PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Major Derek M. Boucher, MSC Chaplain of the Florida Army National Guard 83rd Troop Command located in Tallahassee:

Gracious and merciful God, we give you thanks for giving us another day. Give to us, and all people, a vivid sense of your presence, that we may respect each other, work with each other, learn to understand each other, and live with each other. So shall we make our state great in goodness and good in its greatness.

We ask for your grace to shine upon the leaders of our government, that they may be blessed with the wisdom needed to carry out their tasks and important responsibilities. Grant them the knowledge needed to govern the business of the great State of Florida justly and fairly. Assist them in their work to preserve the dignity and the rights of the citizens who have entrusted to them these positions of authority. Assist the people of our state, along with our Governor and our legislators, to work together to put an end to all that blemishes our social life or causes misery.

As we honor and appreciate our citizen soldiers and airmen today, we are mindful of the sacrifices made by each member of the Florida National Guard. May we not take for granted what so many have sacrificed and died for—freedom for all. Help us to be citizens who strive constantly to make liberty and justice a reality for all.

May all that is done this day be for your greater honor and glory. Amen.

WHEREAS, as the military arm of the Governor and the people of this state, the Florida National Guard stands ready to immediately respond to a call to duty in times of crisis or emergency, and

WHEREAS, the Florida National Guard traces its lineage back 453 years to 1565 when the first muster of a civilian militia took place in Saint Augustine, making Florida’s militia the oldest in the nation, and

WHEREAS, today’s Florida National Guard stands strong with approximately 11,500 of the best soldiers and airmen this nation has ever known, and

WHEREAS, the men and women of the Florida National Guard and their families willingly make sacrifices during times of hurricanes, fires, floods, and other natural disasters, serving domestically and around the world in contingency operations, and
