5 insert:

6 Section 5. Section 97.0536, Florida Statutes, is created to 7 read:

8 97.0536 Hardship oath for certain applicants.-

9 (1) An individual who is unable to provide documents
10 acceptable as evidence of United States citizenship due to 11 financial hardship or other reasonable impediment may execute a

12 sworn statement as provided in subsection (2) attesting to his 13 or her United States citizenship. The sworn statement must be 14 signed under penalty of perjury and must be treated in the same 15 manner as other sworn voter declarations required under the 16 Florida Election Code.

17 (2) An applicant attesting to an economic hardship or 18 reasonable impediment pursuant to subsection (1) must provide 19 the following sworn statement under penalty of perjury:

20
21 I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a citizen of 22 the United States and that I am qualified to register
23 as an elector under the Constitution and laws of the 24 State of Florida. I further swear (or affirm) that I
25 face a reasonable impediment to producing documentary
26 proof of citizenship due to financial or other
27 hardship. I understand that providing false
28 information in this declaration constitutes a felony
29 under Florida law. By signing this declaration, I 30 swear (or affirm) under penalty of perjury that the 31 information contained in this declaration is true.
