Excused: Senator Yarborough

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Pastor Darrick McGhee, Sr., Bible Based Church, Tallahassee:

O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth. On this day, as we consider our friends in Parkland, Florida, we thank you for the memory of their lives. We pray blessings upon their families. Father, today we also pray for the Florida Senate—from its leadership to its great work it is going to do. Thank you for the blessing that is today—for the great work they are going to do. Pray that you will bless their families and keep them safe.

O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name. I pray that you would allow them to do great work today during these 2024 Legislative Session days. Pray that whatever they are focusing on today, they'll give it their all. They'll be committed to the work, committed to their constituency, and be committed to the betterment of our state, the great State of Florida. I pray that you will continue to be glorified in all things, and I also pray that all that we do will be pleasing. Bless now, keep now is our earnest prayer. This is my invocation unto you. We thank you now. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senate Pages, Minh Bui of Orlando; Celeste Diaz of Tampa; and Kayla Iarossi of Tallahassee, led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

DOCTOR OF THE DAY

The President recognized Dr. Michael Allison of Clearwater, sponsored by Senator Hooper, as the doctor of the day. Dr. Allison specializes in family medicine and obstetrics.

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTIONS

At the request of Senator Perry—

By Senator Perry—

SR 360—A resolution recognizing June 2024, and each June thereafter, as “Scoliosis Awareness Month” in Florida.

WHEREAS, scoliosis is an abnormal curvature of the spine which can lead to lifelong health issues and affects an estimated 7 million people in the United States and almost 550,000 people in this state, and

WHEREAS, left untreated, scoliosis can worsen and may cause chronic back pain, impact heart and lung function, limit mobility, damage self-esteem, and diminish the overall quality of life, and

WHEREAS, most are diagnosed with scoliosis between the ages of 10 and 15, but the condition also affects infants and adults, regardless of race, class, or gender, with curve acceleration occurring, on average, just before age 12, and

WHEREAS, increasing public awareness is important for health care professionals, teachers, parents, and children to understand and recognize the early signs of scoliosis and to help those affected to seek professional treatment, avoiding what could become a complex spinal deformity, and

WHEREAS, health care screening for the condition is noninvasive and takes about 30 seconds, allowing for early detection and treatment, which can lessen the long-term effects of scoliosis, and

WHEREAS, the Department of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, through the school health services program, screens for scoliosis and monitors growth and development to help minimize health barriers for students in grades pre-K through 12, and

WHEREAS, Governor Ron DeSantis and State Surgeon General Dr. Joseph Ladapo are working together to protect, promote, and improve the health of all Floridians by making public health resources available through state, county, and community efforts, and

WHEREAS, Scoliosis Awareness Month is an opportunity to renew our commitment to increasing awareness of scoliosis and bettering our understanding of this condition through research and innovation, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That June 2024, and each June thereafter, is recognized as “Scoliosis Awareness Month” in Florida.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.

At the request of Senator Perry—

By Senator Perry—

SR 1002—A resolution recognizing the accomplishments of the University of Florida and designating February 14, 2024, as “Gator Day” at the Capitol.

WHEREAS, the University of Florida is the nation's top public university, ranked first among all public institutions by the Wall Street Journal based on value, graduation rates, and student-to-faculty ratios, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida conducted a record $1.25 billion in research over the last year, funding new health care discoveries, scientific exploration, agricultural studies, and technological advancements, and

WHEREAS, UF Health Shands Hospital has nine medical specialties ranked in the top 50 nationwide, including five adult and four children's specialties, with top doctors, researchers, and health care workers caring for patients from across the state and nation, and

WHEREAS, the university's College of Veterinary Medicine has launched the first open-heart surgery program in the nation to treat dogs requiring a mitral valve repair — a step above any other veterinary institution of higher learning, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida is at the forefront of education in artificial intelligence, offering all students the Fundamentals of AI course and access to an AI pathways career coach and supporting K-12 AI education programs so that students and faculty benefit from the latest technology and research, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences conducted a record-breaking $300 million in research projects in fiscal year 2023, representing an 8 percent increase from the previous year and a historic level of funding that supports Florida's agricultural and natural resources research, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida Office of the President, under the leadership of President Ben Sasse, announced in fall 2023 numerous strategic funding projects totaling more than $29 million for 36 innovative research projects designed to advance the student experience and interdisciplinary scholarship across the university, and

WHEREAS, the Herbert Wertheim UF Scripps Institute for Biomedical Innovation and Technology has yielded more than $3.2 billion in economic impact within its first 20 years of operation and continues to make advancements that benefit human health and improve technology, and

WHEREAS, the UF Health Cancer Center was recently designated as a National Cancer Institute Designated Cancer Center due to its quality of care, high standards, and cutting-edge research that gives patients the best outcomes and treatment, as well as additional funding to further enhance care and attract world-class clinicians and researchers, and

WHEREAS, the university's Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering established the Florida Semiconductor Institute to lead the state in the creation and development of microchips that are vital to our society, a step toward bringing manufacturing back to the United States and advancing research and technology to sustain the semiconductor industry, and

WHEREAS, the university's College of Agricultural and Life Sciences has more staff with United States Department of Agriculture teaching awards than any other land-grant institution, an exceptional achievement indicative of the college's commitment to the success of its students beyond the classroom, and

WHEREAS, UF Health Shands Children's Hospital has earned a prestigious designation as a Level 1 center for pediatric trauma care due to its fulfillment of the American College of Surgeons standards for staff, resources, and equipment to ensure the highest quality of treatment for children facing life-threatening emergencies, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida is a designated Yellow Ribbon school due to its uniquely supportive academic and financial resources for veterans through the Office of Student Veteran Success and the UF Collegiate Veterans Success Center, which are dedicated to supporting those who have served, and

WHEREAS, UF Health has just concluded a 7-year, $44 million improvement and expansion of facilities at the Proton Therapy Institute to increase the number of rooms and personal treatment options for cancer patients, which will draw patients and researchers from across the state and nation, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That the University of Florida is commended and congratulated for its dedication to the advancement of the State of Florida, and that February 14, 2024, is designated as "Gator Day" at the Capitol.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution, with the Seal of the Senate affixed, be presented to University of Florida President Dr. Ben Sasse as a tangible token of the sentiments of the Florida Senate.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.

Amendment 1 (711612) (with title amendment)—Delete lines 33-40 and insert:

(a) Establish a network of swimming lesson vendors that will accept the vouchers offered by the program in exchange for providing swimming lessons. To establish the network, the department may contract directly with swimming lesson vendors or contract with one or more nonprofit organizations that promote swimming safety to subcontract with and manage swimming lesson vendors in one or more counties, or both. To ensure that swimming lessons are available throughout this state, the department, either directly or through a contracted nonprofit organization, must attempt to secure at least one such vendor in each county. Any swimming lesson vendor that offers swimming lessons at a public pool that is owned or maintained by a county or municipality must, if requested by the department or by a nonprofit organization contracted by the department,

And the title is amended as follows:

Delete lines 6-8 and insert: establish a network of swimming lesson vendors to participate in the program; authorizing the department to contract with certain nonprofit organizations to assist in establishing the network; requiring the department or a contracted nonprofit organization to attempt to secure a vendor
