PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Rabbi Daniel Hadar, Director, Sephardic Foundation and Spiritual Leader of Temple Moses, Miami Beach:

This morning we have a few, very precious moments to come together, pray together, and reflect together before you begin the first Senate session since the tragedy in Parkland that has devastated all of us one week ago. In these extremely challenging times, let us pray together to G-d Almighty for wisdom, for togetherness, and for healing. Above all — let us ask the Almighty for light. This morning we ask G-d to help us see light in the darkness, to see hope in a world of despair, and vision in a sea of confusion.

Please G-d, help us find the inner strength to reflect our positive light in the world to help illuminate the darkness caused by the extinguishing of seventeen special flames. Please G-d, help us build unity, support, and love with each other and for each other. As we say, “Hazak u Baruch,” which means, “Please G-d, give strength,” to the Senators, legislators, and all our leaders to have insight into the issues and the fortitude to lift us all up and navigate these waters as the nation’s eyes look to you for guidance and solidarity. Please G-d, may we pull out the kindness in each of our hearts so that we may see the good in everyone. Please G-d, lift us all up. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senate Pages, Haleigh Howell of Panama City; Savannah Parker of Panama City; Steven Prutsman of Tallahassee; and Sarah Stewart of Jacksonville, led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTIONS

At the request of Senator Campbell—

By Senator Campbell—

SR 1062—A resolution recognizing February 12-16, 2018, as Jewish American Heritage Week in Florida.

WHEREAS, nationally, Jewish American Heritage Month resulted from a congressional initiative launched in 2005 to recognize the more than 360-year history of Jewish contributions to North American culture, and

WHEREAS, Jewish American Heritage Month has been commemorated since 2006 through educational programs coordinated by a number of government agencies, including the Library of Congress, the National Archives, and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, and

WHEREAS, Jewish immigrants from around the world continue to journey to the State of Florida in search of hope, shelter, and the opportunity for a new beginning, and

WHEREAS, the population of Jewish Americans in the United States has grown to 5.7 million, and 654,860 Jewish Americans reside in this state, and

WHEREAS, Jewish Americans have made vital contributions to the development of our communities, academic institutions, civic organizations, and businesses, and

WHEREAS, while contributing to every facet of American society, Jewish Americans have infused our nation’s civic, social, economic, and cultural life with their own unique culture, customs, and dynamic heritage, and

WHEREAS, the faith and hard work of Jewish Americans have played an integral role in shaping the cultural fabric of this state, and

WHEREAS, Jewish Americans have worked to promote civil rights and build bridges of mutual understanding between the world’s religions, and

WHEREAS, during Jewish American Heritage Month the nation celebrates and honors the invaluable contributions of Jewish Americans to our way of life, and it is fitting that the proud history of Jewish Americans be recognized in this state, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That February 12-16, 2018, is recognized as Jewish American Heritage Week in Florida.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.

SR 1162—A resolution recognizing the University of Florida for its exemplary accomplishments as a leading academic and research institution, as well as for its contributions to the betterment of the state and nation.

WHEREAS, the University of Florida is a top 10 university, ranking No. 9 in the 2018 U.S. News & World Report list of Best Public Universities, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida ranks third among all research universities in the country for getting its ideas out of the laboratory and into the real world, placing UF ahead of such schools as Stanford, MIT, Cal Tech, and the University of Texas system, according to the Milken Institute’s 2017 ranking of Best Universities for Technology Transfer, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida’s entomology department is the best in the world, and a host of other UF programs rank in the top 10 globally from among more than 26,000 degree-granting institutions of higher education, according to the 2017 Center for World University Rankings, and

WHEREAS, applications to the University of Florida reached a new record in 2017, with more than 34,000 prospective students vying for admission during the summer and fall semesters, nearly an 8 percent increase over the previous year’s total of 32,026, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida is once again ranked as one of the nation’s “Best Colleges for Your Money” by Money magazine, coming in 10th among public institutions in 2017, and

