SB 1474—A bill to be entitled An act relating to private provider building inspection services; amending s. 468.605, F.S.; requiring that the Florida Building Code Administrators and Inspectors Board include a specified number of members who are private providers or who are employed by private provider firms; making technical changes; amending s. 553.74, F.S.; requiring that the Florida Building Commission include a specified number of members who are private providers or who are employed by private provider firms; requiring that the commission include a specified number of members who are licensed contractors that use private providers or private provider firms; encouraging the Private Provider Association of Florida to recommend a list of candidates for consideration; amending s. 553.791, F.S.; revising and defining terms; requiring that building code inspection services provided by a private provider be the subject of an agreement, rather than a written contract, between the provider or provider’s firm and the fee owner or fee owner’s contractor; requiring that the reduced permit fee not exceed the cost incurred by the local jurisdiction, including labor and personnel costs; prohibiting a local jurisdiction from charging additional fees for building inspections if the fee owner or contractor hires a private provider to perform such services; deleting a provision authorizing a local jurisdiction to charge specified administrative fees; requiring a local jurisdiction to immediately provide a private provider, owner, and contractor equal access to all permitting and inspection documents and reports if such access is provided by software that protects exempt records from disclosure; revising the information a fee owner or a fee owner’s contractor must provide to a local building official; revising conditions under which a fee owner or fee owner’s contractor is authorized to use a private provider to provide inspection services; revising the timeframe within which a fee owner or a fee owner’s contractor must notify the local building official of the owner’s or contractor’s intention to use a private provider; prohibiting a local building official from performing specified reviews of plans, drawings, or other related documents determined by a private provider to be in compliance with applicable codes; deleting a provision requiring a local building official to issue a requested permit or provide a specified notice within a certain timeframe; authorizing a local building official to review certain forms and documents only for completeness; requiring a local building official to send written notice of incomplete forms or documents within a specified timeframe; providing that a permit is deemed approved as a matter of law, and requiring the local building official to issue the permit by the next business day, if the local building official fails to provide a specified notice within a specified timeframe; requiring that a duly authorized representative be managed, rather than employed, by a private provider to receive specified benefits; deleting a requirement that a private provider performing required inspections provide notice to the local building official of the approximate date and time of specified inspections; deleting a provision prohibiting a local building official from preventing a private provider from performing any inspection outside a certain timeframe; deleting a provision authorizing a local building official to visit a building site as often as necessary to verify that a private provider is performing required inspections; deleting a provision authorizing a building department to satisfy a requirement that a certain deficiency notice be posted; revising the reinspection fees that a local jurisdiction is prohibited from charging; prohibiting a local building official from visiting a job site without written approval from the private provider doing the work on the site; providing that a local building official is not responsible for the regulatory administration or supervision of building code inspection services performed by a private provider; requiring that a private provider who is, or private provider firm that employs a person licensed as, a licensed building code administrator serve as the local building official for such building code inspection services; providing that such private providers or private provider firms are vested with the authority of the local building official with respect to certain inspection services; prohibiting a local building official from interfering with the actions or activities of such private providers or private provider firms; providing that verification of certain licensure and insurance requirements for a private provider firm's duly authorized representative is the responsibility of the private provider firm's management; providing that a local building official is not required to verify compliance or store information of such verification; deleting a requirement that the local building official, under certain circumstances, issue a permit within a specified timeframe; revising a provision authorizing a private provider to perform emergency inspection services; requiring a private provider to record specified inspections on forms provided by the Florida Building Commission, rather than on forms acceptable to the local building official; revising the timeframe within which a private provider must provide an inspection record to the local building official; providing that a private provider is not required to upload notices or inspection results to a website or portal; revising the timeframe within which a local building official may waive the requirement to provide a record of each inspection record; requiring a private provider to prepare a certificate of compliance on a form provided by the commission, rather than on a