PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Pastor Gary Austin, Faith Fellowship Church, Crawfordville, an employee of the Office of the Sergeant at Arms:

Our most gracious Heavenly Father, we come before you this morning to ask you for your blessings upon all who are in this chamber representing the people of Florida. May we lean on your wisdom and direction as the business of the Senate is conducted and the votes are ultimately cast. Much work has been done by individuals, teams, and committees before the final presentation is brought before this chamber. Be with the many people who have given their time, effort, long hours and, yes, the giving up of precious family time to get the bills and resolutions to this point.

May you pour out your comfort and protection on our families—many who are miles away—as we navigate the difficulties of separation and our desire to be with them. Sacrifice is a hard thing, especially when it involves our family. Give each of us the strength to move forward and to complete the task set before us.

We want to remember our fallen heroes who have given their lives to defend our freedoms and ask for continued protection for those still serving abroad in harm’s way.

Thank you for all you have done and will do in our lives. May we never become complacent with our lives that you have given us, but instead, we ask that you direct us in your ways so that we may run the race of life and do it well. We ask all these things in your precious and holy name. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senate Pages, Lauren Baldwin of Davie; Conolly Forehand of Panama City; and Whitton Musgrove of Live Oak, led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTIONS

At the request of Senator Boyd—

By Senator Boyd—

SR 1812—A resolution encouraging higher education institutions in Florida to recognize an annual “Sunshine Day” focused on the mental and physical well-being of their students.

WHEREAS, mental and physical health problems impact all aspects of society, including this state’s educational system, and

WHEREAS, as a vulnerable population, college students are susceptible to an increased risk of anxiety, depression, suicide, and distress, and the development of other mental health-related issues, and

WHEREAS, such mental health challenges on the part of college students predate the COVID-19 pandemic, with observed rates of anxiety and depression increasing for this population throughout the 2010s, and

WHEREAS, college students continue to face significant psychological impacts from the lingering effects of measures taken during the COVID-19 pandemic, such as lockdowns and the transition to online courses, and

WHEREAS, in a study published in 2020 by the National Institutes of Health, 138 of the 195 college students surveyed said that the COVID-19 pandemic had increased their stress and anxiety levels, and

WHEREAS, navigating the stressors of college can be overwhelming, and a student’s success is often determined by his or her mental and physical well-being, and

WHEREAS, setting aside a day for students to reflect on their well-being and to participate in campus activities emphasizing the importance of mental health may improve student success and enhance their quality of life as they enter young adulthood, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That higher education institutions in Florida are encouraged to recognize an annual “Sunshine Day” focused on the mental and physical well-being of their students.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.

Senator DiCeglie moved the following amendment which was adopted:

Amendment 2 (537920) (with title amendment)—Delete lines 465-736 and insert: a fine for failure to register under the local program. A local government must prepare a business impact estimate in accordance with s. 125.66(3) or s. 166.041(4), as applicable, before implementing a vacation rental registration program.

(a) A local government may charge a reasonable fee per unit for processing a registration application. A local law, ordinance, or regulation may require annual renewal of a registration and may charge a reasonable renewal fee per unit for processing of a registration renewal. However, if there is a change of ownership, the new owner may be required to submit a new application for registration. Subsequent to the registration of a vacation rental, a local government may charge a reasonable fee to inspect a vacation rental after registration for compliance with the Florida Building Code and the Florida Fire Prevention Code, described in ss. 553.80 and 633.206, respectively.

(b) As a condition of registration or renewal of a vacation rental, a local law, ordinance, or regulation establishing a local vacation rental registration program may only require the operator of a vacation rental to do the following:

1. Submit identifying information about the owner and the operator, if applicable, and the subject vacation rental premises.

2. Provide proof of a license with the unique identifier issued by the division to operate as a vacation rental.

3. Obtain all required tax registrations, receipts, or certificates issued by the Department of Revenue, a county, or a municipality.

4. Update required information as necessary to ensure it is current.

5. Designate and maintain at all times a responsible party who is capable of responding to complaints or emergencies related to the vacation rental, including being available by telephone at a provided contact telephone number 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and receiving legal notice of violations on behalf of the vacation rental operator.

6. State and comply with the maximum overnight occupancy of the vacation rental which does not exceed either two persons per bedroom, plus an additional two persons in one common area; or more than two persons per bedroom if there is at least 50 square feet per person, plus an additional two persons in one common area, whichever is greater.

7. Pay in full all recorded municipal or county code liens against the subject vacation rental premises.

(c) Within 15 business days after receiving an application for registration of a vacation rental, a local government shall review the application for completeness and accept the registration of the vacation rental or issue a written notice of denial.

1. The vacation rental operator and the local government may agree to a reasonable request to extend the timeframes provided in this paragraph, particularly in the event of a force majeure or other extraordinary circumstance.

2. If a local government fails to accept or deny the registration within the timeframes provided in this paragraph, the application is deemed accepted.

