PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Pastor Ron Camblin, Aloma Church, Winter Park:

Almighty God, I come before you giving thanks for this day which you have given to us. For this is the day which you have made, and we each rejoice in it. We are humbled by your presence and your gracious love for us. I would ask that you guide us as we steward the opportunities you graciously give us each day. I seek your blessings upon our Governor and the Senators as they lead us.

Today, Almighty God, I thank you for the individuals who stand with me in this chamber. It is our honor in this moment to invite you into the conversations and business of this day. I pray that our hearts will be open to your leading, and our thoughts and responses will be a reflection of you. Almighty God, I ask that you would give each Senator the eye of an eagle, wisdom; the heart of a lion, courage; and the hand of a lady, meekness; for these will guide them in their leadership in their communities and in our state.

Almighty God, there have been many days in centuries past which have been challenging and difficult, but when people looked to you, you showed them the way. So, today I ask that you help each of us to have the heart of the men of Issachar, for it was said, "They understood the times and they knew what to do." I pray today that you will do the same for each of us in this room. May we have a heart of understanding of the times which we face, and would you guide these leaders to know what to do for the benefit of our state, Florida. We thank you for the freedom which we enjoy and may we not relinquish it, but uphold it with dignity and honor.

For I ask this all in Jesus' name. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senate Pages, Maura Evans of Boca Raton; Hunter Hayes of Lake Nona; and Jack Senkarik of Viera, led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

REMARKS

On motion by Senator Mayfield, by two-thirds vote, the following remarks by Senator Torres were ordered spread upon the Journal.

Senator Torres: You know, I'm so humbled to be here. It's a long road, and when you walk in these shoes, you get to appreciate where God has put you. Sometimes we say, "It's God's path where to put you." As a public servant, we've heard over and over again here—40 years as a public servant, serving the community, serving my country, serving my state, in New York, serving here in the State of Florida—you can't beat that. That will always stay with us because we never expected this. This was a path that was unknown to us, and it's due to her, my daughter. These are things that happen to us as we go along.

You know, Senator Albritton, I wish you the best—your incoming leadership. You're going to be an awesome leader. You're going to be busy—let's put it that way.

I notice that Senator Baxley is not here today; Senator Hooper is not here—my friends that I respect. And you know what—that's the whole thing of this. You respect each other.

Senator Berman, it was always an honor, even in the House. We were the Whips in the House, remember? "Hey, Vic, you've got to get up, whip them up." And I said, "Whip who up?" It was one of those things, you know. I was trying to get people to get involved, to pay attention, not to stray.

Senator Boyd, you are a gentleman. You have that aura—you do. When you say, "Vic, how is this bill?" I mean, many of you do it, but I know Jim does it as well.

Senator Brodeur, we worked Central Florida on many issues—we need to work on more.

Senator Broxson is the Chair of Appropriations. Well, sir, you're not only a true gentleman, but also you have the purse strings on our budget policies. Please make them happen for our Central Florida people.

Senator Harrell, Lady in Red, you are consistent. Senator Harrell, you have that tenacity. Watching you, I go, "Uh-oh, look out." I remember once presenting a bill in front of Senator Harrell, and I was like, "Oh, Lord." You know, she starts itching here, itching there, and asking you questions. You're like, "You better be prepared." I tell my staff, "Listen, I don't want to get caught because Senator Harrell's going to be questioning me on this bill." But, you're a great Senator. You do a lot. Gracias.

Senator Hutson, the Dean. He was in the House when I was in the House, and he got promoted to the Senate. Wish him a lot of luck.

My friend, Senator Shev Jones. You've got a career, my friend. You've got a career. This is just a stepping stone for you, man. You know, you're getting what's going on, but I see a future for you, a big future. You're a young man, you're powerful, articulate, and your words carry a lot of weight. I listen to you—you're going to go a long way.

Senator Powell, what can I say about you? I've heard Bobby singing in our Caucus Room—sometimes he comes in singing a tune, a hymn, or something—he's inspiring. He comes in and he's not singing—so I say, "Okay, Bobby, you're doing good today, right?" He says, "Yeah."

Then we have Senator Rouson. Senator Rouson—a man. You are undeniably well spoken. You get the attention of members when you speak even though you take your time while saying it. Perfect because I listen to you, and I'm inspired. When I hear you talk, I'm like, "He's right, man. You know?" You just touch on the things that sometimes you wish you could say, and you say it.

Senator Thompson, I forgot about that bill when I was a driver for LYNX and they would say, "You're the political corrector for ATU 1596 for Central Florida. Go talk to the Senator, and see if she can get a bill for us drivers." It was a relief bill, you know, driving a bus—six hours, five hours, and you need a break. I was there. I went through the same thing. Yes, you did have procedures but she was instrumental in getting us a law that they had to implement—for the whole state by the way—because you have bus drivers, school bus drivers throughout the State of Florida. So, her bill helped a lot of us.

Linda Stewart, we worked together in Central Florida on many occasions, even when she was a county commissioner. You're going to go a long way.

What can I say about my friend, Tom Wright? As a chair several times—a man who wasn't a veteran, but his dedication for veterans is enormous—I mean, folks, that man there—if you are talking about looking out for veterans, we're veterans, the four of us. That man pushes the button. That man, Tom Wright, stands up for every veteran—1.4 million veterans in the State of Florida. There's the man that stands up all the time for veterans, fighting for them. I'm proud to be called his friend because he's really a great guy.

I want to say to my veteran colleagues—Avila, Collins, Danny—I remember when you honored me on the 50th anniversary, Veterans of Vietnam. Oh, man, you guys caught me off guard. My staff knew about it, but I didn't know. I just broke down over here. You guys are the true advocates of veterans—you fight for veterans every day, and I'm proud to call you my friend as well.

I know the FDV—Bob Asztolas, from the FDV up there. "The Hammer," General James Hartsell, is in Washington. The Colonel's up there with him. That organization, folks, does a hell of a lot in the State of Florida. You're talking to a guy that uses the FDV in Lake Nona at the hospital. My case worker, Bob Asztolas, I can call him on a Sunday, and tell him, “Bob, I’ve got a constituent, and her husband is going through a problem. We need to put him in a nursing home. He’s 6’5” over 200 pounds. The wife can’t deal with him.” He makes it happen. I got a call from a friend from another state, about somebody here in Florida. He took care of it for that family.

I want to say to Senator Pizzo, “You’re one of a kind, brother.” There’s no other—you have tenacity and you have that ability. If people stop to listen to you, they realize where you’re coming from, where your heart is. Because you told them about my public service, but you have that ambition to help in different locations, in different areas. You did it during the time we had COVID, we had unemployment, and we had families struggling. When Surfside collapsed, you were there—not to showboat. You wanted to make sure those families were taken care of, the ones who were suffering at that time. You have a big heart, my man, and you have two beautiful sons. They have a great dad to follow. God bless you, man.

Senator Book, I want to thank you personally for when you passed that bill for PTSD for the veterans. That was big. I had tried to do it the session before—it didn’t work out. Senator Book made sure that was passed, and I thank you for it because a lot of military need to know that this is in the books for them.

President Passidomo, I appreciate how you keep this chamber, under your presidency, with dignity, fairness and, above all, kindness. I remember in my freshman year, you were the chair for the Ethics and Elections Committee. So, they said to me, “You know, Vic, if you don’t like a nominee, you can request to ask them questions, and have them call you.” I said, “Okay.” So I said, “Senator, I want this candidate to call me so I can ask some questions.” Well, the candidate wasn’t happy because I asked some questions. They were upset. They said, “You can’t ask me these questions—you have no right.” Then Senator Passidomo said to the person, “He has every right. You’re a nominee. He sits on the committee, and he has a right to ask you questions that pertain to your candidacy. If there’s something you have to answer, the Senator has the right.” She had my back. Senator Passidomo had my back. Senator Passidomo hung up, called me back, and said, “Senator Torres, I apologize.” I said, “No, no, it wasn’t you, Madam Chair—this person just didn’t believe that I had the right to ask any questions.”

I want to thank Secretary Tracy Cantella for all the work that you and your staff do. I’ve always watched how dedicated you all are with the work that you do. All of you, in case you’re not here—make sure that Senator Victor Torres looks behind the scenes because, behind the scenes is not happening here without your input, without your help, and without your expertise. Everything that you do here exemplifies to every Senator here your dedication to a job well done. I thank you for the job you do here—all of you.