WHEREAS, the UF MBA Full-Time Program at the Hough Graduate School of Business achieved its highest ranking ever in The Economist’s MBA Full-Time Rankings, rising from last year’s No. 10 position to No. 5 among U.S. public institutions, and

WHEREAS, with generous funding made possible by the Legislature and Governor Rick Scott, the University of Florida will hire 500 new faculty members to further enhance teaching and research and to keep UF among the best research universities in the nation, and

WHEREAS, University of Florida faculty earned nearly $686 million in research awards in fiscal year 2017, including major grants to study the Zika virus and citrus greening, and for special education training, and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Defense is seeking ways to speed up cognitive skills training and is awarding University of Florida engineers and neuroscientists up to $8.4 million over the next 4 years to investigate how to apply electrical stimulation to peripheral nerves as a means of strengthening neuronal connections in the brain, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida’s athletics program placed third in the 2016-2017 Learfield Sports Directors’ Cup standings, making UF the only program to finish among the nation’s top 10 in each of the last 34 national all-sports standings, and

WHEREAS, in just over a month during 2017, three Gator teams celebrated NCAA Championship wins in women’s tennis, men’s track and field, and baseball, equaling the single season high set in 2011-2012 at Florida, which is one of only six schools to win national titles in baseball, basketball, and football, and

WHEREAS, in November, UF Health opened the UF Health Heart and Vascular Hospital and the UF Health Neuromedicine Hospital, representing important steps in the ongoing efforts to serve patients in the Gainesville area, and throughout the state, the Southeast, and beyond, and creating a healing environment in which UF Health’s personalized approach to care will draw upon the latest technologies in medical science, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That the University of Florida is recognized for its exemplary accomplishments as a leading academic and research institution, as well as for its contributions to the betterment of the state and nation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution, with the Seal of the Senate affixed, be presented to University of Florida President W. Kent Fuchs, Ph.D., as a tangible token of the sentiments of the Florida Senate.

SR 1164—A resolution recognizing the importance of awareness of meningococcal disease, and all five dangerous strains of the disease, including meningococcal B.

WHEREAS, meningococcal disease is an infection caused by the bacterium Neisseria meningitides, or meningococcus, and

WHEREAS, 1 in 10 people are carriers of these bacteria, and since they do not have any signs or symptoms of disease, may not know that Neisseria meningitides can sometimes cause illness, and

WHEREAS, meningococcal disease is spread from person to person via the exchange of bacteria through respiratory and throat secretions during close or lengthy contact, and

WHEREAS, nationwide, 1,000 to 1,200 cases of meningococcal disease are diagnosed each year, and

WHEREAS, 10 to 15 percent of infected individuals die, and 11 to 19 percent of those who survive suffer from serious morbidity, including the loss of limbs and impacts to the nervous system, and

WHEREAS, infants under 1 year of age, as well as young adults between the ages of 16 and 21, are most commonly impacted by this disease, and

WHEREAS, there are 12 different strains, or serogroups, of Neisseria meningitides, with serogroups A, B, C, W, and Y accounting for most meningococcal diseases in the United States, and

WHEREAS, there have been several recent outbreaks of serogroup B meningococcal disease on college campuses, with some cases resulting in death, and

WHEREAS, there are vaccines that help provide protection against all five serogroups commonly seen in the United States, and

WHEREAS, vaccination for serogroups A, C, W, and Y is routinely recommended by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and

WHEREAS, the CDC's Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices recommends that decisions to vaccinate adolescents and young adults ages 16 to 23 against serogroup B meningococcal disease should be made at the individual level in consultation with their health care providers, and

WHEREAS, the recent incidences of meningococcal disease have served as a reminder of the critical role that vaccinations play in helping to prevent this devastating illness and to maintain public health, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That the Florida Senate recognizes the importance of awareness of meningococcal disease, and all five dangerous strains of the disease, including meningococcal B.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.

SR 1204—A resolution recognizing April 23-27, 2018, as “Every Kid Healthy Week” in Florida.