form acceptable to the local building official; prohibiting a local building official from performing building inspections of construction that a private provider has determined to be compliant with applicable codes; authorizing a local building official to review specified forms and documents only for completeness; revising the timeframe within which a local building official must provide an applicant with a written certificate of occupancy or certificate of completion; authorizing a local building official to deny a permit or a request for a certificate of occupancy or a certificate of completion if required forms or documents are incomplete; deleting a provision authorizing a local enforcement agency, a local building official, or a local government to establish a system of registration to verify compliance with specified licensure and insurance requirements for duly authorized representatives; revising the authority of a local building official to issue a stop-work order for a building project or any portion thereof; revising a prohibition against the auditing by a local building code enforcement agency of the performance of building code inspection services by certain private providers; deleting an exception to the limit on the number of times in a year that a private provider or private provider firm may be audited; requiring that a private provider or private provider firm be given notice within a specified timeframe before being audited; prohibiting local governments, officials, and personnel from prohibiting or discouraging the use of a private provider or a private provider firm; providing that local governments, officials, and personnel are not immune from liability for such prohibition or discouragement or for violations of law or applicable codes; providing that a person or a party may bring an action for damages, declaratory and injunctive relief, and the issuance of extraordinary writs remedies for such violations; authorizing a private provider licensed as a building code administrator to serve as the local building official; authorizing such private providers to issue building permits; requiring that all information from a private provider be provided to the property appraiser for the county or the jurisdiction; requiring that drawings be delivered in their original electronic format; requiring that permits be publicly available and that their status be available on the Private Provider Association of Florida website for specified purposes; authorizing the Private Provider Association of Florida, or a similar nonprofit association, to require a fee or subscription to upload such information to its website or to use an applications programming interface; requiring a private provider to update such information within a specified timeframe under certain circumstances; requiring that the format of private provider permits meet a specified standard and include specified information; providing legislative intent; requiring that the permitting process be universally adopted as a standard for this state; prohibiting local building officials and governments from adopting, creating, or using certain forms; prohibiting the use of custom procedures or standards; authorizing the commission to implement such permitting processes and review them for consistency and relevance within a specified timeframe; making a technical change; reenacting s. 633.216(6), F.S., relating to inspection of buildings and equipment, orders, firesafety inspection training requirements, certification, and disciplinary action, to incorporate the amendment made to s. 468.605, F.S., in a reference thereto; reenacting ss. 177.073(1)(c), 468.603(9), 468.621(1)(i) and (j), 471.033(1)(l), 481.225(1)(l), 553.79(11), and 553.80(7)(a), F.S., relating to expedited approval of residential building permits before a final plat is recorded; definitions; disciplinary proceedings against building code administrators and inspectors; disciplinary proceedings against licensed engineers; disciplinary proceedings against registered architects; permits, applications, issuance, and inspections; and enforcement, respectively, to incorporate the amendment made to s. 553.791, F.S., in references thereto; providing an effective date.

SB 1492—A bill to be entitled An act relating to mental health and substance abuse; amending s. 27.51, F.S.; providing exceptions to a provision prohibiting the court from appointing the public defender to represent certain persons who are not indigent; amending s. 27.511, F.S.; revising a cross-reference; amending s. 394.455, F.S.; providing and revising definitions; amending s. 394.4598, F.S.; providing that the opinion of a qualified professional, rather than that of a psychiatrist or psychiatric nurse practicing within the framework of an established protocol with a psychiatrist, may be the basis for the court to grant a petition for the appointment of a guardian advocate; deleting a requirement that the court appoint the office of the public defender to represent an indigent person for a hearing on such petition; revising a cross-reference; requiring a guardian advocate to meet and talk with the patient and the patient's qualified professional, rather than the patient's physician or psychiatric nurse practicing within the framework or an established protocol with a psychiatrist, in person, if at all possible, and by telephone, if not possible, before giving consent to treatment; authorizing an administrative law judge, rather than requiring a hearing officer, to consider an involuntarily placed respondent's competence to consent to treatment at any hearing; authorizing an administrative law judge, rather than requiring a hearing officer, to recommend restoring a respondent's competence upon sufficient evidence; conforming a provision to changes made by the act; making technical changes; amending