Sergeant Kelly, Zane, Dustin, Antonio, Maurice, Morgan, and all the others who are always watching our backs and watching where we go in and out of this building. During Christmas, I had my son come down from New York. My son, grandkids, and I called the Sergeant up. I said, “Sergeant, can I come in here with my grandkids? They came from New York for Christmas. Can I get them to see the chamber and my office?” So, we did a road trip—we came up from Orlando. Everything was shut down, but the Sergeant opened the doors for me and my grandkids. I don’t know if you guys have been here for Christmas, but there’s a huge Christmas tree. So my grandkids went, “Oh, well, look at that.” I said, “Yeah, no gifts under there, don’t worry about that.” He was so cordial. He met my son who is a sergeant at NYPD, New York. He is a veteran. He served in the Air Force and is still in the reserves. The Sergeant went out of his way for my family. We’ve known each other now going on eight years. This man has always shown dignity and respect in the job that he does. You should continue your job as long as God gives you the health for you to do the job. The men and women that work under you exemplify what you are all about. I thank you, Sergeant Kelly, for what you do.

I want to get over here to my staff. Debra Booth is the Chief of Staff in Orlando. She is what we call “the queen of Orange County politics.” She has worked for every elected official from Congress members to mayor to city and county commissioners for more than four decades. That lady right there is a true worker and a true friend. God bless you. Thank you, Debra.

I also have Cecilia Figueroa. She worked for Senator and, now, Congressman Darren Soto. I was fortunate enough to coax her back into the Senate last year. She has been an awesome worker. She has gone beyond the call of duty, and she is a veteran as well, by the way. She served in the Army. Thank you, Cecilia.

I have Julian Cintron. Julian grew up in Puerto Rico, worked with State Representatives Joy Goff-Marcil and Carlos Guillermo Smith before joining my staff last session. He has adapted really well in Appropriations and getting my appropriations money drafted. Julian, thank you for everything you do.

Last but not least, the Chief of Staff—the go-to guy. I don’t know what I would do without him. Sometimes I feel he’s got too much power, man. He is a wealth of knowledge. He is somebody that keeps me in line. He says, “Don’t be rough, Senator, stay straight. You’ve got to do this and you’ve got to work on this.” He has close to 20 years or more in the legislative process, from counties to here in the Legislature. I think he was here when they built the building, too, because he has been around that long. I think he is a tremendous asset, not only to me. He has the ability to communicate with a lot of you and communicate with my family as well. So, he’s a man that you can call on a Saturday or Sunday night and say, “Hey, I got this, or something came in.” Many of you know, sometimes, we have constituents with issues. That is my go-to guy, right there. I love you, Al. Thank you for everything you do. I appreciate your loyalty and your service to us in the community. Thank you, again.

I want to thank my constituents most of all, for the last 12 years in Osceola and Orange Counties. Living in Senate District 25, I am truly grateful for your trust in me, and the opportunity to serve you. I can’t say enough of my heart and my loyalty to you as constituents. When I say my background is my experience, I say that because when I drove the school bus, I saw kids who were suffering, who weren’t dressed properly, who were hungry, and who needed health care. When I drove the city bus, I noticed the elderly and veterans going to their appointments, trying to get a ride on the bus because they didn’t have the money. That’s what I bring to the table. I may not be an expert on your bill, but I try to get the information—because I know the people out there who are going to be affected by it. They come back to me. The Senate passed Senate Bill 102, affordable housing, with lots of fighting. I say, “Never give up.” We want to make sure we get a piece of that pie. I want a piece of that pie for Central Florida. I know all of you want a piece of pie for your constituents—affordable housing. We all know we are in dire need of affordability. Affordability for who? Teachers, firefighters, police, health care workers, and veterans. How many veterans are out there homeless? We have to dedicate ourselves to do this. I am honored to serve the community and the people of Osceola and Orange Counties—the long part of Orange County.

Before I close, there is a speech I would like to give from somebody I admire, John F. Kennedy, on what makes a great leader:

“First, were we truly men of courage—with the courage to stand up to one’s enemies—and the courage to stand up, when necessary, to one’s associates—the courage to resist public pressure, as well as private greed?

