I. Summary:

SB 682, cited as the “Domestic Emergency and Batterers Reform and Accountability Act” amends and creates several sections of law to address domestic violence.

Domestic Violence (Sections 5, 6, 7, & 8)

The bill amends s. 741.28, F.S., to redefine domestic violence to mean any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death of one family or household member by another family or household member. The term includes but is not limited to specified offenses.

The bill also defines “electronic monitoring” under this section as tracking the location of a person through the use of technology that is capable of determining or identifying the monitored person’s presence or absence at a particular location. The definition includes examples of such technology.

The bill amends s. 741.281, F.S., to allow the court to order electronic monitoring supervision to a defendant who is found guilty of, has adjudication withheld on, or pleads nolo contendere to a crime of domestic violence. Further, the court is required to order electronic monitoring supervision under certain conditions.

The bill creates s. 741.282, F.S., to allow the court or a state attorney to enter into a written agreement with a person to participate in a domestic violence diversion program. A person is eligible to participate if the person is charged with a misdemeanor offense of domestic violence and the person is a first-time domestic violence offender. The written diversion agreement must include all of the following conditions:

- The person admits his or her guilt;
- The person agrees to attend and participate in a domestic violence diversion program; and

- The person knowingly signs a waiver of his or her right to a speedy trial for the period of his or her diversion.

The bill provides participation requirements to the diversion program and states that the court must consider the recommendation of the state attorney as to the disposition of the pending charges and determine, by written findings, whether the person successfully completed the diversion program. The court must dismiss the charges upon finding the person successfully completed the program. If the court finds the person did not successfully complete the program, the court must return the charges to the criminal docket for prosecution.

The bill amends s. 741.283, F.S., to provide an exception to the minimum terms of imprisonment for domestic violence offenses to allow for a defendant to participate in the domestic violence diversion program.

Investigations (Section 9 & 12)

The bill amends ss. 741.29, and 784.046, F.S., respectively, to require a law enforcement officer who investigates an alleged incident of domestic violence or dating violence to stress the importance of seeking medical treatment and assist the victim to obtain medical treatment if required.

The bill requires the form which notifies victims of the legal rights and remedies available to include information on text-to-911 services and whether text-to-911 services are available in the victim's jurisdiction. The law enforcement officer must also provide the victim with a pamphlet which describes the short-term and long-term effects of strangulation and the importance of seeking medical treatment if the victim was strangled.

If a lethality assessment is administered, the law enforcement officer must provide to both the victim and the aggressor a copy of a statement indicating that law enforcement may follow up with the victim.

The bill provides guidelines for providing such statement, body camera usage, and the manner in which a law enforcement officer must follow up with an alleged victim. The bill requires the same provisions for s. 784.046, F.S., as it relates to petitions for injunctions for protection against repeat violence, sexual violence, or dating violence.

Injunctions & Relocation Assistance (Sections 10, 11, 12, 13, & 14)

The bill amends s. 741.30, F.S., relating to domestic violence injunctions to incorporate the new definition for domestic violence. Additionally, the Domestic and Repeat Violence Injunction Statewide Verification System under this section is amended to include dating violence injunctions and sexual violence injunctions.

The bill adds the use of a family pet as a means of coercive control to the list of actions a respondent has engaged in which may be noted on a petition for an injunction. The bill specifies a family pet includes a service animal and an emotional support animal.

The bill amends ss. 741.31, and 784.047, F.S., to reduce the number of prior convictions for a violation of an injunction before the offense is enhanced to a third degree felony from two to one. Additionally, the bill removes the requirement for subsequent violations to be committed against the same victim listed in the petition. The bill provides the penalty for a felony or misdemeanor committed under such sections may be enhanced and allows for additional enhancements if the offense was committed during a declared state of emergency.

The bill allows the court to order a respondent in a protective injunction to electronic monitoring supervision for the duration of the injunction for protection. The court must establish exclusion zones and include safety planning and informed consent for the petitioner.

The bill adds a question to the petitions for injunctions for protection against repeat violence, sexual violence, or dating violence to require a petitioner to declare whether the respondent has engaged in abusive, threatening, intimidating, or controlling behavior composed of a series of acts over a period of time, however short.

The bill amends s. 960.198, F.S., to increase the crime victim compensation awards to a one-time payment of up to $5,000 on any one claim and a lifetime maximum of $10,000 to a victim of domestic violence who needs immediate assistance to escape from a domestic violence environment.

