PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father,

We thank you for blessing us with another day here on earth to worship your name. We praise you for your provision to our families and our country. We thank you for allowing us to live, work, and worship in this great nation. Today we call upon you for wisdom and direction as we seek to lead the people of this state. Give us hearts with pure motives, compassion for those who are hurting, and concern for our neighbors. Help us make decisions that please you, knowing that pleasing you will bring about your blessing to this state. Forgive us for when we have failed you and gone our own way. We also ask for your continued protection on those who diligently fight the good fight for freedom. Help us always remain steadfast in being "one nation under God."

In Jesus' name I pray this. Amen.
