I. Summary:

SB 2-B apportions Florida into congressional districts as required by state and federal law.

As originally filed, this bill contains Redistricting Plan H000C9065, a remedial base map of Florida's congressional districts, which was the basis for a workshop by the Reapportionment Committee.

II. Present Situation:

The United States Constitution requires that representation in Congress be periodically reapportioned among the states.[1,2] As a result of the 2010 Census, the Legislature is responsible for apportioning the state into 27 single-member congressional districts.[3] These districts must conform to the requirements of the United States Constitution, federal law, and the Florida Constitution, including the tier one and tier two requirements of Article III, § 20.

In 2012 the Legislature adopted a congressional apportionment plan, H000C9047, which was challenged in Romo v. Detzner, consolidated case nos. 2012-CA-412 and 2012-CA-490 in the Circuit Court of the Second Judicial Circuit in and for Leon County, Florida.

In the circuit court's Final Judgment issued July 10, 2014, Judge Terry Lewis found Congressional Districts (CD) 5 and 10 to be unconstitutional and rejected the Plaintiffs' challenges to CD 13, 14, 15, 21, 22, 25, 26, and 27.

In a subsequent ruling issued August 1, 2014, the judge ordered the Legislature to present a remedial plan to the court no later than August 15, 2014. As a result, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives convened the Legislature in a Special Session for the sole and exclusive purpose of considering revisions to Congressional Districts 5 and 10 and to make conforming changes to other districts as a result of the changes to Congressional Districts 5 and 10. Those changes were made in a remedial congressional redistricting plan, H000C9057, adopted in SB 2-A, ch. 2014-255, L.O.F.

On July 9, 2015, the Florida Supreme Court affirmed the circuit court's factual findings that the redistricting process leading to the 2012 map was unconstitutional, but reversed the circuit court's order approving the Legislature's 2014 remedial plan.[4] The Court also held, that once broader unconstitutional intent is found by a court, any remedial maps will be granted no presumption of validity.[5] Such a finding essentially inverts the standard of review and "shift[s] the burden to the Legislature to justify its decisions in drawing the congressional district lines."[6]

In its opinion, the Florida Supreme Court also provided guidance on how certain districts must be redrawn, ordering the Legislature to redraw Congressional Districts 5, 13, 14, 21, 22, 25, 26, and 27 in the following ways:

- District 5 must be redrawn in an east-west manner;[7]
- Districts 13 and 14 must be redrawn to avoid crossing Tampa Bay;[8]
- District 21 and 22 must be redrawn to improve tier-two compliance;[9]
- District 25 must be redrawn to avoid splitting Hendry County;[10] and
- Districts 26 and 27 must be redrawn to avoid splitting Homestead.[11]

The Court then relinquished the case back to the circuit court until October 17, 2015.[12] Following the Court's order, the circuit court ordered a new map be enacted by August 25, 2015.

In response to the Supreme Court's opinion of July 9, 2015, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives convened the Legislature in a Special Session for the sole and exclusive purpose of redrawing Congressional Districts 5, 13, 14, 21, 22, 25, 26, 27, and any other affected districts.

The United States Constitution

The United States Supreme Court has interpreted Article I, Section 2 of the United States Constitution to require that congressional districts be as nearly equal in population as practicable.[13] In the creation of congressional districts, the so-called "one person, one vote" requirement mandates the Legislature to make a good-faith effort to achieve precise mathematical equality.[14] The constitution permits population variances only that are either (1) unavoidable despite a good-faith effort to achieve absolute equality; or (2) necessary to achieve a legitimate goal.[15] In the case of congressional districts, however, the Court has allowed no de minimis population variances.[16]

The Equal Protection Clause limits the influence of race in redistricting. If race is the predominant factor in redistricting—such that traditional, race-neutral redistricting principles are subordinated to considerations of race—the redistricting plan is subject to strict scrutiny.[17] To satisfy strict scrutiny, the use of race as a predominant factor must be narrowly tailored to achieve a compelling interest.[18] The United States Supreme Court has held that the interest of the state in remedying the effects of identified racial discrimination may be compelling,[19] and it has assumed, but not decided, that compliance with the requirements of the federal Voting Rights Act likewise justifies the use of race as a predominant factor in redistricting.[20]

The United States Supreme Court has construed the Equal Protection Clause to prohibit political gerrymanders,[21] but it has not identified judicially discernible and manageable standards by which such claims are to be resolved.[22] Political gerrymandering cases, therefore, remain sparse.

