PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Reverend Abigail Moon, St. John's Episcopal Church, Tallahassee:

Lord, keep this nation under your care. Bless the leaders of our land, that we may be a people at peace among ourselves and a blessing to other nations of the earth.

Give grace to your servants, O Lord. Especially to Senators and Representatives, and to those who make our laws in this state, give courage, wisdom, and foresight to provide for the needs of all our people, and to fulfill our obligations in the community of nations.

And finally, teach our people to rely on your strength and to accept their responsibilities to their fellow citizens, that they may be trustworthy leaders and make wise decisions for the well-being of our society; that we may serve you faithfully in our generation and honor your holy name. For yours is the kingdom, O Lord, and you are exalted as head above all. Amen.

Section 5. Subsections (4), (6), and (7) of section 751.05, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

751.05 Order granting temporary or concurrent custody.—

(4) The order granting:

(a) Concurrent custody of the minor child may not eliminate or diminish the custodial rights of the child’s parent or parents. The order must expressly state that the grant of custody does not affect the ability of the child’s parent or parents to obtain physical custody of the child at any time, except that the court may approve provisions requested in the petition which are related to the best interest of the child, including a reasonable transition plan that provides for a return of custody back to the child’s parent or parents.

(b) Temporary custody of the minor child to the petitioner may include provisions requested in the petition which are related to the best interest of the child, including a reasonable transition plan that provides for a return of custody back to the parent or parents, and may also grant visitation rights to the child’s parent or parents, if it is in the best interest of the child.

(6) At any time, either or both of the child’s parents may petition the court to modify or terminate the order granting temporary custody.

(c) If the order granting temporary custody was entered after a finding that the child’s parent or parents are unfit and the child has been in the temporary custody of an extended family member for a period of time the court determines to be significant, the court may, on its own motion, establish reasonable conditions, which are in the best interests of the child, for transitioning the child back to the custody of the child’s parent or parents. In determining such reasonable conditions, the court shall consider all of the following:

1. The length of time the child lived or resided with the extended family member.

2. The child’s developmental stage.

3. The length of time reasonably needed to complete the transition
~~The court may modify an order granting temporary custody if the parties consent or if modification is in the best interest of the child.~~

(7) At any time, the petitioner or either or both of the child’s parents may move the court to terminate the order granting concurrent custody.

(a) The court shall terminate the order upon a finding that either or both of the child’s parents object to the order, except that the court may require the parties to comply with provisions approved in the order which are related to a reasonable plan for transitioning custody before terminating the order.

Delete lines 15-17 and insert: the court to order on its own motion the transitioning of a child back to the custody of his or her parents in such proceedings under certain circumstances; requiring the court to consider specified factors when entering such order; authorizing courts to require parties to comply with provisions approved in the order which relate to a reasonable plan for transitioning custody before terminating the order; providing an effective date.