Training on Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Strangulation Cases (Sections 3 & 4)

The bill amends s. 401.27, F.S., to add criteria to rules established by the Department of Health (DOH) relating to the education, training criteria, and examinations for certification and recertification of emergency medical technicians and paramedics. The bill requires the DOH to approve a training program for emergency medical technicians and paramedics relating to domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation.

An applicant for certification or recertification as an emergency medical technician or paramedic is required to have completed an approved training program relating to domestic violence, dating violence and strangulation by specified dates.

Such training is required biennially for renewal certification for paramedics in addition to the 30 hours of continuing education units. An applicant who is trained outside of Florida, or trained in the military, must provide proof of successful completion of a training program that included instruction on the subject of domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation.

The bill amends s. 633.408, F.S., to require the Division of State Fire Marshal within the Department of Financial Services to establish by rule training for career and volunteer firefighters on the subject of domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation. Such training must be a requirement for obtaining a Firefighter Certificate of Compliance, a Volunteer Firefighter Certificate of Completion, or a Special Certificate of Compliance. Training must be completed by a specified date.

Statewide Emergency Communications Plan (Section 2)

The bill amends s. 365.171, F.S., to require the Division of Telecommunications within the Department of Management Services (DMS) to develop, maintain, and implement into the statewide emergency communications plan a system or process to flag addresses at which a 911 call was placed to local emergency services to report that an incident of domestic violence or dating violence has occurred.

The bill may have an indeterminate fiscal impact. See Section V. Fiscal Impact Statement.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2026.

II. Present Situation:

Domestic Violence

Domestic violence means any assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, false imprisonment, or any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death of one family or household member by another family or household member.<sup>1</sup>

In 2024, 61,216 crimes of domestic violence were reported, resulting in 32,665 arrests.<sup>2</sup> Of those 61,216 reported domestic violence offenses, the relationship of the victims to the offenders varied, including:

- 17,980 were spousal;<sup>3</sup>
- 6,957 were co-habitants;<sup>4</sup> and
- 4,983 were other.<sup>5</sup>

This data was compiled by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) after receiving the number of reports and arrests from local law enforcement agencies.<sup>6</sup>

Domestic Violence Training and Investigations

Every basic skills course required for a law enforcement officer to obtain initial certification must include a minimum of six hours of training in handling domestic violence cases. Such training must include training in the recognition and determination of the primary aggressor in domestic violence cases and the issues involved in child-to-parent cases.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Spouse means the victim and offender are married by law or have been previously married. This category included ex-spouses.

<sup>4</sup> Id. Co-Habitant means the victim lived with the offender as a married couple without legal marriage. This category includes former co-habitants.

<sup>5</sup> Id. Other means the victim and offender had a child together but were never married and never lived together.

<sup>6</sup> The data provided represents the information submitted to the FDLE as of the date of the report. The FDLE acts as a data repository for the law enforcement agencies who voluntarily submit UCR data or data required by the state. See email correspondence from William Grissom, (on file with the Senate Committee on Criminal Justice).

Domestic violence investigations require an officer who investigates an alleged incident of domestic violence to:<sup>8</sup>

- Assist the victim to obtain medical treatment if such is required;<sup>9</sup>
- Advise the victim that there is a domestic violence center from which the victim may receive services;<sup>10</sup>
- Administer a lethality assessment if the allegation of domestic violence is against an intimate partner, regardless of whether an arrest is made;<sup>11</sup>
- Give the victim immediate notice of the legal rights and remedies available;<sup>12</sup>
- Make a written report, whether or not an arrest is made, that is complete and clearly indicates the alleged offense was an incident of domestic violence. The report must be given to the officer's supervisor and filed with the law enforcement agency in a manner that will permit data on domestic violence cases to be compiled.<sup>13</sup> Such report must include:
  - A description of physical injuries observed, if any.
  - If a law enforcement officer decides not to make an arrest or decides to arrest two or more parties, the officer must include the grounds for not arresting anyone or for arresting two or more parties.
  - A statement which indicates that a copy of the legal rights and remedies notice was given to the victim.
- Obtain a written statement from the victim and witnesses concerning the alleged domestic violence when possible; and
- Make an arrest whenever the officer determines probable cause that an act of domestic violence has been committed.<sup>14, 15</sup>

Sentencing for Domestic Violence Crimes

A person adjudicated guilty of a crime of domestic violence when such person intentionally caused bodily harm to another person, the court must order the person to serve a minimum of:<sup>16</sup>

- 10 days in the county jail for a first offense;

<sup>12</sup> Section 741.29(1)(d), F.S. The Legal Rights and Remedies Notice to Victims must include a general summary of s. 741.30, F.S., the resource listing and phone number for the area domestic violence center, and a copy of the following statement: "If you are a victim of domestic violence, you may ask the state attorney to file a criminal complaint. You also have the right to go to court and file a petition requesting an injunction for protection from domestic violence which may include, but need not be limited to, provisions which restrain the abuser from further acts of abuse; direct the abuser to leave your household; prevent the abuser from entering your residence, school, business, or place of employment; award you custody of minor children; and direct the abuser to pay support to you and the minor children if the abuser has a legal obligation to do so."