The Federal Voting Rights Act

In some circumstances, Section 2 of the federal Voting Rights Act (VRA) requires the creation of a district that performs for minority voters. Section 2 requires, as necessary preconditions, that (1) the minority group be sufficiently large and geographically compact to constitute a numerical majority in a single-member district; (2) the minority group be politically cohesive; and (3) the majority vote sufficiently as a bloc to enable it usually to defeat the candidate preferred by the minority group.[23] If each of these preconditions is established, Section 2 requires the creation of a performing minority district if, based on the totality of the circumstances, it is demonstrated that members of the minority group have less opportunity than other members of the electorate to participate in the political process and to elect representatives of their choice.[24]

Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act protects the electoral opportunities of minority voters in covered jurisdictions from retrogression, or backsliding.[25] In Florida, Section 5 covered five counties: Collier, Hardee, Hendry, Hillsborough, and Monroe.[26] Section 5 requires that, before its implementation in a covered jurisdiction, any change in electoral practices (including the enactment of a new redistricting plan) be submitted to the United States Department of Justice or to the federal District Court for the District of Columbia for review and preclearance.[27] A change in electoral practices is entitled to preclearance if, with respect to minority voters in the covered jurisdictions, the change does not have a discriminatory purpose or diminish the ability of any citizens on account of race or color to elect their preferred candidates.[28] In Shelby County v. Holder, which was decided after the redistricting process concluded, the United States Supreme Court declared that the "coverage formula" in Section 4 of the VRA—the formula by which Congress selected the jurisdictions that Section 5 covered—exceeded Congress's enforcement authority under the Fifteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.[29] The preclearance process established by Section 5 of the VRA is thus no longer in effect. But Shelby County does not affect the validity of the statewide diminishment standard embodied in Article III, section 20, of the Florida Constitution.

The Florida Constitution

In 2010, voters amended the Florida Constitution to create standards for establishing congressional district boundaries.[30] The new standards are set forth in two tiers. To the extent that compliance with second-tier standards conflicts with compliance with first-tier standards, the second-tier standards do not apply.[31] The order in which the standards are set forth within either tier does not establish any priority of one standard over another within the same tier.[32]

The first tier provides that no apportionment plan or district shall be drawn with the intent to favor or disfavor a political party or an incumbent.[33] Redistricting decisions unconnected with an intent to favor or disfavor a political party or incumbent do not violate this provision of the Florida Constitution, even if their effect is to favor or disfavor a political party or incumbent.[34]

[28] 42 U.S.C. § 1973c(b), (c). Apart from the Voting Rights Act, federal law directs that congressional districts be single-member districts. 2 U.S.C. § 2c. Congress enacted this requirement pursuant to its authority to regulate the times, places, and manner of holding congressional elections. See U.S. Const. Art. I, § 4, cl. 1.

[29] See Shelby County v. Holder, 133 S. Ct. 2612 (2013).

[30] Art. III, § 20, Fla. Const. Before the adoption of the amendment, the Florida Constitution did not regulate congressional redistricting. Two members of Congress challenged unsuccessfully the constitutionality of the new standards in federal court. They alleged that, because the new standards purported to regulate congressional elections, its method of enactment violated Article I, Section 4 of the United States Constitution. Brown v. Secretary of State, 668 F.3d 1271 (11th Cir. 2012).

[31] Art. III, § 20(c), Fla. Const.

[32] Id.

[33] Art. III, § 20(a), Fla. Const. The statutes and constitutions of several states contain similar prohibitions. See, e.g., Cal. Const. Art. XXI, § 2(e); Del. Const. Art. II, § 2A; Haw. Const. Art. IV, § 6; Wash. Const. Art. II, § 43(5); Iowa Code § 42.4(5); Mont. Code Ann. § 5-1-115(3); Or. Rev. Stat. § 188.010(2); Wash. Rev. Code § 44-05-090(5). These standards have been the subject of little litigation. In Hartung v. Bradbury, 33 P.3d 972, 987 (Or. 2001), the court held that "the mere fact that a particular reapportionment may result in a shift in political control of some legislative districts (assuming that every registered voter votes along party lines)," does not show that a redistricting plan was drawn with an improper intent.

[34] It is well recognized that political consequences are inseparable from the redistricting process. See, e.g., Vieth v. Jubelirer, 541 U.S. 267, 343 (2004) (Souter, J., dissenting) ("The choice to draw a district line one way, not another, always carries some consequence for politics, save in a mythical State with voters of every political identity distributed in an absolutely gray uniformity.").

The first tier of the new standards also provides two distinct protections for racial and language minorities. First, districts may not be drawn with the intent or result of denying or abridging the equal opportunity of minorities to participate in the political process. Second, districts may not be drawn to diminish the ability of racial or language minorities to elect representatives of their choice.[35] The first standard is comparable to Section 2 of the federal Voting Rights Act. The second standard is comparable to Section 5 of the federal Voting Rights Act, as amended in 2006, but its application is statewide and not limited to the five counties previously protected by Section 5.[36]