(d) If a local government denies a registration of a vacation rental, the local government must give written notice to the applicant. Such notice may be provided by United States mail or electronically. The notice must specify with particularity the factual reasons for the denial and include a citation to the applicable portions of the ordinance, rule, statute, or other legal authority for the denial of the registration. A local government may not prohibit an applicant from reapplying if the applicant cures the identified deficiencies.

(e)1. Upon acceptance of a vacation rental registration, a local government shall assign a unique registration number to the vacation rental unit and provide the registration number or other indicia of registration to the vacation rental operator in writing or electronically.

b. Is operating a vacation rental without registering it with the local government as a vacation rental; or

c. Fails to provide the division with the unique registration number as required in paragraph (e).

2. Before issuing a fine, the local government shall issue written notice of such violation and provide a vacation rental operator 15 days to cure the violation. If the vacation rental operator has not cured the violation within the 15 days, the local government may issue a fine.

(g) A certified copy of an order imposing a fine may be recorded in the public records and thereafter constitutes a lien against the real property on which the violation exists and upon any other real or personal property owned by the violator. Upon petition to the circuit court, such order is enforceable in the same manner as a court judgment by the sheriffs of this state, including execution and levy against the personal property of the violator, but such order may not be deemed to be a court judgment except for enforcement purposes. A fine imposed pursuant to this subsection will continue to accrue until the violator comes into compliance or until judgment is rendered in a suit filed pursuant to this section, whichever occurs first. A lien arising from a fine imposed pursuant to this subsection runs in favor of the local government, and the local government shall execute a satisfaction or release of lien upon full payment. If such lien remains unpaid 3 months or more after the filing of the lien, the local government may foreclose on the lien against the real property on which the violation exists or sue to recover a money judgment for the amount of the lien, plus accrued interest. A lien created pursuant to this part may not be foreclosed on real property that is a homestead under s. 4, Art. X of the State Constitution. The money judgment provisions of this section do not apply to real property or personal property that is covered under s. 4(a), Art. X of the State Constitution.

(h)1. If a code violation related to the vacation rental is found by the code enforcement board or special magistrate to be a material violation of a local law, ordinance, or regulation that does not solely apply to vacation rentals, and the violation is directly related to the vacation rental premises, the local government must issue a written notice of such violation.

2. If a code violation related to the vacation rental is found to be a material violation of a local law, ordinance, or regulation as described in subparagraph 1., the code enforcement board or special magistrate must make a recommendation to the local government as to whether a vacation rental registration should be suspended.

3. The code enforcement board or special magistrate must recommend the suspension of the vacation rental registration if there are:

- a. One or more violations on 5 separate days during a 60-day period;
- b. One or more violations on 5 separate days during a 30-day period; or
- c. One or more violations after two prior suspensions of the vacation rental registration.

4. If the code enforcement board or special magistrate recommends suspension of a vacation rental registration, a local government may suspend such registration for a period of:

- a. Up to 30 days for one or more violations on 5 separate days during a 60-day period;
- b. Up to 60 days for one or more violations on 5 separate days during a 30-day period; or
- c. Up to 90 days for one or more violations after two prior suspensions of a vacation rental registration.

5. A local government may not suspend a vacation rental registration for violations of a local law, ordinance, or regulation which are not directly related to the vacation rental premises.

6. A local government shall provide notice of the suspension of a vacation rental registration to the vacation rental operator and the division within 5 days after the suspension. The notice must include the start date of the suspension, which must be at least 21 days after the suspension notice is sent to the vacation rental operator and the division. Effective January 1, 2026, a local government shall use the vacation rental information system described in s. 509.244 to provide notice of the suspension of a vacation rental registration to the division.

(i)1. A local government may revoke or refuse to renew a vacation rental registration if:

- a. A vacation rental registration has been suspended three times pursuant to paragraph (h);
- b. There is an unsatisfied, recorded municipal lien or county lien on the real property of the vacation rental. However, the local government shall allow the vacation rental operator at least 60 days before the revocation of a registration to satisfy the recorded municipal lien or county lien; or

c. The vacation rental premises and its owner are the subject of a final order or judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction lawfully directing the termination of the premises' use as a vacation rental.

2. A local government shall provide notice within 5 days after the revocation of, or refusal to renew, a vacation rental registration to the vacation rental operator and the division. The notice must include the date of revocation or nonrenewal, which must be at least 21 days after the date such notice is sent to the vacation rental operator and the division. Effective January 1, 2026, a local government shall use the vacation rental information system described in s. 509.244 to provide notice of the revocation of or refusal to renew a vacation rental registration to the division.

(j) A vacation rental operator may appeal a denial, suspension, or revocation of a vacation rental registration, or a refusal to renew such registration, to the circuit court. An appeal must be filed within 30 days after the issuance of the denial, suspension, or revocation of, or refusal to renew, the vacation rental registration. The court may assess and award reasonable attorney fees and costs and damages to the prevailing party.

This subsection does not prohibit a local government from establishing a local law, ordinance, or regulation if it is uniformly applied without regard to whether the residential property is used as a vacation rental.

Section 4. Effective January 1, 2025, subsections (2) and (3) of section 509.241, Florida Statutes, are amended, and subsection (5) is added to that section, to read:
