PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Major Timothy Gilliam, Salvation Army Area Commander, Fort Myers:

Gracious heavenly Father, we acknowledge you as creator, preserver, and governor of all things, and as we gather here today, we do so with a spirit of unity and gratitude for all the blessings you've bestowed upon us. We ask that you give our elected leaders your anointing, your protection, and your blessing as they strive to fulfill the sacred trust of the people. Give our leaders your wisdom for every decision and help them to think clearly. Grant them your discernment and endow them with common sense so they will be strong and effective. Help them to govern with integrity, and may that integrity guide them and keep them on track.

We pray that our leaders would follow your principles and that their steps would be directed by your word because the decisions they make have great impact on all our lives. Be their defender, as you keep them alert and on guard for our state. Grant them your encouragement as they make every effort to do what is right; not necessarily what is easy, popular, or convenient.

We thank you for this beautiful state we call Florida. You have called each of us to protect its resources: the lands, the waters, the treasures, but most importantly, the people. Again, we ask that you guide our Governor and our State Legislators as they enact laws and policies that ensure the peace, liberty, and prosperity of all Floridians.

Father, we offer this prayer and we make these requests today with grateful hearts. Grant us these blessings according to your perfect will as we pray in your name. Amen.