On March 29, 2011, the Florida Legislature submitted the new standards to the United States Department of Justice for preclearance. In the submission, the Legislature took the position that the two protections for racial and language minorities collectively ensure that the Legislature's traditional power to maintain and even increase minority voting opportunities is not impaired or diminished by other, potentially conflicting standards in the constitutional amendment, and that the Legislature may continue to employ, without change, the same methods to preserve and enhance minority representation as it has employed with so much success in recent decades.[37] Without comment, the Department of Justice granted preclearance on May 31, 2011.[38]

The first tier also requires that districts consist of contiguous territory.[39] In the context of state legislative districts, the Florida Supreme Court has held that a district is contiguous if no part of the district is isolated from the rest of the district by another district.[40] In a contiguous district, a person can travel from any point within the district to any other point without departing from the district.[41] A district is not contiguous if its parts touch only at a common corner, such as a right angle.[42] The Court has also concluded that the presence in a district of a body of water without a connecting bridge, even if it requires land travel outside the district in order to reach other parts of the district, does not violate contiguity.[43]

The second tier of standards requires that districts be compact.[44] The various measures of compactness that courts in other states have used include mathematical calculations that compare districts according to their areas, perimeters, and other geometric and geographical criteria.[45] The Florida Supreme Court rejected broader considerations of compactness like functional compactness that would look to commerce, transportation, communication, and other practical measures that unite communities, facilitate access to elected officials, and promote the integrity and cohesiveness of districts for representational purposes.[46] In applying the compactness criterion, the Florida Supreme Court has counseled the Legislature to look to the shape of the district. "Compact districts should not have an unusual shape, a bizarre design, or an unnecessary appendage unless it is necessary to comply with some other requirement."[47] Compactness may be assessed visually or mathematically using a variety of mathematical scores. Two mathematical measures of compactness specifically referenced by the Florida Supreme Court are the Reock, or circle dispersion method,[48] and the area/convex hull method.[49] It is unclear whether these are the only compactness measures that may be considered.

Courts recognize that perfect geometric compactness, which consists of circles or regular simple polygons, is impracticable and not required.[50] The criterion of compactness must be measured and balanced against the other tier two criteria of equal population and use of political and geographical boundaries as well as tier one criteria of not denying the equal opportunity of racial or language minorities to participate in the political process or diminishing their ability to elect representatives of their choice.[51] Because the considerations that influence compactness are multi-faceted and fact-intensive, courts tend to agree that mere visual inspection is ordinarily insufficient to determine compliance with a compactness standard,[52] and that an evaluation of compactness requires a factual setting.[53]

In addition to compactness, the second tier of standards requires that, where feasible, districts use existing political and geographical boundaries.[54] The Florida Supreme Court has defined geographical boundaries as geography that is "easily ascertainable and commonly understood, such as rivers, railways, interstates, and state roads."[55] Likewise, the Court has identified political boundaries to include municipalities and counties.[56] The Florida Constitution accords no preference to political over geographical boundaries.[57]

The Constitution recognizes that, in the creation of districts, it will often not be "feasible" to trace political and geographical boundaries.[58] District boundaries might depart from political and geographical boundaries to achieve objectives of superior importance, such as population equality and the protection of minorities, and many political subdivisions are not compact. Some local boundaries may be ill-suited to the achievement of effective and meaningful representation.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Consistent with state and federal law, the bill apportions the state into 27 single-member congressional districts. Pursuant to the Supreme Court's order dated July 9, 2015, maps and statistics for Redistricting Plan H000C9065, the 2012 congressional redistricting plan, the 2014 remedial redistricting plan, and the Benchmark 2002 Redistricting Plan are attached to this analysis.

The districts in the bill have an overall population range of one person. Twenty-two districts have populations of 696,345, while five districts have populations of 696,344.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The enactment of a new map does not appear to have a significant fiscal impact on the Secretary of State. Supervisors of Elections impacted by the changes will incur costs associated with implementation of the new districts. Nothing in the bill requires a special election in the districts affected by the changes. The costs of any special elections are unknown at this time, but a substantial portion of the Supervisors of Elections expenses would be reimbursable by the state.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

Although the Florida Supreme Court ruled that CD 5 is not constitutional, federal courts have independent authority to determine whether a congressional district complies with the federal Voting Rights Act. Accordingly, Congresswoman Corrine Brown and others are currently seeking declaratory and injunctive relief in federal court against the use of any redistricting plan that dilutes the voting strength of African Americans in violation of Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act.[59] This lawsuit is essentially a challenge to the Florida Supreme Court's order that the Legislature redraw CD 5 in an east to west configuration.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends sections 8.0002 of the Florida Statutes.

This bill repeals the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 8.07, 8.08, 8.081, 8.082, 8.083, 8.084, 8.085, 8.086, 8.087, and 8.088.

This bill reenacts the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 8.0001, 8.0111, 8.0112, 8.02, 8.031, 8.05, and 8.0611.

CODING: Words ~~stricken~~ are deletions; words underlined are additions.