Secondly, were we truly men of judgment—with perceptive judgment of the future as well as the past—of our own mistakes as well as the mistakes of others—with enough wisdom to know that we did not know, and enough candor to admit it?

Third—were we truly men of integrity—men who never ran out on either the principles in which they believed or the people who believed in them—men who believed in us—men whom neither financial gain nor political ambition could ever divert from the fulfillment of our sacred trust?

Finally, were we truly men of dedication—with an honor mortgaged to no single individual or group, and compromised by no private obligation or aim, but devoted solely to serving the public good and the national interest.”

These words have guided me over and over again, and if you come to my office, you will see the portrait of JFK. It is in a cloth-type material made decades ago. When I saw it, it was in Representative Batchelor’s office—he had it in a box, and I said, “You want that?” He said, “No, you can take it.” I had it put in a frame.

Now, I want to talk about my family, who is here with me today. Without whom, none of this would be possible. Please join me in welcoming my granddaughter, Rebekah, and my great-grandchild, Jayden—he’s over there by Amy. I have Carin, my granddaughter, her husband, Justin Rae, who is a firefighter in Seminole County, and finished probation. Holding the baby is Mimi—former Representative, Amy Mercado, Orange County Property Appraiser. Then, to my right here, for 34 years, a staunch supporter. You know how you get home, and your wife asks you, “How did it go today?” All I hear is, “Why did you vote on that bill—how come you didn’t say this?” Or, “How did you forget that?” And I say, “Give me a break.” She is 110 percent. She follows what goes on for years—not from last year or two years ago—for years. My wife has been active, she has been watching, and she wanted to make sure the community that we represent knows what we stand for. You can’t ask for a better companion for years, to continue the fight.

Many of my constituents at home asked me, “Hey Senator Torres, or Vic, you’re going to be sitting at home and taking time.” I said, “No. You know that movie that came out with Morgan Freeman, Driving Miss Daisy? Well, I am going to be ‘Driving Miss Carmen.’” Because we do have ladies who are seated here and, they do a bang-up job, too. They are good, and they do what needs to be taken care of.

I thank you, Madam President. I know it was a long day, and I’m sorry I am taking such a long time, but this doesn’t just come every day. We’ve still got a week or two to go. I want to call to everybody here—I care for all of you because I don’t wish you ill will. That’s just not me. I feel that we get along, we have a life to live, and all I can wish you is the best in your future for all of you. We all need to work together. On this video, I have some songs, man. I tell you, I had a whole list of songs I could play, but they told me I had Alabama. I don’t know anyone from Alabama. You know why, because it brought back memories of being in the service, thinking of back home.

Before I forget, Madam President, I have some friends from the House up here. Representatives Susan Valdés, Johanna López, Rita Harris, and newly elected, Tom Keen. Stand up. Anyway, thank you, Madam President, for the opportunity. You are really gracious, and you really have demonstrated to me your personality and your integrity. I thank you, again, for the opportunity.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION

On behalf of the Senate, the President presented Senator Torres with a framed ceremonial copy of SB 858 (2023) Benefits, Training, and Employment for Veterans and their Spouses, ch. 2023-161, Laws of Florida, which was sponsored by Senator Torres and became law during his legislative career. This bill from the 2023 Regular Session expands the purposes of the Florida Department of Veterans’ Affairs and Florida Is For Veterans, Inc., to include veterans’ spouses. The law adds to Florida’s reputation as the most veteran-friendly state in the nation, establishing the Office of Veteran Licensure Services to assist active duty members of the U.S. Armed Forces, the U.S. Reserve Forces, the National Guard, and returning veterans and their spouses in obtaining health care practitioner licenses in Florida.

The President also presented Senator Torres’ wife, Carmen, with a gift on behalf of the Senate.

On motion by Senator Grall—

CS for HB 1377—A bill to be entitled An act relating to public records; amending s. 501.1736, F.S.; providing an exemption from public records requirements for information relating to investigations by the Department of Legal Affairs of certain social media violations; authorizing the department to disclose such information for specified purposes; providing a definition; providing for future legislative review and repeal of the exemption; providing a statement of public necessity; providing a contingent effective date.

—was read the second time by title.

