PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Rabbi Moshe Matz, Agudath Israel of Florida, Aventura:

It is an honor to be asked to begin this session in this awesome chamber with a prayer. I stood at this podium just about a year ago to say a prayer as the COVID pandemic had just begun to impact the world. Here we are, a year later, the world a very different place. Today, we are still hearing distressing reports of the impact of the virus around the world, but the greatest struggle of our time is to see our country and its people fearful, distrustful, and divided.

It behooves us now, more than ever, to turn our eyes and hearts to G-d for direction and protection. The Almighty is beseeching us to embrace our common humanity, to give priority to a meaningful and purposeful life—a life that embraces the good of the other over our own rights. We put our love of G-d and country where its citizens are above our own basic needs. This is a great country, without a doubt, a blessed land. We should once again embrace the call of President Kennedy and not ask what my country can do for me but what I may do for my country.

Let us never lose sight of the Almighty Creator, let us always seek to do his actual will and follow his precepts. We must always speak truth, encourage responsibility, and respect each other so that we may continue to earn as many blessings for generations to come. We pray for G-d's protection and support. We ask that G-d keep our law enforcement professionals and our armed forces safe and guarded and the people of this chamber and all elected officials in the State of Florida safe, protected, and healthy.

In the Jewish prayer services that we conduct three times a day, we conclude our words with the following verse, "He who makes peace on his heights, may he make peace upon us and upon all of Israel." Now let us respond, "Amen."

PLEDGE

Senator Burgess led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.