Section 1. Section 8.0001, Florida Statutes, is reenacted to read:

8.0001 Definitions.—In accordance with s. 8(a), Art. X of the State Constitution, the United States Decennial Census of 2010 is the official census of the state for the purposes of congressional redistricting.

(1) The following delineation of congressional districts employs areas included within official county, voting tabulation district, tract, and block boundary descriptions used by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, in compiling the United States Decennial Census of 2010 in this state. The populations within these census geographic units are the population figures reported in the counts of the United States Decennial Census of 2010 provided to the state in accordance with Pub. L. No. 94-171.

(2) As used in this chapter, the term:

(a) "Block" describes the smallest geographic unit for which population was tabulated in the 2010 decennial census. Blocks are nested within tracts and within voting tabulation districts. A block is identified by a four-digit integer that is unique within a tract but is not necessarily unique within a voting tabulation district.

(b) "Tract" describes a relatively permanent statistical subdivision of a county updated by local participants prior to the 2010 decennial census. Tracts consist of whole blocks and are nested within counties. Tracts are identified uniquely within a county by an up to four-digit integer and may have an optional two-digit suffix.

(c) "Voting tabulation district" describes a subdivision of a county established in Phase 2 of the 2010 Census Redistricting Data Program. Voting tabulation districts consist of whole blocks and are nested within counties. Voting tabulation districts subdivide counties in ways supervisors of elections determined are efficient for conducting elections and keeping communities whole. Voting tabulation districts are identified uniquely within a county by an up to four-digit integer.

Section 2. Section 8.0002, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

Plaintiff,

vs. Case No.:

KEN DETZNER, in his official capacity as Secretary of State of the State of Florida, THE FLORIDA SENATE and THE FLORIDA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Defendants.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

INTRODUCTION

This is a redistricting lawsuit. This action is brought pursuant to §2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, 42 U.S.C. § 1973 et seq. and the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983. Plaintiff seeks declaratory and injunctive relief against continued use of any congressional redistricting plan that dilutes the voting strength of African Americans. The drawing and redrawing of Congresswoman Brown's district, as required by the Florida Supreme Court's opinion, carries with it the very real and imminent possibility of Congresswoman Brown's constituents being deprived of the ability to elect a representative of their choice. Her district – often criticized for its shape – is a minority access district – a district where minorities have the greatest chance of electing representatives of their choice. The 5th Congressional District's contours trace the historic settlement of Black citizens along the St. Johns River. Like the St. Johns River, Congresswoman Brown's district extends from Jacksonville, Florida to just north of Orlando, Florida. Black citizens settled along the St. Johns River because redlining and restrictive covenants prevented Black citizens in North-Central Florida from living elsewhere. Thus, despite its shape, which roughly traces the shape of the St. Johns River, Florida's 5th Congressional District contains within it a distinct Black population with a shared history. The Florida Supreme Court has ordered the district redrawn (and has effectively redrawn) in a manner that would undo its historic configuration and disperse the community contained within it. League of Women Voters of Florida v. Detzner, 40 Fla. L. Weekly S432 (Fla. July 9, 2015) (requiring the Florida Legislature to redraw the district with an east-west configuration). To do so is improper and contrary to law.

JURISDICTION

1. Plaintiff's complaint arises under the United States Constitution and federal statutes. This Court has jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343(a)(3) and (4) and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b).

3. Plaintiff requests a three-judge court under 28 U.S.C. §2284(a), as Plaintiff's action "challenge[s] the constitutionality of the apportionment of congressional districts" in Florida.

4. Plaintiff seeks declaratory and injunctive relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff, Congresswoman Corrine Brown, is an African American voter from Duval County. She is a United States Congresswoman who has been a strong advocate for the African American community.

6. Defendant, Ken Detzner, is the Florida Secretary of State. Plaintiffs sue Secretary Detzner in his official capacity only. In his official capacity, Secretary Detzner serves as Florida's Chief Elections Officer, and custodian of the Florida Constitution. See, e.g., Fla. Stat. §§ 15.01, 97.012, 100.371.

7. Defendant, the Florida Senate ("Senate"), is one house of the Legislature of the State of Florida. Defendant Florida Senate is responsible for drawing reapportionment plans for the Senate that comply with the Florida Constitution.

8. Defendant, the Florida House of Representatives ("House"), is the other house of the Legislature of the State of Florida. Defendant Florida House of Representatives is responsible for drawing reapportionment plans for the Senate that comply with the Florida Constitution.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Florida History

9. Florida has a long, sad history of racial discrimination in voting. DeGrandy v. Wetherell, 794 F. Supp. 1076, 1079 (N.D. Fla. 1992)

10. Florida quite successfully evaded the intent of the Fifteenth Amendment for decades by enacting facially neutral laws, such as white primary laws, poll taxes, literacy tests, and other tactics to bleach the voter rolls, ensuring that black voters could not participate in the political process.

11. Florida took other actions to exclude black voters, such as giving the governor the authority to appoint members of county commissions so that white voters would retain control even in majority-minority "Black Belt" counties.