s. 394.4599, F.S.; providing that notice for matters involving involuntary admissions may be sent by e-mail instead of regular mail if the recipient's e-mail address is known; making technical changes; amending s. 394.4615, F.S.; authorizing a qualified professional, rather than a physician or the patient's psychiatric nurse, to restrict a patient's access to his or her clinical records if the qualified professional believes such access to the records is harmful to the patient; revising the timeframe in which the restriction of a patient's access to his or her clinical records expires; revising the timeframe for which the restriction of a patient's access to clinical records may be renewed; amending s. 394.4625, F.S.; requiring the qualified professional who assessed the patient, rather than the treating physician or psychiatric nurse practicing within the framework of an established protocol with a psychiatrist, to document in the patient's clinical record that the patient is able to give express and informed consent for admission; requiring that when a voluntary patient, or an authorized person on the patient's behalf, makes a request for discharge, the request be communicated as quickly as possible to a qualified professional, rather than a physician, a clinical psychologist with at least 3 years of postdoctoral experience in the practice of clinical psychology, or a psychiatrist; revising who may order a patient held and emergency treatment rendered in the least restrictive manner pending the filing of a petition for involuntary placement; amending s. 394.463, F.S.; revising the criteria by which a person may be taken to a receiving facility for an involuntary examination; revising the means by which an involuntary examination may be initiated; requiring a facility admitting certain persons for involuntary examination to notify the Agency for Health Care Administration of such admission; deleting a requirement that certain reports be provided to the department and the Legislature; revising the evidence by which certain criteria are met; revising who may order emergency treatment under specified circumstances; revising the actions a hospital must complete within a specified timeframe after the attending physician documents that a patient's condition has been stabilized or that an emergency medical condition does not exist; providing the timeframe in which the 72-hour examination period ceases or is extended; providing that the treating facility is responsible for transporting a patient back to the receiving facility upon discharge from the hospital; making technical changes; conforming provisions to changes made by the act; amending s. 394.4655, F.S.; authorizing the court to order a respondent to receive involuntary outpatient services for a specified period of time if certain criteria are met; authorizing the court to order a respondent in a receiving or treatment facility to receive outpatient services upon the facility administrator's petition, provided the court and parties receive certain notice of such petition and certain conditions are met; providing requirements for a service provider's petition to be heard for involuntary services for a respondent not in a receiving or treatment facility; providing exceptions; requiring that a services plan be entered into a respondent's clinical and court files and be considered part of the court order; defining the term "services plan"; requiring that a services plan identify the service provider that has agreed to provide court-ordered outpatient services under certain circumstances; requiring the service provider to develop the services plan in consultation with the respondent and certain other individuals; requiring certain criteria to be included in the services plan; requiring that a social worker, case manager, or other specified individual support a respondent during his or her treatment and inform the court, state attorney, and respondent's counsel of any failure by the respondent to comply with the treatment program; requiring the court to retain jurisdiction over the case and its parties for further orders as the circumstances may require; specifying the jurisdiction the court possesses during the pendency of the case; specifying the procedures by which the court may extend, modify, or end outpatient services; specifying that existing involuntary services orders must remain in effect until a motion for continued treatment is adjudicated; requiring that any extension or modification for services be supported by an explanation from the service provider and an individualized continued services plan that must be developed in consultation with the respondent and his or her attorney, guardian, guardian advocate, or legal custodian, as deemed applicable and appropriate; requiring the court to evaluate the respondent's need for a guardian advocate; authorizing the respondent to agree to additional outpatient services without a court hearing if a certain condition is met; requiring the service provider to inform the court and parties of any such agreement; requiring the clerk of the court to provide copies of any petition, motion, and services plan to specified parties; specifying requirements for the service provider to discharge a respondent who has not been transferred to voluntary status and no longer meets the criteria for involuntary services and to send certain documentation to specified parties upon discharge; authorizing a criminal county court to order a respondent into involuntary outpatient services under certain circumstances; prohibiting the court from using incarceration as a sanction for a respondent's noncompliance with the services plan; authorizing the court to order that a respondent be evaluated for inpatient placement if certain conditions are met; specifying requirements for a treatment facility