PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Reverend Dr. Julius Harrison McAllister, Jr., Senior Minister, Bethel A.M.E. Church, Tallahassee:

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, continue to be our guard and present help in these difficult and trying times. We come again with humble hearts, as we enter into another legislative session working to improve the quality of lives for the people of this great State of Florida.

There are many challenges before us and much work to do. However, I pray, dear God, that you will walk with, talk with, guide, and bless every effort of the men and women of the Senate as they represent and provide for their various constituencies, but with the recognition that they have a charge to keep. They are here, not only because the citizens of the State of Florida voted for them, but they are here because there is a greater plan that you have placed within them to fulfill. Give each of them the wisdom, wherewithal, mindset, and confidence to do their very best.

As Mr. Barack Obama, the President of these United States, has challenged us, dear God, help the men and women here to not reject the idea of reinventing and reinvesting in ourselves as we have done in ages past. Help them to not reject the efforts to win the race to educate our children; to not reject the efforts to improve our schools and to establish good schools; to not reject the efforts to respect those men and women at the head of our classrooms who are skill builders and ultimately nation builders; to not reject the efforts to revitalize our economy and create new jobs; to not select projects based on politics, but based on what is best for the people and the economy; and to accept the principle of fixing what needs to be fixed, and ultimately, move forward with urgency and confidence.

Although we may not always understand your ways, O God, assure each of us that every good and perfect gift that you have given to us and others is crafted by you and is to be used appropriately for the benefit of the masses and not for individual gain. Dear God, in these times that try our feeble bodies and infinite souls, give the members of this legislative body a can-do spirit. When the way seems dark, show them the light. When the way seems rough, give them a level plane. When the storm arises, calm the winds that trouble them. And then, dear God, when evening falls, give them the peace of mind that surpasses all understanding.

O merciful God, continue to favor this great State of Florida with your grace and mercy. Most of all, we thank you for the many blessings of the past and for decades to come for which we give you praise. It is in your name we pray. Amen.