12. Likewise, the legislature provided for the appointment of school board members by the State Board of Public Instruction so as to avoid the possibility of electing African Americans.

13. The state employed other methods to ensure that black children received substandard educations, and the ramifications of this are still felt today.

14. In North-Central Florida, this history was especially vicious. When the white primary was found to be unconstitutional in the 1940s, the city of Jacksonville switched to at-large elections to prevent the election of black candidates from predominantly black wards.

15. African-Americans were faced with physical violence when trying to register or to vote, from Reconstruction up through the 1900s.

16. The Ku Klux Klan was particularly strong in the region encompassed by Congressional District 5.

17. After the passage of the Voting Rights Act in 1965, the effective enfranchisement of black voters was slow in coming. Florida did not send its first African American member to Congress until court intervention in 1992.

18. During that redistricting cycle, Democrats were in control of the House and Senate, but could not agree on a congressional plan. In the hands of a federal court, two majority-black districts (Congressional District 3 in North-Central Florida and Congressional District 17 in South Florida) and one near-majority black district (Congressional District 23 in South Florida) were drawn, and Florida sent three African-American Congresspersons to Washington, D.C. for the first time in over 120 years.

19. The state continues to erect electoral impediments for black voters even today. In Duval County, a post-2000 election study found that as many as one out of five ballots cast by black voters did not count in that election, compared to one out of fourteen white ballots.

20. Prior to the 2000 election, the state contracted with a private company to purge felons from the voter rolls, and black voters felt the disproportionate impact from these poorly-conducted purges.

21. In 2011, the state of Florida moved to dramatically cut the early voting period, despite the fact that black voters were twice as likely to vote early when compared with white voters.

22. Finally, the state of Florida implements the country's most stringent and racially discriminatory felony disenfranchisement laws. In 2010, nearly one in four African Americans was disqualified from voting due to a felony conviction – more people are disenfranchised in Florida on these grounds than in any other state.

23. African-American voters sill encounter numerous obstacles in the region encompassed by Congressional District 5 that detrimentally affect their ability to participate in the political process. African Americans disproportionately face challenges in education, housing, and access to public services. Economic disparities, including trouble finding jobs, disproportionately plague black voters in Congressional District 5.

1. History of Sanford

24. Sanford was established in the 1870s by Henry Shelton Sanford. Sanford was a diplomat who bought the land to establish it as a transportation hub, only twenty years after African Americans established a neighboring town named Goldsboro.

25. The town had post offices, business, and basic infrastructure that a town needs to function. As Sanford developed, it eventually swallowed up Goldsboro as well as the other surrounding predominantly African American neighborhoods. As the surrounding towns, including Goldsboro, merged with Sanford, minority groups did not enjoy the same commodities as their white counterpart.

26. Sanford's motto "The Friendly City" is not an accurate representation of the city's inequitable treatment of its minority groups. In 1947, baseball hall of famer Jackie Robinson and another black player, Johnny Wright, were shuttled from Sanford to Daytona Beach due to numerous death threats that they faced. In 1997, the city of Sanford issued a public apology regarding the events that occurred with Robinson and proclaimed April 15, 1997 as Jackie Robinson Day.

27. Over 65 years later, 17 year old Trayvon Martin was gunned down for wearing a hoodie in a gated community by the neighborhood's community watch coordinator.

28. Beside these two infamous situations, Sanford also dealt with deep-seated issues regarding a sub-par education system, income inequalities, and inadequate housing for minorities.

2. History of Eatonville

29. Eatonville is one of the first self-governing all-black municipalities in the United States.

30. The town is named after Josiah C. Eaton, one of a small group of white landowners who were willing to sell sufficient land to African Americans to incorporate as a black town.

31. Noted African-American author Zora Neale Hurston grew up in Eatonville and featured it in many of her stories. Hurston's novel Their Eyes Were Watching God presents an overview of the founding of the town through the eyes of Janie Crawford, the protagonist.

B. History of District 5

32. The creation of District 5 was the direct result of years of litigation to remedy decades of vote dilution experienced by African Americans that denied them the opportunity to elect representatives of their choice.

33. After the 1990 decennial census, Florida was apportioned four additional Congressional seats, for a total of 23 members of Congress. DeGrandy v. Wetherell, 794 F. Supp. 1076, 1078 (N.D. Fla. 1992).

34. Prior to the 1992 election, Florida had not had a federal African American Congressperson since Josiah Thomas Walls in 1871.

35. Nationally, prior to the passage of the Voting Rights Act in 1965, between the years of 1832-1965, there were only 28 elected African Americans. From 1965-present, there were/are 103 elected African Americans.

36. When the state legislature reached an impasse on drawing a new congressional plan, the Florida NAACP filed a Voting Rights Act lawsuit, asking a federal court to draw a majority-black district in North-Central Florida to remedy the vote dilution present in the state for decades. The congressional district at stake in this litigation was the result of that lawsuit.