administrator to petition to have a respondent placed in involuntary outpatient services as part of a discharge plan; requiring that such petition be filed with the clerk of the court for the county in which the respondent will reside, with notice provided to specified parties; prohibiting a fee for filing such petition; requiring the department to adopt specified rules; deleting a definition; amending s. 394.467, F.S.; providing the criteria by which a court may order a person into involuntary inpatient placement for treatment; authorizing a person to be recommended for involuntary inpatient placement, involuntary outpatient services, or a combination of both, provided such recommendation is supported by the opinion of a psychiatrist and seconded by a qualified professional, both of whom have examined the person being recommended within specified timeframes; providing that a second recommendation may be made by a physician with specified postgraduate training and experience, a clinical social worker, or a mental health counselor if a psychiatrist or a qualified professional is not available; providing that such examinations may be completed by in-person or electronic means if done in a face-to-face manner; requiring that such recommendations be included in a petition for involuntary outpatient services and entered into the person's clinical record; authorizing the examining facility to hold the person until the court's final order; requiring a facility administrator or service provider to file a petition for involuntary services in the county in which the respondent is located; requiring the court to accept petitions and related documentation with electronic signatures; providing criteria for such petitions; requiring the clerk of the court to provide copies of the petition and recommended services plan, if applicable, to specified parties; prohibiting a fee for filing such petition; providing that a respondent has a right to counsel at every stage of a judicial proceeding relating to involuntary treatment; requiring the court to appoint the public defender to represent the respondent within a specified timeframe after the filing of such petition if the respondent is not already represented by counsel; requiring the clerk of the court to immediately notify the public defender of such appointment; providing the length of such appointment; requiring that counsel for the respondent be provided access to the respondent, witnesses, and records relevant to the proceeding; requiring the attorney to represent the interests of the respondent, regardless of the source of payment to the attorney; authorizing the respondent to waive his or her right to counsel if certain criteria are met; providing that the respondent and the state are each entitled to at least one continuance if certain criteria are met; providing timeframes for such continuance; providing that the state's failure to timely review readily available documents or attempt to contact known witnesses does not warrant a continuance; requiring that a hearing for a petition for involuntary services be held within a specified timeframe; requiring that the hearing be held in the county or the facility where the respondent is located, as deemed appropriate by the court; requiring that the hearing be as convenient to the respondent as is consistent with orderly procedure; requiring that the hearing be conducted in a physical setting not likely to be injurious to the respondent's condition; authorizing the court to waive the respondent's attendance from all or any portion of the hearing if certain conditions are met; requiring all testimony be given under oath; requiring that the proceedings be recorded; authorizing the respondent to refuse to testify at the hearing; requiring that the hearing be held in person unless all parties agree otherwise; authorizing the court to permit witnesses to testify under oath remotely; requiring a witness testifying remotely to provide the parties with all relevant documents on which he or she is relying for such testimony within a specified timeframe; requiring the court to inform the respondent and the respondent's guardian or representative of the right to an independent expert examination by their own qualified expert; requiring the court to ensure that such an independent expert is provided to a respondent who cannot afford one; requiring that the independent expert's report is confidential and not discoverable for the hearing, unless the expert is called as a witness for the respondent; requiring the state attorney to represent the state, rather than the petitioning facility administrator or service provider, as the real party in interest in the proceeding; requiring the facility or service provider to make the respondent's clinical records available to the state attorney before the hearing; prohibiting the state attorney from using such records for matters outside the scope of the petition and hearing; authorizing the court to appoint a magistrate to preside at the hearing on the petition and any ancillary proceedings; requiring that at least one of the professionals who executed the petition for involuntary services testify at the hearing; requiring the court to consider testimony and evidence from specified individuals regarding the respondent's competence to consent to treatment; requiring the court to appoint a guardian advocate if it finds the respondent is incompetent to consent to treatment; requiring the court to make written findings to support such appointment; requiring the court, upon a finding that the respondent meets the criteria for involuntary services, to order in writing that the respondent receive involuntary inpatient placement or outpatient services or some combination of both for up to a specified timeframe; requiring the court to make certain findings in its written