May we bow our heads in supplication to he who is greater than we are. On this beautiful day and in this special hour, great God, we humbly pause now to invoke your divine presence and perfect will upon this august body. How grateful we are for our republic and for those present here today who have the responsibility to demonstrate your concern for their fellow humans. We thank you that they have vowed to serve and to include rather than to exclude others in this process. We thank you that these Senators are here. We thank you that their families have allowed them to be here. We appreciate their gifts and their deeds, and may all that we do inspire us all further to pursue your desire upon this earth for fairness, for liberty, and for justice for all.