37. In response to Johnson v. Mortham, 926 F. Supp. 1460 (N.D. Fla. 1996), the Jacksonville-to-Orlando configuration was created with almost unanimous support in 1996, when Democrats controlled the House of Representatives and the Governor's Office, and it has received bipartisan support ever since.

38. After the 2000 census, Florida was again apportioned additional congressional seats, and the Florida NAACP again pushed the legislature to keep an African-American district in North-Central Florida.

39. In a racial gerrymandering challenge to that 2002 drawing of what was, in this redistricting round, the benchmark for Congressional District 5, a federal court found that the district was a reasonably compact district that ensured black voting strength in the region was not diluted. Martinez v. Bush, 234 F. Supp. 2d 1275, 1307-1309 (S.D. Fla. 2002).

40. In 2010, Florida voters approved two new constitutional provisions governing redistricting in the state. Amendment 5, now codified as Article III, Section 20, of the Florida Constitution, established criteria for drawing congressional districts and Amendment 6, now codified as Article III, Section 21, established criteria for state legislative redistricting.

41. After the decennial census data was received, the Florida NAACP worked to develop redistricting maps that would fully comply with the new amendments. With regard to Congressional District 5 (then numbered Congressional District 3), the Florida NAACP, informed by its members who live and struggle every day with conditions on the ground in North-Central Florida, drew the district in a way it believed necessary to avoid vote dilution and retrogression. That map was submitted to the legislature on November 1, 2011.

42. The legislature conducted numerous hearings across the state. In late January, the legislature introduced plan H000C9047, the final proposed plan for Florida's congressional districts. Congressional District 5 in the legislatively-proposed plan followed the advice for the district presented through the NAACP's submission.

43. Communities within the district that were accustomed to the benefits of having representation of their choice were not stranded in districts where they would not be able to elect candidates of choice. The ability of black voters in the region to elect their candidates of choice was not lessened.

44. Following the enactment of the congressional redistricting plan in early 2012, the League of Women Voters of Florida, Common Cause, and several individual voters filed lawsuits challenging that congressional plan as violating the new state constitutional redistricting criteria. See Romo v. Detzner, 2014 WL 3797315 (Fla.Cir.Ct. July 10, 2014).

45. Specifically, the state Plaintiffs alleged that Congressional District 5 unnecessarily packed black voters into the district and, as such, compliance with minority voting protections in the constitution did not justify the district's non-compact shape.

46. On July 10, 2014, the trial court ruled that Congressional District 5 violated Art. III, Section 20 of the state constitution, and that it would need to be redrawn. The Court declined to give the legislature any specific directions on how compliance should be achieved.

47. After the trial court's instructions to the legislature to swiftly draw a remedial map, the legislature called a special session on August 7, 2014.

48. Tallahassee NAACP president Dale Landry testified that taking the district out west instead of south was simply not an option. He detailed how Congressional District 5 still served as a much needed voting rights remedy in North-Central Florida.

49. He also offered the unique perspective of an African American resident of Tallahassee – one who personally understood that an East-West configuration of the district could not adequately replace a North-South configuration.

50. NAACP leaders also testified to the shared history of their communities and the increased responsiveness of elected officials when their communities were included in a district in which black voters have the opportunity to elect their candidate of choice.

51. After the special session, state Plaintiffs challenged the remedial map, arguing that the changes made to Congressional District 5 did not correct the constitutional problems identified by the trial court. The trial court disagreed, finding that "the remedial plan adequately addresses the constitutional deficiencies [] found in the Final Judgment."

52. Recognizing that what the Plaintiffs were asking the court to do was to find that a North-South configuration of the district was unconstitutional, the trial court declined to do so. Instead that court found that there were "legitimate, non-partisan policy reasons for preferring a North-South configuration for this district over an East-West configuration, and the Plaintiffs have not offered convincing evidence that an East-West configuration is necessary in order to comply with tier-one and tier-two requirements of Article III, Section 20."

53. On October 23, 2014, the Florida Supreme Court accepted jurisdiction and on July 9, 2015, the court ordered that District 5 be redrawn in an East-West configuration. See League of Women Voters of Florida v. Detzner, 40 Fla. L. Weekly S432 (Fla. July 9, 2015).

COUNT I
VOTING RIGHTS ACT OF 1965

54. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 53 above are re-alleged as if fully set forth herein.

55. The election practices and procedure used to apportion Congressional District 5, violate the rights of African American voters in violation of Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

56. Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, 42 U.S.C. §1973, prohibits any electoral practice or procedure that "results in a denial or abridgment of the right of any citizen...to vote on account of race or color." 42 U.S.C. §1973(a).

