PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Rabbi Schneur Oirechman, Chabad Lubavitch of the Panhandle, Tallahassee:

Almighty G-d, master of the universe: Today, the Jewish world commemorates the Fast of Esther, a day of fasting and soul searching, which leads to the joyous festival of Purim and begins this evening. On this auspicious day, we ask you to bless our state leaders, bless the President of the Senate, Bill Galvano, and all of the honorable Senators of our state and their families. We invoke your mercy on all of the citizens of our great state to be saved from calamities that come to the world.

The festival of Purim recalls and relives the series of incredible events in ancient Persia over 2,400 years ago, in which the entire Jewish nation was miraculously saved from annihilation. At the center of this historic event lies Queen Esther, the Jewish woman and the heroine who was willing to sacrifice herself to save her people. Her action led to the eventual nullification of the evil decrees of Haman and the ultimate salvation of the Jewish people. Esther went to the King to beseech him for mercy, but she fasted and prayed to you, almighty G-d, knowing it is all in your hands.

About the name of this holiday called Purim, many ask why this name was selected. After all, Purim simply means “lots,” referring to the lots that the villain Haman drew in order to carry out his evil plot. What possible message could there be in this name which seemingly reflects on the evil scheme of Haman highlighting the negative aspects of the story rather than the positive ones of the heroine Esther? The great Kabbalists, or mystics, point to a deeper meaning which has relevance for us in this day and age and I believe, indeed, a very relevant message for us in our session here in the Senate today.

The drawing of lots may seem totally random, but this exercise is symbolic of true, free choice. By way of example: Let’s say you go to the car dealer and you are presented with a spanking new Lamborghini in the parking lot right next to a rusty old Chevy. When you picked the Lamborghini, hopefully over the Chevy, that was not a free choice at all. Your brain forced you to pick the Lamborghini, almost the same as someone would force you to choose whatever he or she is asking you to do. In the case of the car dealer, you too haven’t really made a choice, because you are forced by your logic to pick the Lamborghini. True choice only occurs when you would have two new identical 2021 Lamborghinis and randomly pick one over the other. That is a true, free choice because, in that case, you were not forced even by your own logic. The choice, in this case, reflects a level deep within the essence of every human G-dly soul that is pure and truly objective with no ulterior motive. When a choice is made from that level, we are free to transcend the limitations of our own intellect or emotions. This, my friends, is what the Kabbalists call free choice or the state of randomness, the intimate definition of drawing lots. Hence, the name Purim.

While the human condition is generally subjective and tainted with motives, when we reach a little bit deeper into the recesses of our soul and go beyond our own logic or conclusions of our own possible motives, we become objective and unlimited servants of the creator to bring goodness and kindness to the world. This, my friends, is the secret behind Esther’s fasting—to go beyond herself as a true servant to her nation and to the world at large so that her choice would not be tainted with her own subjective logic or ulterior motives or emotions. And Esther’s lesson also teaches that the reward of such efforts will certainly bear fruit for all mankind to celebrate a day of rejoicings like Purim or pure randomness.

Almighty G-d, we know that your servants here are here for you and desire to be objective in fulfilling your wish and the true good for the people. Just like Esther of old, we ask you to give us the strength to find this inner, free choice and to go the extra mile to dig deeper into our souls to reach beyond the limitations forced by our own ulterior motives.

Almighty G-d, it is indeed fitting that today, as the members of this distinguished Senate stand before you close to the end of the session, we recall the self-sacrifice of the Senators to serve the citizens of our great state. Our Senators are doing their part, and we now ask for your blessings to translate that willingness into constructive practice. May you continue to guide and strengthen them to faithfully serve the people of Florida. Through them glorify your name and ultimately bring about a good and better world, leading to the full and final redemption and the ultimate rejoicing beyond all limitation. As we rededicate ourselves to this sacred task, let us say, “Amen.”

PLEDGE

Senate Pages, Logan Allison of Tallahassee; Morgan Crum of Crawfordville; and Lane Gainey of Panama City, led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

DOCTOR OF THE DAY

The President recognized Dr. Brence A. Sell of Tallahassee, sponsored by Senator Montford, as the doctor of the day. Dr. Sell specializes in anesthesiology.

Amendment 1 (204448) (with title amendment)—Before line 11 insert:

Section 1. Subsections (2) and (3) of section 20.316, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

20.316 Department of Juvenile Justice.—There is created a Department of Juvenile Justice.

(2) DEPARTMENT PROGRAMS.—The following programs are established within the Department of Juvenile Justice:

(a) Accountability and Program Support.

