ A WCD may build and construct any other works and improvements deemed necessary to preserve and maintain the works in or out of said district. A WCD also may acquire, construct, operate, maintain, use, purchase, sell, lease, convey, or transfer real or personal property, including pumping stations, pumping machinery, motive equipment, electric lines and all appurtenant or auxiliary machines, devices, or equipment.³²

Most WCDs are governed by a three-member board composed of landowners within the district who are also residents of the county where the district is located.³³ A landowner meeting to elect the initial board must be

The notice must be published at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the district is located and the last publication must be no less than 10 and no more than 15 days before the date of the meeting.

Landowners vote for the governing board of the district on a one-acre/one-vote basis, with the three people receiving the highest number of votes elected in the initial election.³⁴ Landowners may vote in person or by a signed proxy that complies with the requirements of s. 607.0722, F.S. The landowners at the initial election determine the length of the term of office for the initial board, selecting one member to serve a one-, two-, or three-year term, respectively. All members subsequently elected serve a three-year term, with one member of the board elected by the landowners each year.³⁵

WCDs are generally financed by special assessments.³⁶ The assessment represents the parcel's pro-rata share of the cost of executing the water control plan, as well as the costs of administering and maintaining the district.³⁷ WCDs are also authorized to levy a "maintenance tax" which is assessed based on the net benefits provided to the property by the improvements constructed by the district.³⁸

A WCD may not be given additional authority, powers, rights, or privileges by special act or a general law of local application unless such act is approved a three-fifths vote of the membership of the Legislature.³⁹

Local Bill Forms

The Florida Constitution prohibits the passage of any special act unless a notice of intention to seek enactment of the bill has been published as provided by general law or the act is conditioned to take effect only upon approval by referendum vote of the electors in the area affected.⁴⁰ A legal advertisement of the proposed bill must be placed in a newspaper of general circulation or published on a publicly accessible website⁴¹ at least 30 days prior to the introduction of the local bill in the House or Senate.⁴² The bill was noticed in the Sarasota Herald-Tribune on October 9, 2025.