57. In the redistricting context, this is a prohibition against what is known as "minority vote dilution," and Section 2 is violated where, "Based on the totality of circumstances, it is shown that the political processes leading to nomination or election...are not equally open to participation by members of a [racial or language minority group] in that its members have less opportunity than other members of the electorate to participate in the political processes and to elect representatives of their choice." 42 U.S.C. §1973(b).

58. The "totality of the circumstances" of redrawing the district will dilute African American voting strength, resulting in "less opportunity than other members of the electorate to participate in the political process and to elect the representatives of their choice." 42 U.S.C. §1973.

59. Unless enjoined by this Court, Defendants will continue to violate Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1973, by enforcing standards, practices, or procedures that deny African American voters opportunity to participate effectively in the political process on an equal basis with other members of the electorate.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter Judgment granting:

A. A declaratory judgment that Defendants' actions violate the rights of Plaintiff as protected by Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. §1973 et seq.

B. Preliminary and permanent injunctive relief requiring Defendants, their successors in office, agents, employees, attorneys and those persons acting in concert with them and/or at their discretion – to develop and implement redistricting plans that do not dilute African American voting strength for the United States House of Representatives, and also enjoining and forbidding the use of a redistricting plan that dilutes the voting strength of minorities;

C. Reasonable attorney's fees and costs;

E. An order of this Court retaining jurisdiction over this matter until all Defendants have complied with all orders and mandates of this Court; and

E. Such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

COUNT II
42 U.S.C. §1983

60. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 53 above are re-alleged as if fully set forth herein.

61. The East-West configuration of District 5 was adopted with an intent to, and it does, deny or abridge the right of African American citizens residing in District 5 to vote on account of their race and color.

62. This intentional discrimination is in violation of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and 42 U.S.C. §1983.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter Judgment granting:

A. A declaratory judgment that Defendants' actions violate the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and 42 U.S.C. §1983;

B. Reasonable attorney's fees and costs;

C. An order of this Court retaining jurisdiction over this matter until all Defendants have complied with all orders and mandates of this Court; and

D. Such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Josiah Thomas Walls
1842–1905

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE ★ 1871–1873; 1873–1876
REPUBLICAN FROM FLORIDA

Overcoming deep political divisions in the Florida Republican Party, Josiah Walls became the first African American to serve his state in Congress. The only black Representative from Florida until the early 1990s, Walls was unseated twice on the recommendation of the House Committee on Elections. When he was not fiercely defending his seat in Congress, Walls fought for internal improvements for Florida. He also advocated compulsory education and economic opportunity for all races: "We demand that our lives, our liberties, and our property shall be protected by the strong arm of our government, that it gives us the same citizenship that it gives to those who it seems would . . . sink our every hope for peace, prosperity, and happiness into the great sea of oblivion."[1]

Josiah Thomas Walls was born into slavery in Winchester, Virginia, on December 30, 1842.[2] He was suspected to be the son of his master, Dr. John Walls, and maintained contact with him throughout his life.[3] When the Civil War broke out, Walls was forced to be the private servant of a Confederate artilleryman until he was captured by Union soldiers in May 1862. Emancipated by his Union captors, Walls briefly attended the county normal school in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. By July 1863, Josiah Walls was serving in the Union Army as part of the 3rd Infantry Regiment of United States Colored Troops (USCT) based in Philadelphia. His regiment moved to Union-occupied northern Florida in February 1864. The following June, he transferred to the 35th Regiment USCT, where he served as the first sergeant and artillery instructor. While living in Picolota, Florida, Walls met and married Helen Fergueson, with whom he had one daughter, Nellie. He was discharged in October 1865 but decided to stay in Florida, working at a saw mill on the Suwannee River and, later, as a teacher with the Freedmen's Bureau in Gainesville. By 1868, Walls had saved enough money to buy a 60-acre farm outside the city.

One of the few educated black men in Reconstruction-Era Florida, Walls was drawn to political opportunities available after the war. He began his career by representing north-central Florida's Alachua County in the 1868 Florida constitutional convention. That same year, Walls ran a successful campaign for state assemblyman. The following fall, he was elected to the state senate and took his seat as one of five freedmen in the 24-man chamber in January 1869. Josiah Walls attended the Southern States Convention of Colored Men in 1871 in Columbia, South Carolina.

After gaining traction in 1867, the Florida Republican Party disintegrated into factions controlled by scalawags and carpetbaggers—each group fighting for the loyalty of a large constituency of freedmen. The disorganized GOP faced another grim situation when their nominating convention met in August 1870. The three previous years would be remembered as the apex of anti-black violence in the state, orchestrated by the well-organized Jacksonville branches of the Ku Klux Klan.[4] In the face of such unrestrained intimidation, Florida freedmen were widely expected to avoid the polls on Election Day. Fearing conservative Democrats would capture the election in the absence of the black vote, state GOP party leaders—a group made up entirely of white men from the scalawag and carpetbagger factions—agreed that nominating a black man to the state's lone At-Large seat in the U.S. House of Representatives would renew black voters' courage and faith in the Republican Party. Passing over the incumbent, former Union soldier Representative Charles Hamilton, the state convention delegates advanced the names of their favorite black candidates. Fierce competition between the nominees led to unruly debate as well as attempts to cast fraudulent votes, and almost resulted in rioting. Walls's reputation as an

Drawing Lines

You Can't Draw Unbiased Districts in Florida Even if You Try

JULY 14, 2015

Kim Soffen

Is it even possible to draw congressional districts in Florida that do not favor Republicans?