The Committee on Fiscal Policy recommended the following amendment which was moved by Senator Grall and adopted:

Amendment 1 (698496) (with title amendment)—Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Present subsection (9) of section 501.1736, Florida Statutes, as created by HB 1 or similar legislation, 2024 Regular Session, is redesignated as subsection (10), and a new subsection (9) is added to that section, to read:

501.1736 Social media use for minors.—

(9)(a) All information held by the department pursuant to a notification of a violation under this section or an investigation of a violation of this section is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution, until such time as the investigation is completed or ceases to be active. This exemption shall be construed in conformity with s. 119.071(2)(c).

(b) During an active investigation, information made confidential and exempt pursuant to paragraph (a) may be disclosed by the department:

1. In the furtherance of its official duties and responsibilities;

2. For print, publication, or broadcast if the department determines that such release would assist in notifying the public or locating or identifying a person that the department believes to be a victim of an improper use or disposal of customer records, except that information made confidential and exempt by paragraph (c) may not be released pursuant to this subparagraph; or

3. To another governmental entity in the furtherance of its official duties and responsibilities.

(c) Upon completion of an investigation or once an investigation ceases to be active, the following information held by the department shall remain confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution:

1. Information that is otherwise confidential or exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution.

2. Personal identifying information.

3. A computer forensic report.

4. Information that would otherwise reveal weaknesses in the data security of a social media platform.

5. Information that would disclose the proprietary information of a social media platform.

(d) For purposes of this section, the term “proprietary information” means information that:

1. Is owned or controlled by the social media platform.

2. Is intended to be private and is treated by the social media platform as private because disclosure would harm the social media platform or its business operations.

3. Has not been disclosed except as required by law or a private agreement that provides that the information will not be released to the public.

4. Is not publicly available or otherwise readily ascertainable through proper means from another source in the same configuration as received by the department.

5. Reveals competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive advantage of the social media platform that is the subject of the information.

(e) This subsection is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2029, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that all information held by the Department of Legal Affairs pursuant to a notification of a violation of s. 501.1736, Florida Statutes, or an investigation of a violation of that section, be made confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution for the following reasons:

(1) A notification of a violation of s. 501.1736, Florida Statutes, may result in an investigation of such violation. The premature release of such information could frustrate or thwart the investigation and impair the ability of the department to effectively and efficiently administer s. 501.1736, Florida Statutes. In addition, release of such information before completion of an active investigation could jeopardize the ongoing investigation.

(2) Release of information that is otherwise confidential or exempt from public records requirements once an investigation is completed or ceases to be active would undo the specific statutory exemption protecting that information, thus clarifying that any protections currently afforded to such information are not removed.

(3) An investigation of a violation of s. 501.1736, Florida Statutes, is likely to result in the gathering of sensitive personal identifying information, which could include identification numbers, unique identifiers, professional or employment-related information, and personal financial information. Such information could be used for the purpose of identity theft. The release of such information could subject families to possible privacy violations, as it would reveal information of a sensitive personal nature.

(4) Notices received by the department and information generated during an investigation of a violation of s. 501.1736, Florida Statutes, are likely to contain proprietary information. Such information derives independent, economic value, actual or potential, from being generally unknown to, and not readily ascertainable by, other persons who might obtain economic value from its disclosure or use. Allowing public access to proprietary information through a public records request could destroy the value of the proprietary information and cause a financial loss to the social media platform. Release of such information could give business competitors an unfair advantage.

(5) Information held by the department may contain a computer forensic report or information that could reveal weaknesses in the data security of a social media platform. The release of this information could result in the identification of vulnerabilities in the cybersecurity system of the social media platform and be used to harm the social media platform and its clients.

(6) The harm that may result from the release of information held by the department pursuant to a notification or investigation of a violation of s. 501.1736, Florida Statutes, could impair the effective and efficient administration of the investigation and thus outweighs the public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the information.

Section 3. Present subsection (8) of section 501.1737, Florida Statutes, as created by HB 1 or similar legislation, 2024 Regular Session, is redesignated as subsection (9), and a new subsection (8) is added to that section, to read:

501.1737 Age verification for online access to materials harmful to minors.—

(8)(a) All information held by the department pursuant to a notification of a violation under this section or an investigation of a violation of this section is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution, until such time as the investigation is completed or ceases to be active. This exemption shall be construed in conformity with s. 119.071(2)(c).