WHEREAS, more than 20 percent of Florida's population, or 4.1 million residents, is under 18 years of age, and

WHEREAS, the incidence of individuals who are overweight or obese is on the rise, with more than 30 percent of Florida children considered overweight or obese, and childhood obesity has become a major health epidemic in this state, and

WHEREAS, being overweight as a child can lead to serious health problems, such as heart disease, type 2 diabetes, and asthma, and can also lead to sleep problems, low self-esteem, and being bullied, and these health and wellness concerns lead to higher health care costs that negatively impact Florida taxpayers, and

WHEREAS, nationally, 86 percent of health care expenditures go toward the diagnosis and treatment of chronic diseases, many of which have been linked to obesity and physical inactivity, and Florida spends more than $8,000 per capita annually on health care, and

WHEREAS, regular physical activity can produce long-term health benefits and, in response to the health challenges facing Florida's adolescents, many health clubs in this state have created programs directed at children and adolescents and have also developed programs that encourage families to exercise together so they live healthier lives, and

WHEREAS, the number of health club members who are under 18 years of age has more than doubled in Florida, well ahead of the national average increase of 60 percent, but, still, only 25 percent of Florida's youth meet recommended levels of aerobic and muscle-strengthening physical activity, and

WHEREAS, parents are a positive influence in helping their children eat healthier food and become more physically active, and

WHEREAS, promoting healthy behavior promotes a healthy population, reduces health care costs, and provides a healthier and more productive workforce, and

WHEREAS, Florida's future relies on the health and well-being of its youth, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That in recognition of the need to support initiatives that encourage physical activity and the adoption of healthy lifestyles, and acknowledging the need to improve the quality of life of many young Floridians and to prevent an increased burden on taxpayers stemming from the epidemic of childhood obesity, April 23-27, 2018, is recognized as “Every Kid Healthy Week” in Florida.

By Senator Passidomo—

SR 1390—A resolution recognizing May 2018 as “Bladder Cancer Awareness Month” in Florida.

WHEREAS, according to the National Cancer Institute, bladder cancer is the sixth most common cancer in the United States, and

WHEREAS, as of 2017, Florida had the second-highest average number of bladder cancer diagnoses per year of any state, and

WHEREAS, bladder cancer is the fourth most common cancer in men and approximately 587,000 people in the United States live with bladder cancer, and

WHEREAS, men have a 1 in 26 chance and women have a 1 in 88 chance of being diagnosed with bladder cancer in their lifetimes, and

WHEREAS, in 2017, approximately 79,030 new cases of bladder cancer were diagnosed nationwide, and an estimated 16,870 Americans died as a result of the disease, and

WHEREAS, although bladder cancer can occur at any age, a high percentage of people suffering from the disease are older than 55 years of age, and

WHEREAS, despite its standing as the sixth most common cancer in the United States, bladder cancer ranked 18th in terms of research money received as of 2014, and

WHEREAS, smoking and exposure to certain chemicals may increase a person's likelihood of developing bladder cancer, and

WHEREAS, because diagnosis is often delayed, which may worsen a person's prognosis, Floridians should be made aware of the early signs and symptoms associated with bladder cancer and should be encouraged to immediately discuss concerns about their urinary systems with their doctors, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That May 2018 is recognized as “Bladder Cancer Awareness Month” in Florida.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.

At the request of Senator Grimsley—

By Senator Grimsley—

SR 1918—A resolution recognizing February 2018 as “Self-Care Month” in Florida.