<sup>15</sup> Section 901.15(7), F.S., provides that a law enforcement officer may arrest a person without a warrant when there is probable cause to believe that the person has committed an act of domestic violence. The decision to arrest does not require consent of the victim or consideration of the relationship of the parties. It is the public policy of this state to strongly discourage arrest and charges of both parties for domestic violence or dating violence on each other and to encourage training of law enforcement and prosecutors in these areas.

- 15 days for a second offense; and
- 20 days for a third or subsequent offense as part of the sentence imposed.

If a person is adjudicated guilty of a crime of domestic violence and has intentionally caused bodily harm to another person, and the crime of domestic violence takes place in the presence of a child under the age of 16 who is a family or household member of the victim or perpetrator, the court must order the person to serve a minimum of:<sup>17</sup>

- 15 days in the county jail for a first offense;
- 20 days for a second offense; and
- 30 days for a third or subsequent offense as part of the sentence imposed.

The court is not prevented from sentencing the person to probation, community control, or an additional period of incarceration.<sup>18</sup>

If a person is found guilty of, has adjudication withheld on, or pleads nolo contendere to a crime of domestic violence, such person must be ordered by the court to a minimum term of one year's probation and the court must order that the defendant attend and complete a batterer's intervention program as a condition of probation. The court must impose the condition unless the court states on the record why a batterer's intervention program might be inappropriate or the court determines that the person does not qualify for the batterer's intervention program.<sup>19</sup>

Causes of Action for Protective Injunctions

Though there are several causes of action for injunctions under different sections of Florida law, including injunctions for protection against domestic violence, dating violence, repeat violence, and sexual violence.

Domestic Violence

Any person<sup>20</sup> who is either the victim of domestic violence or has reasonable cause to believe he or she is in imminent danger of becoming the victim of any act of domestic violence, has standing in circuit court to file a verified petition for an injunction for protection against domestic violence.<sup>21</sup>

In determining whether a petitioner has reasonable cause to believe he or she is in imminent danger of becoming a victim of domestic violence, the court must consider and evaluate all relevant factors alleged in the petition, including, but not limited to:<sup>22</sup>

- The history between the petitioner and the respondent, including threats, harassment, stalking, and physical abuse.

<sup>20</sup> This cause of action for an injunction may be sought by family or household members. No person shall be precluded from seeking injunctive relief pursuant to this chapter solely on the basis that such person is not a spouse.
Section 741.30(1)(e), F.S.

- Whether the respondent has attempted to harm the petitioner or family members or individuals closely associated with the petitioner.
- Whether the respondent has threatened to conceal, kidnap, or harm the petitioner's child or children.
- Whether the respondent has intentionally injured or killed a family pet.
- Whether the respondent has used, or has threatened to use, against the petitioner any weapons such as guns or knives.
- Whether the respondent has physically restrained the petitioner from leaving the home or calling law enforcement.
- Whether the respondent has a criminal history involving violence or the threat of violence.
- The existence of a verifiable order of protection issued previously or from another jurisdiction.
- Whether the respondent has destroyed personal property belonging to the petitioner.
- Whether the respondent has or had engaged in a pattern of abusive, threatening, intimidating, or controlling behavior composed of a series of acts over a period of time.

Dating Violence

Under s. 784.046, F.S., there are three protective injunctions a person may petition for: an injunction for protection in cases of repeat violence,<sup>23</sup> an injunction for protection in cases of dating violence,<sup>24</sup> and an injunction for protection in cases of sexual violence.<sup>25,26</sup> However, this section is limited dependent on the nature of the relationship or the act of repeated or sexual violence.<sup>27</sup>

Dating violence is determined by the existence of a relationship based on consideration of the following factors:<sup>28</sup>

- A dating relationship must have existed within the past six months;
- The nature of the relationship must have been characterized by the expectation of affection or sexual involvement between the parties; and
- The frequency and type of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship must have included that the persons have been involved over time and on a continuous basis during the course of the relationship.

<sup>23</sup> "Repeat violence" means two incidents of violence or stalking committed by the respondent, one of which must have been within 6 months of the filing of the petition, which are directed against the petitioner or the petitioner's immediate family member. Section 784.046(1)(b), F.S.

<sup>24</sup> "Dating violence" means violence between individuals who have or have had a continuing and significant relationship of a romantic or intimate nature. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the consideration of certain factors. Section 784.046(1)(d), F.S.

<sup>25</sup> "Sexual violence" means any one incident of: sexual battery, lewd or lascivious act committed upon or in the presence of a person younger than 16 years of age, luring or enticing a child, sexual performance by a child, or any other forcible felony wherein a sexual act is committed or attempted. Section 784.046(1)(c), F.S.

<sup>27</sup> "Violence" means any assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, or false imprisonment, or any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death by a person against any other person.

Dating violence does not include violence in a casual acquaintanceship or violence between individuals who only have engaged in ordinary fraternization in a business or social context.

A person has standing in circuit court to file a verified petition for an injunction against dating violence if he or she:

- Is the victim of dating violence and has reasonable cause to believe he or she is in imminent danger of becoming a victim of another act of dating violence;
- Has reasonable cause to believe he or she is in imminent danger of becoming the victim of an act of dating violence; or,
- Is the parent or legal guardian of any minor child in the home and who seeks an injunction for protection against dating violence on behalf of the minor.<sup>29</sup>

Sexual Violence and Repeat Violence

Sexual violence includes an incident of a specified sexual offense<sup>30</sup> regardless of whether criminal charges based on the incident were filed, reduced, or dismissed by the state attorney. A person who is the victim of sexual violence or the parent or legal guardian of a minor child who is living at home and is the victim of sexual violence has standing in the circuit court to file a verified petition for an injunction for protection against sexual violence on his or her own behalf or on behalf of the minor child if:<sup>31</sup>

- The person has reported the sexual violence to a law enforcement agency and is cooperating in any criminal proceeding against the respondent, regardless of whether criminal charges based on the sexual violence have been filed, reduced, or dismissed by the state attorney; or
- The respondent who committed the sexual violence against the victim or minor child was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in state prison for the sexual violence and the respondent's term of imprisonment has expired or is due to expire within 90 days following the date the petition is filed.

Any person who is the victim of repeat violence, or the parent or legal guardian of a child who seeks an injunction for protection against repeat violence on behalf of the child, has standing to file a verified petition for an injunction for protection against repeat violence. For an injunction for protection against repeat violence, there must be two incidents of violence or stalking committed by the respondent.<sup>32</sup>

Procedure for Filing Injunctions

A cause of action does not require that the petitioner be represented by an attorney.<sup>33,34</sup> The clerk of the court may not assess a fee for filing a petition<sup>35,36</sup> and no bond will be required by the

<sup>30</sup> Such offenses include: sexual battery, a lewd or lascivious act committed upon or in the presence of a person younger than 16 years of age, luring or enticing a child, sexual performance by a child, or any other forcible felony wherein a sexual act is committed or attempted regardless of whether criminal charges based on the incident were filed, reduced, or dismissed by the state attorney. court for entry of an injunction.<sup>37,38</sup> The clerk of the court must provide the petitioner with a certified copy of any injunction for protection entered by the court, however, the clerk must provide a minimum of two certified copies for an injunction for protection against domestic violence.<sup>39,40</sup>

The clerk of the court must provide a copy of the section,<sup>41</sup> simplified forms, and clerical assistance to a victim of dating violence, sexual violence, or repeat violence who is not represented by counsel.<sup>42</sup>

Additionally, a cause of action for an injunction may be sought whether or not any other petition, complaint, or cause of action is currently available or pending between the parties.<sup>43,44</sup>

Injunction Statewide Verification Systems

A Domestic and Repeat Violence Injunction Statewide Verification System exists under the FDLE's purview. The system electronically transmits information relating to domestic violence injunctions and repeat violence injunctions to and between criminal justice agencies.<sup>45</sup> Within 24 hours after the service of process of an injunction for protection against domestic violence upon the respondent, the law enforcement officer must electronically transmit the written proof of service. Additionally, the sheriff must make information relating to the injunction available to other law enforcement agencies by electronically transmitting such information to the department.<sup>46</sup>

Additionally, a Domestic, Dating, Sexual and Repeat Violence Injunction Statewide Verification System exists to electronically transmit information relating to domestic violence injunctions, dating violence injunctions, sexual violence injunctions, and repeat violence injunctions to and between criminal justice agencies.<sup>47</sup>

Violation of an Injunction for Protection

A person commits a first degree misdemeanor if he or she willfully violates an injunction for protection by:<sup>48,49</sup>

- Refusing to vacate the dwelling that the parties share;

- Going to, or being within 500 feet of, the petitioner's residence, school, place of employment, or a specified place frequented regularly by the petitioner and any named family or household member;
- Committing an act of domestic violence, dating violence, repeat violence, or sexual violence against the petitioner;
- Committing any other violation of the injunction through an intentional unlawful threat, word, or act to do violence to the petitioner;
- Telephoning, contacting, or otherwise communicating with the petitioner directly or indirectly, unless the injunction specifically allow indirect contact through a third party;
- Knowingly and intentionally coming within 100 feet of the petitioner's motor vehicle, whether or not that vehicle is occupied;
- Defacing or destroying the petitioner's personal property, including the petitioner's motor vehicle; or
- Refusing to surrender firearms or ammunition if ordered to do so by the court.

A person who has two or more prior convictions for violation of an injunction commits a third degree felony if he or she commits a subsequent violation of any injunction against the same victim.<sup>50,51</sup>

For violations of injunctions for protection against domestic violence, regardless of criminal prosecution, the court must order the respondent to attend a batterers' intervention program if it finds a willful violation of a domestic violence injunction unless the court makes written factual findings stating why a batterers' intervention program would be inappropriate.<sup>52</sup> Additionally, a person commits a first degree misdemeanor if he or she violates a final injunction for protection against domestic violence by having in his or her care, custody, possession, or control any firearm or ammunition.<sup>53</sup>

Relocation Assistance for Victims of Domestic Violence

The Department of Legal Affairs may award a one-time payment of up to $1,500 on any one claim and a lifetime maximum of $3,000 to a victim of domestic violence who needs immediate assistance to escape from a domestic violence environment.<sup>54</sup> In order for such award to be granted:<sup>55</sup>

- There must be proof that a domestic violence offense was committed;
- The domestic violence offense must be reported to the proper authorities;
- The victim's need for assistance must be certified by a certified domestic violence center in this state; and
- The center certification must assert that the victim is cooperating with law enforcement officials, if applicable, and must include documentation that the victim has developed a safety plan.

911 Communications

The Emergency Communications Act provides legislative intent to establish and implement statewide emergency communications and response capabilities using modern technologies and methods and to fund certain costs incurred by the counties associated with public safety emergency responses.<sup>56</sup> The Emergency Communications Act prohibits the misuse of the 911, E911,<sup>57</sup> and NG911<sup>58</sup> systems.

Since 1974, Florida law has designated “911” as the statewide emergency telephone number to provide citizens with rapid direct access to public safety agencies.<sup>59, 60</sup> In 1999, the concept of “Enhanced 911” or “E911” service was established in Florida law to describe 911 service provided to wireless telephone users.<sup>61</sup> Today, under the Emergency Communications Number E911 Act,<sup>62</sup> the term “E911,” as used in Florida law, refers more broadly to an enhanced 911 system or service that provides any user of voice communications services<sup>63</sup> with 911 service. E911 service directs calls to appropriate public safety answering points (PSAPs) by selective routing based on the geographical location from which a 911 call originated and provides for automatic number and location identification.<sup>64</sup> PSAPs receiving incoming 911 requests for assistance dispatch appropriate public safety agencies to respond to the requests in accordance with the statewide emergency communications plan.<sup>65</sup>

The next progression in E911 systems is referred to as Next Generation 911 (NG911). NG911 is a digital, internet protocol-based system that replaces the analog 911 infrastructure which, among other things, allows photo, video, and text messages to be transmitted from citizens to PSAPs, in addition to standard voice calls.<sup>66</sup>

<sup>57</sup> “Enhanced 911” or “E911” means an enhanced 911 system or enhanced 911 services that is an emergency telephone system or service that provides a subscriber with 911 service and, in addition, directs 911 calls to appropriate public safety answering points by selective routing based on geographical location from which the call originated, or as otherwise provided in the state plan, and that provides for automatic number identification and automatic location-identification features. Section 365.172(3)(i), F.S.

<sup>58</sup> “Next Generation 911” or “NG911” means an Internet Protocol (IP)-based system composed of managed Emergency Services IP Networks, functional elements (applications), and databases that replicate traditional E911 features and functions and provide additional capabilities. The NG911 system is designed to provide access to emergency services from all connected communication sources and provide multimedia data capabilities for PSAPs and other emergency service organizations. <sup>60</sup> “Public safety agency” means a functional division of a public agency which provides firefighting, law enforcement, medical, or other emergency services. Section 365.172(3)(z), F.S.

