in specified trust accounts used for specified purposes expressly authorized by Supreme Court rule; requiring certain entities to use interest and dividends for specified purposes; requiring certain financial institutions to pay specified interest or dividends; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Section 655.98 Florida Statutes, is created to read:

655.98 Lawyer or law firm trust account interest rates.—A financial institution may hold funds in an interest-bearing trust account of a lawyer or law firm in which the institution remits interest or dividends on the balance of the deposited funds to an entity established by the Supreme Court. Such entity shall use the interest or dividends to provide or facilitate the provision of free legal services to low-income individuals or for such other purposes as may be expressly authorized by rule of the Supreme Court. If the financial institution holds such an account, it must pay, net of all fees and charges assessed by