(d)(a) ~~Prevention and Victim Services.~~

(c)(b) ~~Intake and Detention.~~

(f)(e) ~~Residential and Correctional Facilities.~~

(e)(d) ~~Probation and Community Corrections.~~

(b)(e) ~~Administration.~~

The secretary may establish assistant secretary positions and a chief of staff position as necessary to administer the requirements of this section.

(3) JUVENILE JUSTICE OPERATING CIRCUITS.—The department shall plan and administer its programs through a substate structure that conforms to the boundaries of the judicial circuits prescribed in s. 26.021. A county may seek placement in a juvenile justice operating circuit other than as prescribed in s. 26.021 for participation in the ~~Prevention and Victim Services~~ Program and the Probation and Community Corrections Program by making a request of the chief circuit judge in each judicial circuit affected by such request. Upon a showing that geographic proximity, community identity, or other legitimate concern for efficiency of operations merits alternative placement, each affected chief circuit judge may authorize the execution of an interagency agreement specifying the alternative juvenile justice operating circuit in which the county is to be placed and the basis for the alternative placement. Upon the execution of said interagency agreement by each affected chief circuit judge, the secretary may administratively place a county in an alternative juvenile justice operating circuit pursuant to the agreement.

Section 2. Section 985.686, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Section 3. Subsections (1) through (4) and (6) of section 985.6865, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

985.6865 Juvenile detention.—

(1) ~~The Legislature finds that various counties and the Department of Juvenile Justice have engaged in a multitude of legal proceedings regarding detention cost sharing for juveniles. Such litigation has largely focused on how the Department of Juvenile Justice calculates the detention costs that the counties are responsible for paying, leading to the overbilling of counties for a period of years. Additionally, litigation pending in 2016 is a financial burden on the taxpayers of this state.~~

(2) ~~It is the intent of the Legislature that all counties that are not fiscally constrained counties and that have pending administrative or judicial claims or challenges file a notice of voluntary dismissal with prejudice to dismiss all actions pending on or before February 1, 2016, against the state or any state agency related to juvenile detention cost sharing. Furthermore, all counties that are not fiscally constrained shall execute a release and waiver of any existing or future claims and actions arising from detention cost share prior to the 2016-2017 fiscal year. The department may not seek reimbursement from counties~~

~~complying with this subsection for any underpayment for any cost-sharing requirements before the 2016-2017 fiscal year.~~

(1)(3) As used in this section, the term:

(a) “Detention care” means secure detention and respite beds for juveniles charged with a domestic violence crime.

(b) “Fiscally constrained county” means a county within a rural area of opportunity as designated by the Governor pursuant to s. 288.0656 or each county for which the value of a mill will raise no more than $5 million in revenue, based on the certified school taxable value certified pursuant to s. 1011.62(4)(a)1.a., from the previous July 1.

(c) “Total shared detention costs” means the amount of funds expended by the department for the costs of detention care for the prior fiscal year. This amount includes the most recent actual certify forward amounts minus any funds it expends on detention care for juveniles residing in fiscally constrained counties or out of state.

~~(2)(4) Notwithstanding s. 985.686, for the 2017-2018 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, each county that is not a fiscally constrained county and that has taken the action fulfilling the intent of this section as described in subsection (2) shall pay its annual percentage share of 50 percent of the total shared detention costs. Annually by July 15, 2017, and each year thereafter, the department shall calculate and provide to each county that is not a fiscally constrained county and that does not provide its own detention care for juveniles its annual percentage share by dividing the total number of detention days for juveniles residing in the county for the most recently completed 12-month period by the total number of detention days for juveniles in all counties that are not fiscally constrained counties during the same period. The annual percentage share of each county that is not a fiscally constrained county and that does not provide its own detention care for juveniles must be multiplied by 50 percent of the total shared detention costs to determine that county's share of detention costs. Beginning August 1, each such county shall pay to the department its share of detention costs, which shall be paid in 12 equal payments due on the first day of each month. The state shall pay the remaining actual costs of detention care.~~

~~(4)(6) Each county that is not a fiscally constrained county and that does not provide its own detention care for juveniles has taken the action fulfilling the intent of this section as described in subsection (2) shall incorporate into its annual county budget sufficient funds to pay its annual percentage share of the total shared detention costs required by subsection (2) (4).~~