(b) During an active investigation, information made confidential and exempt pursuant to paragraph (a) may be disclosed by the department:

1. In the furtherance of its official duties and responsibilities;
2. For print, publication, or broadcast if the department determines that such release would assist in notifying the public or locating or identifying a person whom the department believes to be a victim of an improper use or disposal of customer records, except that information

made confidential and exempt by paragraph (c) may not be released pursuant to this subparagraph; or

3. To another governmental entity in the furtherance of its official duties and responsibilities.

(c) Upon completion of an investigation or once an investigation ceases to be active, the following information held by the department shall remain confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution:

1. Information that is otherwise confidential or exempt from s. 119.07(1) or s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution.

2. Personal identifying information.

3. A computer forensic report.

4. Information that would otherwise reveal weaknesses in the data security of the commercial entity.

5. Information that would disclose the proprietary information of the commercial entity.

(d) For purposes of this subsection, the term “proprietary information” means information that:

1. Is owned or controlled by the commercial entity.

2. Is intended to be private and is treated by the commercial entity as private because disclosure would harm the commercial entity or its business operations.

3. Has not been disclosed except as required by law or a private agreement that provides that the information will not be released to the public.

4. Is not publicly available or otherwise readily ascertainable through proper means from another source in the same configuration as received by the department.

5. Reveals competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive advantage of the commercial entity that is the subject of the information.

(e) This subsection is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2029, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

Section 4. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that all information held by the Department of Legal Affairs pursuant to a notification of a violation of s. 501.1737, Florida Statutes, or an investigation of a violation of that section, be made confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution for the following reasons:

(1) A notification of a violation of s. 501.1737, Florida Statutes, may result in an investigation of such violation. The premature release of such information could frustrate or thwart the investigation and impair the ability of the department to effectively and efficiently administer s. 501.1737, Florida Statutes. In addition, release of such information before completion of an active investigation could jeopardize the ongoing investigation.

(2) Release of information that is otherwise confidential or exempt from public records requirements once an investigation is completed or ceases to be active would undo the specific statutory exemption protecting that information, thus clarifying that any protections currently afforded to that information are not removed.

(3) An investigation of a violation of s. 501.1737, Florida Statutes, is likely to result in the gathering of sensitive personal identifying information, which could include identification numbers, unique identifiers, professional or employment-related information, and personal financial information. Such information could be used for the purpose of identity theft. The release of such information could subject individuals to possible privacy violations, as it would reveal information of a sensitive personal nature.

(4) Notices received by the department and information generated during an investigation of a violation of s. 501.1737, Florida Statutes, are likely to contain proprietary information. Such information derives independent, economic value, actual or potential, from being generally unknown to, and not readily ascertainable by, other persons who might obtain economic value from its disclosure or use. Allowing public access to proprietary information through a public records request could destroy the value of the proprietary information and cause a financial loss to the commercial entity. Release of such information could give business competitors an unfair advantage.

(5) Information held by the department may contain a computer forensic report or information that could reveal weaknesses in the data security of the commercial entity. The release of this information could result in the identification of vulnerabilities in the cybersecurity system of the commercial entity and be used to harm the commercial entity and its clients.

(6) The harm that may result from the release of information held by the department pursuant to a notification or investigation by the department of a violation of s. 501.1737, Florida Statutes, could impair the effective and efficient administration of the investigation and thus outweighs the public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the information.

THE PRESIDENT PRESIDING

SB 7030—A bill to be entitled An act relating to a review under the Open Government Sunset Review Act; amending s. 119.071, F.S., which provides public records exemptions for certain personal identifying and location information of specified agency personnel, and the spouses and children thereof; abrogating the scheduled repeal of the exemptions; providing an effective date.

—was read the second time by title.

Senator Avila moved the following amendment which was adopted:

Amendment 1 (814038) (with title amendment)—Delete lines 298-381 and insert:

w. The home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of current or former personnel of the Agency for Health Care Administration whose duties include the investigation of complaints filed against health care facilities or the inspection of health care facilities licensed or certified by the agency; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such personnel; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such personnel are exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. This sub-subparagraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2029, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

3. An agency that is the custodian of the information specified in subparagraph 2. and that is not the employer of the officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in subparagraph 2. must maintain the exempt status of that information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a written and notarized request for maintenance of the exemption to the custodial agency. The request must state under oath the statutory basis for the individual’s exemption request and confirm the individual’s status as a party eligible for exempt status.