order; authorizing the court to order that the respondent be retained at a receiving facility while awaiting transfer to a treatment facility, or, if the respondent is at a treatment facility, that the respondent be retained there or be treated at another appropriate facility involuntarily for a specified timeframe; prohibiting the court from ordering that respondents who suffer from certain developmental disabilities, traumatic brain injuries, or dementia be involuntarily placed in a state treatment facility; authorizing the court to order involuntary assessments if the respondent meets the criteria for substance abuse services; authorizing the court to have the respondent evaluated by the Agency for Persons with Disabilities if the respondent has an intellectual disability or autism and reasonably appears to meet commitment criteria for developmental disabilities; providing that any specified prior suspensions have no effect for any recall; revising the requirement that a recall agreement in writing or by written ballot or a copy thereof be served on an association by registered mail, rather than by certified mail or by personal service; providing that no other method of service is proper and that any method of service not in compliance is void; requiring that such member or members be recalled effective immediately upon the conclusion of the properly noticed and facially valid board meeting; requiring a recalled member to turn over to the board all records and property of the association in his or her possession within a specified timeframe; deleting the requirement that a board perform certain actions to either certify or not certify the written ballots or written agreements to recall a director of a board; requiring a board to duly notice and hold a meeting of the board within a specified timeframe after receipt of an agreement in writing or by written ballot; providing that board members are recalled effective immediately upon the conclusion of a board meeting, provided the recall is facially valid; revising the timeframe in which a recalled board member must return to the board specified property belonging to the association; deleting the provision that board members may be recalled and removed by a vote taken at a meeting, if permissible under the declarations, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws of the association; deleting the provision that a special meeting may be convened to recall a director or directors of the board if called by a specified percentage of the voting interests; deleting the prohibition against electronic transmission being used as a method of giving notice of such a meeting; providing the grounds on which a unit owner's recall agreement may be rejected; providing a rebuttable presumption that a unit owner executing the recall agreement is the designated voter for the unit; prohibiting an association from enforcing a voting certificate requirement under certain circumstances; requiring that a rescission or revocation of a unit owner's recall agreement be in writing and delivered to an association before it is served with a written recall agreement; providing construction; deleting the requirement that a board file an action with a court or file with the Department of Business and Professional Regulation a petition for binding arbitration within a specified timeframe if the board does not certify the written agreement or written ballots to recall a director; deleting the provision that board members who voted at a meeting or who executed an agreement in writing constitute one party under the petition for arbitration or court action; deleting the provision that a recall is effective upon the final order of the court or the mailing of the final order of arbitration to the association; requiring that recalled board members turn over specified property of the association to the board within a specified timeframe; providing that if, at the conclusion of a meeting, a board determines that a recall is facially invalid, then the unit owner representative, rather than the parcel owner representative, may file a petition or a court action challenging the board's failure to act; revising the timeframe in which such petition or action must be filed; requiring that the association be named as the respondent in such petition or action; revising the requirement that a separate vote take place for each board director sought to be recalled; providing that a petition or action filed by a board member who has been recalled may challenge the facial validity of the written agreement, the ballots filed, or the substantial compliance with the procedural requirements for a recall; requiring that a board member be reinstated and a recall be deemed null and void if an arbitrator or a court determines that a recall was invalid; providing that a prevailing party is entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees and costs if certain findings are made; revising the timeframe in which the division or a court may not accept for filing a recall petition or action; reenacting and amending s. 720.306, F.S.; deleting the requirement that secret ballots cast by members who are not in attendance at a meeting be mailed or delivered to the association in a specified manner; deleting the requirement that a valid ballot be cast once confirmed valid; deleting the requirement that a ballot for a lot that has more than one ballot submitted be disqualified; deleting the provision that any ballot received after the closing of the balloting may not be considered; deleting the provision that a member may nominate himself or herself as a candidate for the board at a meeting where the election is held, provided certain conditions are met; deleting the prohibition against write-in nominations being permitted under certain circumstances; deleting the provision that qualified candidates seeking nomination must commence their service on the board of directors, regardless of whether a quorum is attained at the annual meeting; deleting the requirement that boards of directors be elected by a plurality of votes unless otherwise provided by the governing documents; deleting the provision that any challenge to the election process be commenced within a specified timeframe after the election results are announced; requiring that board members be elected by written ballot or voting machine; prohibiting the use of proxies in electing the board in general elections or in elections to fill vacancies; requiring the association to mail, deliver, or electronically transmit, by separate association mailing or included in another association mailing, delivery, or electronic transmission, to each member entitled to vote a first notice of the date of the election a specified timeframe before the election; requiring a member intending to be a candidate for the board to give written notice of his or her intent a specified timeframe before the election; requiring the association to send a second notice of the election, with the written notice of the annual meeting and agenda, to all members entitled to vote, together with a ballot that lists all candidates; requiring that an information sheet be sent in the second notice at the request of a candidate; providing requirements for such information sheet; requiring that the candidate furnish the information sheet to the association within a specified timeframe; requiring the association to bear the costs of mailing, delivering, or electronically transmitting the information sheet; providing that the association is not liable for the content of the information sheet; authorizing the association to print the information sheet on both sides of the paper; requiring that elections be decided by a plurality of ballots cast; providing that there are no quorum requirements; providing an exception; prohibiting a member from authorizing any other person to cast his or her ballot; providing that any improperly cast ballots are invalid; providing penalties; authorizing a member who requires assistance to cast a ballot to seek such assistance; requiring the election to occur on the date of the annual meeting; providing that an election is not required unless more candidates file notices of intent to run or are nominated than there are vacancies on the board; providing that such candidates become board members upon the adjournment of the annual meeting under certain circumstances; prohibiting a developer from opting out of the statutory election process; authorizing the association to opt out of the statutory election process if a specified percentage of voting interests after turnover approve, in which case the bylaws of the association shall control; providing applicability; requiring the division to adopt rules; providing applicability; requiring that a candidate for board membership be eligible at the time of the mailing, delivery, or electronic transmission of the candidate's notice of intent to be a candidate; prohibiting co-owners of a parcel from serving together; providing exceptions; revising the requirement that a person who is delinquent on a certain payment due the association is not eligible to be a candidate; revising the requirement that a person serving as a board member who becomes more than 90 days delinquent on a certain payment due the association is deemed to have abandoned his or her seat on the board; providing construction; deleting the definition of the term "any fee, fine, or other monetary obligation"; requiring that the terms of all board members expire at the annual meeting, and that such board members may stand reelection unless prohibited by the association's bylaws, if certain conditions are met; reenacting and amending s. 720.311, F.S.; deleting a requirement that the Department of Business and Professional Regulation adopt rules; providing construction; requiring the department to conduct binding arbitration of election disputes between members and an association as provided in the act; prohibiting such disputes from being eligible for presuit mediation; requiring such disputes be arbitrated by the department or filed in court; requiring such arbitration petitions be handled on an expedited basis by the division; requiring that any challenge to an election or a recall filed in circuit court be brought as a summary proceeding; providing that the prevailing party is entitled to reasonable attorney fees and costs; requiring that any such proceeding be tried without a jury; providing that the parties are entitled to an immediate hearing; authorizing the court to limit the time in which to take testimony; authorizing the challenging party to request the issuance of a temporary injunction for a specified purpose while the challenge is pending; reenacting ss. 194.011(3)(e) and 194.181(2)(c), F.S., relating to objections to assessment notices and parties to a tax suit, respectively, to incorporate the amendments made to ss. 718.112 and 719.106, F.S., in references thereto; reenacting ss. 718.117(8)(b) and (16) and 718.501(1)(a) and (m), F.S., relating to termination of condominium and authority, responsibility, and duties of the Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes, respectively, to incorporate the amendments made to ss. 718.112 and 718.1255, F.S., in references thereto; reenacting s. 719.1255, F.S., relating to alternative dispute resolution, to incorporate the amendment made to s. 718.1255, F.S., in a reference thereto; reenacting ss. 720.3033(4)(b) and 720.405(6), F.S., relating to officers and directors and organizing committee and parcel owner approval, respectively, to incorporate the amendment made to s. 720.306, F.S., in references thereto; providing an effective date.