<sup>63</sup> “Voice communications services” means two-way voice service, through the use of any technology, which actually provides access to 911 services, and includes communications services, as defined in s. 202.11, F.S., which actually provide access to 911 services and which are required to be included in the provision of 911 services pursuant to orders and rules adopted by the Federal Communications Commission. The term includes voice-over-Internet-protocol service.

Statewide Emergency Communications Plan

The Division of Telecommunications (Division) within the Department of Management Services (DMS) is responsible for developing, maintaining, and implementing a statewide emergency communications plan. The plan must include:

- The public agency<sup>67</sup> emergency communications requirements for each entity of local government in the state.
- A system to meet specific local government requirements. Such system must include law enforcement, firefighting, and emergency medical services and may include other emergency services such as poison control, suicide prevention, and emergency management services.
- Identification of the mutual aid agreements necessary to obtain an effective emergency communications system.
- A funding provision that identifies the cost necessary to implement the emergency communications system.<sup>68</sup>

The Division is responsible for the implementation and coordination of the plan and must adopt any necessary rules and schedules related to public agencies for implementing and coordinating the plan.<sup>69</sup>

The Secretary of DMS, or his or her designee, acts as the director of the statewide emergency communications system and is authorized to coordinate the activities of the system with state, county, local, and private agencies. The director must consult, cooperate, and coordinate with local law enforcement agencies.<sup>70</sup> No emergency communications number E911 system can be established, and no present system can be expanded without prior approval of the Division.<sup>71</sup>

Statewide Emergency Communications Fund

It is the intent of the Legislature that emergency communication services be available throughout the state. The fees imposed should be expended by counties in support of this intent to the greatest extent feasible within the context of local service needs and fiscal capability.<sup>72</sup>

The Emergency Communications Board (Board)<sup>73</sup> established under s. 365.172, F.S., is responsible for establishing and administering allocation from the fund dedicated to investing in public safety communications and technology for 911 and provide technical assistance and guidance to rural counties as needed.<sup>74</sup> Public safety funding must focus on, but is not limited to:<sup>75</sup>

- Next Generation 911.

  - Cybersecurity.

Each voice communications services provider collects a fee and as part of its monthly billing process, must bill the fee as specified.<sup>76</sup> The fee may not be assessed on any pay telephone in the state.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill, cited as the “Domestic Emergency and Batterers Reform and Accountability Act” amends and creates several sections of law to address domestic violence.

Domestic Violence (Sections 5, 6, 7 & 8)

The bill amends s. 741.28, F.S., to redefine domestic violence to mean any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death of one family or household member by another family or household member. The term includes, but is not limited to, the following offenses:

- Assault.
- Aggravated assault.
- Battery.
- Aggravated battery.
- Battery by strangulation.
- Domestic battery by strangulation.
- Sexual assault.
- Sexual battery.
- Stalking.
- Aggravated stalking.
- Child abuse.
- Aggravated child abuse.
- Kidnapping.
- False imprisonment.
- Violation of an injunction for protection against domestic violence, repeat violence, dating violence, sexual violence, or stalking.
- Criminal mischief.
- Installation or use of tracking devices or tracking applications.
- Sexual cyberharassment.
- Cyberstalking.

- Offenses against users of computers, computer systems, computer networks, and electronic devices.
- Cruelty to animals.

The bill also defines “electronic monitoring” under this section as tracking the location of a person through the use of technology that is capable of determining or identifying the monitored person’s presence or absence at a particular location, including but not limited to:

- Radio frequency signaling technology that detects whether the monitored person is or is not at an approved location and notifies the monitoring agency of the time that the monitored person either leaves the approved location or tampers with or removes the monitoring device; or
- Active or passive GPS technology that detects the location of the monitored person and notifies the monitoring agency of the person’s location, and which may also be capable of notifying a victim or protected party if the monitored person enters within the restricted distance of a victim or protected party or within the restricted distance of a designated location.

The bill amends s. 741.281, F.S., to allow the court to order electronic monitoring supervision to a defendant who is found guilty of, has adjudication withheld on, or pleads nolo contendere to a crime of domestic violence. Further, a court is required to order electronic monitoring supervision in the following situations:

- The court finds there is clear and convincing evidence that the defendant poses a continuing threat to the victim;
- The defendant has previously violated an injunction for protection against domestic violence, dating violence, repeat violence, sexual violence, or stalking; or
- During a lethality assessment, if performed, there is evidence of strangulation or other indications that warrant a higher level of concern for the well-being of the petitioner.

The bill creates s. 741.282, F.S., to allow the court or a state attorney to enter into a written agreement with a person to participate in a domestic violence diversion program. A person is eligible to participate if the person is charged with a misdemeanor offense of domestic violence and the person is a first-time domestic violence offender. The written diversion agreement must include all of the following conditions which must be accepted:

- The person admits his or her guilt;
- The person agrees to attend and participate in a domestic violence diversion program; and
- The person knowingly signs a waiver of his or her right to a speedy trial for the period of his or her diversion.

Participants must:

- Appear before the court within 45 days after entering the program to determine the person’s compliance with the conditions and requirements of the written agreement. The court is authorized to additional hearings to monitor the defendant’s progress.
- Complete the program within one year after the person enters the program.
- Complete a batterers’ intervention program within nine months after the person enters the program.

- Participate in clinical assessment conducted by a qualified professional to determine if the person has mental health or substance use issues.
  - If the person is determined to have mental health or substance use issues, the qualified professional must provide a treatment plan for the person and must provide weekly treatment progress reports to the court.
  - At the end of the program, the qualified professional must certify to the court that the person has complied with all requirements of the treatment plan.

The court must consider the recommendation of the state attorney as to the disposition of the pending charges and determine, by written findings, whether the person successfully completed the diversion program. The court must dismiss the charges upon finding the person successfully completed the program. If the court finds the person did not successfully complete the program, the court must return the charges to the criminal docket for prosecution.

The Department of Corrections must supervise the diversion programs.

The bill amends s. 741.283, F.S., to provide an exception to the minimum terms of imprisonment for domestic violence to allow for a defendant to participate in the domestic violence diversion program.

Investigations (Section 9 & 12)

The bill amends ss. 741.29, and 784.046, F.S., respectively, to require a law enforcement officer who investigates an alleged incident of domestic violence or dating violence to stress the importance of seeking medical treatment and assist the victim to obtain medical treatment if required.

The bill requires the form which notifies victims of the legal rights and remedies available to include information on text-to-911 services and whether text-to-911 services are available in the victim's jurisdiction. The law enforcement officer must also provide the victim with a pamphlet which describes the short-term and long-term effects of strangulation and the importance of seeking medical treatment if the victim was strangled.

If a lethality assessment is administered, the law enforcement officer must provide to both the victim and the aggressor a copy of the following statement:

Section 741.29, F.S., authorizes a law enforcement officer or a designated representative of the FDLE to follow up with an alleged victim after a written police report based on the investigation of an allegation that an incident of domestic violence occurred is filed. A law enforcement officer or designated representative may follow up randomly in person or by telephone.

The law enforcement officer must leave the written statement at the home address of the aggressor if the aggressor is not present at the time. A law enforcement officer or designated liaison may follow up with the victim within 24 hours after the written police report is filed. The officer or liaison may follow up by telephone or in-person. If the officer follows up by telephone, he or she must call the victim three times but may not leave a voicemail. If the officer does not make contact with the victim, the officer or liaison may conduct an in person wellness check.

The bill requires a law enforcement officer to have his or her body camera, if worn, turned on and recording when investigating an alleged incident of domestic violence. The bill provides the same provisions for s. 784.046, F.S., as it relates to petitions for injunctions for protection against repeat violence, sexual violence, or dating violence.

Injunctions & Relocation Assistance (Sections 10, 11, 12, 13 & 14)

The bill amends s. 741.30, F.S., relating to domestic violence to incorporate the new definition for domestic violence. Additionally, the Domestic and Repeat Violence Injunction Statewide Verification System is amended to include dating violence injunctions and sexual violence injunctions.

The bill adds the use of a family pet as means of coercive control to the list of actions a respondent has engaged in which may be noted on a petition for an injunction. The bill specifies a family pet includes a service animal and an emotional support animal.

The bill amends ss. 741.31, and 784.047, F.S., to reduce the number of prior convictions for a violation of an injunction before the offense is enhanced to a third degree felony from two to one. Additionally, the bill removes the requirement for subsequent violations to be committed against the same victim listed in the petition. The bill provides the penalty for a felony or misdemeanor committed under this section may be enhanced as follows:

- A second degree misdemeanor may be punished as if it were a first degree misdemeanor.
- A first degree misdemeanor may be punished as if it were a third degree felony.
- A third degree felony may be punished as if it were a second degree felony.
- A second degree felony may be punished as if it were a first degree felony.
- A first degree felony may be punished as if it were a life felony.

The bill allows for additional enhancements if the felony or misdemeanor was committed during an emergency for which a state of emergency has been declared.

The bill allows the court to order a respondent in a protective injunction to electronic monitoring supervision for the duration of the injunction for protection. The court must establish exclusion zones and include safety planning and informed consent for the petitioner.

The bill amends s. 960.198, F.S., to increase the crime victim compensation awards to a one-time payment of up to $5,000 on any one claim and a lifetime maximum of $10,000 to a victim of domestic violence who needs immediate assistance to escape from a domestic violence environment.

Training on Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Strangulation Cases (Sections 3 & 4)

The bill amends s. 401.27, F.S., to add criteria to rules established by the DOH relating to the education and training criteria and examinations for the certification and recertification of emergency medical technicians and paramedics. The bill requires the DOH to approve a training program for emergency medical technicians and paramedics relating to domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation.

Additionally, the bill requires an applicant for certification or recertification as an emergency medical technician or paramedic to have completed an approved training program relating to domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation. Training is required in the following manner:

- Beginning July 1, 2026, emergency medical technicians and paramedics seeking initial certification must complete a minimum of two hours of training in handling domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation cases.
- Emergency medical technicians and paramedics certified before July 1, 2026, must complete a minimum of two hours of training in handling domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation cases during the refresher training program.

Such training is required biennially for renewal certification for paramedics in addition to the 30 hours of continuing education units. An applicant who is trained outside of Florida, or trained in the military, must provide proof of successful completion of a training program that included instruction on the subject of domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation.

The bill amends s. 633.408, F.S., to require the Division of State Fire Marshal within the Department of Financial Services to establish, by rule, training for career and volunteer firefighters on the subject of domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation. Such training must be a requirement for obtaining a Firefighter Certificate of Compliance, a Volunteer Firefighter Certificate of Completion, or a Special Certificate of Compliance. Training is required in the following manner:

- Beginning July 1, 2026, career and volunteer firefighters seeking initial certification must complete a minimum of two hours of training in handling domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation cases.
- Career and volunteer firefighters certified before July 1, 2026, must complete a minimum of two hours of training in handling domestic violence, dating violence, and strangulation cases during the continuing training program.

Statewide Emergency Communications Plan (Section 2)

The bill amends s. 365.171, F.S., to require the Division of Telecommunications within the DMS to develop, maintain, and incorporate into the statewide emergency communications plan a system or process to flag addresses at which a 911 call was placed to local emergency services to report that an incident of domestic violence or dating violence has occurred. The system must correspond between all emergency services, including, but not limited to, law enforcement, firefighting, emergency medical services, poison control, suicide prevention, and emergency management services. An address must remain flagged in the system for at least one year after the 911 call was placed that initiated the flag. The one year time period resets after each call relating to an allegation of domestic violence or dating violence at the same address.

Further, the bill requires each county to integrate the system or process based on the county's resources and availability. Expenditure by counties of the fee authorized and imposed under

s. 365, 172, F.S., should support this intent to the greatest extent feasible within the context of local service needs and fiscal capability.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2026.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

The bill does not appear to require the cities and counties to expend funds or limit their authority to raise revenue or receive state-shared revenues as specified by Article VII, s. 18, of the State Constitution.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The FDLE has indicated an indeterminate fiscal impact and suggests feasibility studies to be conducted to meet the needs of the electronic monitoring requirement and the needs of the domestic liaison requirement. Additionally, the FDLE states a system would need to be procured for the purpose of following up on domestic violence calls and estimates five employee hires for the procurement and implementation. The FDLE provides an estimate of $1,030,000 per year to accommodate the staffing.<sup>77</sup>

<sup>77</sup> The Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Agency Analysis for SB 682, (on file with the Senate Committee on Criminal Justice).

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

- Section 2 may incorporate the address of a caller reporting a concern of possible domestic violence occurring at an address of a neighbor or other household. Additionally, it may be unclear whether an address is flagged after an incident has occurred or is alleged to have occurred.
- Sections 3 and 4 provide the deadline of July 1, 2026, for certification and recertification. This date may not provide the agency with adequate time for rule development or to approve a training program.
- Section 5 redefines domestic violence to require the criminal offense to result in physical injury or death. The definition includes criminal offenses that typically do not result in physical injury or death.
- Section 7, line 406 requires the court to consider the recommendation of the state attorney as to the disposition of these charges, and the court, not the state attorney, is to dismiss the charges.
- Section 8 relates to adjudications of guilt and may not need the exception provided to s. 741.282, F.S., as it is created to be a pretrial diversion treatment court program.
- Section 11 and 13 allow a court to enhance misdemeanor and felony offenses but it may be unclear when such enhancement is applicable.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 365.171, 401.27, 633.408, 741.28, 741.281, 741.283, 741.29, 741.30, 741.31, 784.046, 784.047, 960.198, 921.0024, 943.0584, 943.171.