4.a. A county property appraiser, as defined in s. 192.001(3), or a county tax collector, as defined in s. 192.001(4), who receives a written and notarized request for maintenance of the exemption pursuant to subparagraph 3. must comply by removing the name of the individual with exempt status and the instrument number or Official Records book and page number identifying the property with the exempt status from all publicly available records maintained by the property appraiser or tax collector. For written requests received on or before July 1, 2021, a county property appraiser or county tax collector must comply with this sub-subparagraph by October 1, 2021. A county property appraiser or county tax collector may not remove the street address, legal description, or other information identifying real property within the agency's records so long as a name or personal information otherwise exempt from inspection and copying pursuant to this section is not associated with the property or otherwise displayed in the public records of the agency.

b. Any information restricted from public display, inspection, or copying under sub-subparagraph a. must be provided to the individual whose information was removed.

5. An officer, an employee, a justice, a judge, or other person specified in subparagraph 2. may submit a written request for the release of his or her exempt information to the custodial agency. The written request must be notarized and must specify the information to be released and the party authorized to receive the information. Upon receipt of the written request, the custodial agency must release the specified information to the party authorized to receive such information.

6. The exemptions in this paragraph apply to information held by an agency before, on, or after the effective date of the exemption.

7. Information made exempt under this paragraph may be disclosed pursuant to s. 28.2221 to a title insurer authorized pursuant to s. 624.401 and its affiliates as defined in s. 624.10; a title insurance agent or title insurance agency as defined in s. 626.841(1) or (2), respectively; or an attorney duly admitted to practice law in this state and in good standing with The Florida Bar.

8. The exempt status of a home address contained in the Official Records is maintained only during the period when a protected party resides at the dwelling location. Upon conveyance of real property after October 1, 2021, and when such real property no longer constitutes a protected party's home address as defined in sub-subparagraph 1.a., the protected party must submit a written request to release the removed information to the county recorder. The written request to release the removed information must be notarized, must confirm that a protected party's request for release is pursuant to a conveyance of his or her dwelling location, and must specify the Official Records book and page, instrument number, or clerk's file number for each document containing the information to be released.

9. Upon the death of a protected party as verified by a certified copy of a death certificate or court order, any party can request the county recorder to release a protected decedent's removed information unless there is a related request on file with the county recorder for continued removal of the decedent's information or unless such removal is otherwise prohibited by statute or by court order. The written request to release the removed information upon the death of a protected party must attach the certified copy of a death certificate or court order and must be notarized, must confirm the request for release is due to the death of a protected party, and must specify the Official Records book and page number, instrument number, or clerk's file number for each document containing the information to be released. A fee may not be charged for the release of any document pursuant to such request.

~~10. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this paragraph, this paragraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2024, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.~~

Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of current or former personnel of the Agency for Health Care Administration whose duties include the investigation of complaints filed against health care facilities or the inspection of health care facilities licensed or certified by the Agency for Health Care Administration; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such personnel; and the names and lo- cations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such personnel be made exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution. The Legislature finds that the release of such personal identifying and location information might place the agency's current or former personnel and their family members in danger of physical and emotional harm from disgruntled individuals who have contentious reactions to actions carried out by such personnel or whose business or professional practices have come under scrutiny as a result of such investigations and agency actions. The Legislature further finds that the harm that may result from the release of such personal identifying and location information outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the information.

And the title is amended as follows:

Delete lines 2-8 and insert: An act relating to public records; amending s. 119.071, F.S.; providing an exemption from public records requirements for the personal identifying and location information of certain current or former personnel of the Agency for Health Care Administration and their spouses and children; providing for future legislative review and repeal of the exemption; providing for retroactive application; abrogating the scheduled repeal of exemptions for certain personal identifying and location information of specified agency personnel, and the spouses and children thereof; providing a statement of public necessity; providing an effective date.

On motion by Senator Avila, by two-thirds vote, SB 7030, as amended, was read the third time by title, passed by the required constitutional two-thirds vote of the members present and voting, ordered engrossed, and then certified to the House. The vote on passage was:
