PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Reverend Margaret Fox, First Presbyterian Church, Tallahassee:

Almighty God, we thank you for this day, for this chance to gather, and for this charge to serve the public interest and uphold the public trust. We pray today for the men and women of the Florida Senate. Give them ears to listen, minds to think, hearts to love, and hands to act. Sober them, center them, and remind them of their purpose and their calling. Give them wisdom and courage to know and to do what is right. Help them work together, and help them serve the people of this state.

We pray today for all the people who support this legislative body, for all those present here today, in person or online. We pray for staffers and aides, lobbyists and activists, concerned citizens and custodial staff, proofreaders and parliamentarians, security professionals and journalists, and camera operators and cafeteria workers. We thank you for their work. Help them to do it well. And, we pray today for the people of Florida.

In all matters that are before this body, bless us. Bless us in our education, our employment, our transportation, our recreation, our healthcare, and our family life. Bless us when we're at our best, and help us when we're at our worst. Awaken the better angels of our nature. Help us to love and honor one another. Help us to live the best lives we can. We pray all of this in your holy name. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senator Berman led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTIONS

At the request of Senator Perry—

By Senator Perry—

SR 618—A resolution recognizing May 10, 2021, and each May 10 thereafter, as “First Responders Mental Health Awareness Day” in Florida.

WHEREAS, Florida is home to a large community of first responders, including law enforcement officers, firefighters, emergency medical service professionals, emergency medical technicians, and paramedics, who work tirelessly on behalf of the people of this state, often without regard to the peril to their own well-being, and

WHEREAS, while mental health problems can affect people of all ages and walks of life, first responders are at a higher risk than the general population of suffering mental health issues due to the challenging nature of their duties, and

WHEREAS, research frequently describes shame and stigma surrounding mental health care needs within a profession that prioritizes bravery and toughness, and

WHEREAS, while this culture is, perhaps, necessary to survive the dangers of the job, it also contributes to the phenomenon of first responders not seeking help to manage chronic stress or trauma injury, or not even recognizing the need before it becomes critical, and

WHEREAS, we also must recognize that the COVID-19 pandemic represents one of the biggest challenges in modern times, especially to our first responders, as they face increased workloads as they adapt to policing and emergency response models in a pandemic, compounding the dynamic nature of first responder stress and fatigue at a time when health, wellness, and resiliency are more critical than ever, and

WHEREAS, police, firefighters, and emergency medical personnel pay a high price for their prompt response to the needs of others, and

WHEREAS, we owe a great debt to our first responders and will continue to work to improve their mental health care, their lives, and the lives of their families, no matter the week or month, and

WHEREAS, we salute all of our heroes risking their lives to protect us all, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That May 10, 2021, and each May 10 thereafter, is recognized as “First Responders Mental Health Awareness Day” in Florida.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.

At the request of Senator Jones—

By Senator Jones—

SR 2026—A resolution recognizing April 1, 2021, as “FAMU Day” in Florida.

WHEREAS, Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University (FAMU) was founded in 1887, named a land-grant institution in 1891, and designated a university in 1953, and

WHEREAS, FAMU, a historically black college and university (HBCU) offering undergraduate, graduate, postgraduate, and professional degree programs, seeks qualified students from all racial, ethnic, religious, and national groups and provides immeasurable educational opportunities for young men and women, and

WHEREAS, academic components of the university consist of seven colleges and seven schools: the Colleges of Agriculture and Food Sciences; Education; Engineering; Law; Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences; Science and Technology; and Social Sciences, Arts, and Humanities and the Schools of Allied Health Sciences; Architecture and Engineering Technology; Business and Industry; the Environment; Graduate Studies and Research; Journalism and Graphic Communication; and Nursing, and

WHEREAS, under the dedicated leadership of President Larry Robinson, Ph.D., and the FAMU Board of Trustees, FAMU is laser-focused on providing an exceptional student experience and ranks first among public HBCUs for the second consecutive year according to the U.S. News & World Report 2021 Best Colleges Ranking of Top Public Universities, and

WHEREAS, FAMU is the leading producer of African-American graduates in several disciplines at the baccalaureate, professional, and graduate levels and is ranked as a top STEM HBCU for science, technology, engineering, and math majors, and

WHEREAS, since April 25, 2020, FAMU’s Bragg Stadium has served as a free COVID-19 testing site for the Big Bend community, providing more than 250,000 tests and helping to address vaccine hesitancy, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That, in recognition of Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University’s contributions as an outstanding institution of higher education, April 1, 2021, is recognized as “FAMU Day” in Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution, with the Seal of the Senate affixed, be presented to Larry Robinson, Ph.D., President of Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University, as a tangible token of the sentiments of the Florida Senate.