WHEREAS, self-care is a lifelong, daily habit of healthy lifestyle choices, good hygiene practices, following a nutritious diet, regular exercise, monitoring for signs and symptoms of changes in health, knowing when to consult a health care practitioner, and knowing when it is appropriate to self-treat conditions, and includes efforts to prevent infection and illness, and

WHEREAS, self-care includes making responsible use of all medications, both by prescription and over the counter, and

WHEREAS, the United States Food and Drug Administration deems over-the-counter medicines safe and effective for the self-care of minor acute and chronic health conditions and symptoms, such as pain, common colds, allergies, and other conditions that impact large segments of the population, and

WHEREAS, over-the-counter medicines are either developed as new nonprescription medicines or were formerly prescription medicines and now are available to consumers without a prescription, and

WHEREAS, over-the-counter medicines are self-care products that consumers purchase in pharmacies, supermarkets, retail stores, and online, and

WHEREAS, every dollar spent on over-the-counter medicines saves the United States health care system $6 to $7, totaling $102 billion in annual savings, and

WHEREAS, over-the-counter medicines help to ease the burden on health care practitioners, eliminating unnecessary medical examinations that can be avoided with appropriate self-care, and

WHEREAS, the availability of self-care can help improve personal and public health, save money for individuals and the government, and strengthen the sustainability of the broader health care system, and

WHEREAS, Florida benefits when residents practice appropriate self-care, when they do not make unnecessary visits to health care practitioners, and when they are empowered by higher self-esteem, improved health, and reduced use of health care services, and

WHEREAS, the achievement of self-care's potential is a shared opportunity for consumers, health care practitioners, policymakers, and regulators, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That February 2018 is recognized as "Self-Care Month" in Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the importance of improving awareness of self-care and the value it represents to the residents of this state is recognized.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that increased consumer empowerment through the development of new over-the-counter medicines and the availability of certain formerly prescription medicines as nonprescription medicines is encouraged.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that over-the-counter medicines can greatly improve health and reduce costs to the public health system, and consumers, health care practitioners, policymakers, and regulators are encouraged to communicate the benefits of self-care.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.

At the request of Senator Bradley—

By Senator Bradley—

SR 1928—A resolution recognizing February 25, 2018, as "St. Johns River State College Day" and commemorating the college's 60th anniversary.

WHEREAS, St. Johns River State College, formerly known as St. Johns River Junior College and St. Johns River Community College, was founded in 1958 to serve the counties of Clay, Putnam, and St. Johns, and

WHEREAS, St. Johns River State College's first campus was located in Palatka and officially opened for organizational purposes on February 25, 1958, and

WHEREAS, St. Johns River State College served 191 students in its first semester and has evolved into a multi-campus institution that currently serves approximately 11,000 students and offers Bachelor of Applied Science, Bachelor of Science, Associate in Arts, and Associate in Science degrees, as well as a variety of certificate and workforce training programs, and

WHEREAS, upon its merger with Collier-Blocker Junior College in 1964, St. Johns River State College became a fully integrated public junior college serving all students in Clay, Putnam, and St. Johns Counties, and

WHEREAS, in 1976, the Florida School of the Arts, the first state-supported professional arts school, began full operation as part of St. Johns River State College, with a charter class of 51 students, and

WHEREAS, in 1977, St. Johns River State College opened its first branch campus in Orange Park and, in 1986, opened its second branch campus in St. Augustine, and

WHEREAS, in 1997, Senate Bill 1688 authorized all community colleges to offer workforce development programs, opening the door for St. Johns River State College to become a fully comprehensive community college, and

WHEREAS, in 2004, the Thrasher-Horne Center opened on the Orange Park campus to host art exhibits, theatrical performances, community events, and business conferences, and

WHEREAS, in 2010, St. Johns River State College was granted approval to offer its first baccalaureate degrees by the State Board of Education and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges, and

WHEREAS, with this approval, the college was elevated from a Level I to a Level II accredited institution and changed its name to St. Johns River State College to better reflect this status, and

WHEREAS, St. Johns River State College continues its comprehensive and educational role by expanding its offerings in academic, workforce development, and adult education areas, as well as community education to better serve area residents, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That February 25, 2018, is recognized as "St. Johns River State College Day," and the college is celebrated for its 60th anniversary as an outstanding institution of higher education focused on student success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be presented to Joe H. Pickens, J.D., president of St. Johns River State College, as a tangible token of the sentiments expressed herein.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.