Last week, the Florida Supreme Court ruled by 5-2 that eight of Florida's 27 congressional districts were drawn with "partisan intent" favoring the Republican Party.

The districts in question, drawn after the 2010 census, were used in the 2012 House elections. In those elections, the Republicans drew 51 percent of the vote yet won 63 percent of Florida's House seats. In a perfectly unbiased electoral system, a party winning 50 percent of the statewide votes would earn 50 percent of the congressional seats.

But the legislature that drew the districts might not be completely at fault. In 2013, Jowei Chen, an assistant professor of political science at the University of Michigan, and Jonathan Rodden, a professor of political science at Stanford, published a study that came to that conclusion. It found that because of the population geography of Florida — where Democrats and Republicans happen to live — it is nearly impossible to draw districts that don't have a Republican bias.

In Florida, as is common around the country, Democrats are highly concentrated in urban centers like Miami; Republicans are more spread out around the state. This means residents of Democratic-leaning precincts are far more likely to have similarly voting neighbors than red-leaning precincts are. And since Florida's congressional districts must by law be contiguous and compact, Democrats are more likely to be packed into districts that are overwhelmingly Democratic than Republicans are. Nate Cohn, my colleague at The Upshot, has written about the phenomenon of "wasted votes" and how it hurts Democrats in states like Pennsylvania.

In Florida, unlike in most other states, this Democratic concentration is so extreme that even in partisan-blind districts drawn by a computer, the Republican bias cannot be eliminated. In Mr. Chen and Mr. Rodden's simulations, they found that when the Florida vote was evenly split between Democrats and Republicans, Republicans would still win 61 percent of the House seats, on average. If compactness were not considered, the Republicans won 63 percent of seats, the same percentage won in the 2012 election.

One more argument for changing the house to a proportional vote. Besides allowing smaller parties to have a voice, it would eliminate the...

Yes, Democratic voters are "naturally" more compactly located in Florida. Wouldn't it be nice, though, to see districts that don't...

Through all of their simulations, not a single neutral or Democrat-biased plan was generated. But this result isn't found only in simulations.

Even the districting plans proposed by Democratic state legislators for the 2002 redistricting, which were presumably drawn favorably for Democrats, carried a Republican bias. The most Democratically favorable of these plans gave Republicans 56 percent of House seats when the statewide vote was split evenly between the parties. The most biased plans proposed by Democrats gave Republicans 68 percent of the seats.

In other words, a partisan-blind, or even a Democrat-drawn, districting plan has similar levels of Republican bias to the plan struck down by the court. So while the districts may have been drawn with "partisan intent," the election results might have ended up just as tilted without it.

Charlie,

Please forward my statement to Senator Bradley's staff. He will be our courtesy sponsor.

Senator Detert Amendment Justification:

The following amendment, known as detert V1, is being offered by me on behalf of the citizens of Sarasota county. I have not consulted with anyone other than Jay Ferrin, our staff member, and that meeting was recorded on Monday.

Reason for amendment:
Cong. District 16 currently meets all guidelines set out in the 2010 Fair Districts amendment. District 16 was not court ordered to be redrawn. I realize that we have to make accommodations for districts that do have to be redrawn but, by dividing Sarasota in half ruins the compactness of Sarasota/Manatee and only marginally improves District 17.

Amendment detertV1 is basically the original map drawn by staff before they changed it to bdraft19. The only other change is to include Egmont Key into district 16.

This amendment will only change boundaries within Sarasota/Manatee and should not cause any cascade changes to other districts. I respectfully request your approval of this amendment in order to keep compactness, keep coastal communities with like interests together, keep a well drawn district from becoming a chopped up district and to offer continuity of services to the people of district.

I wish to thank Senator Bradley for being a courtesy sponsor and I apologize for not being there in person.
Respectfully,
Sen. Nancy Detert

Re: Reapportionment

Dear Mr. President and Mr. Speaker:

The Greater Fort Lauderdale Chamber of Commerce requests consideration by the Reapportionment Committee specifically as it relates to base maps released last week that would significantly change the structure that has been so successful for our coastal and inland region in Palm Beach and Broward Counties.

We believe a vertical representation of the current districts should be maintained, crossing county lines and keeping the integrity of our economic representation for coastal communities that share common issues like beach preservation cruise and beach related tourism.

Further, we maintain inland districts have commonality of issues that should be preserved. Cities like Parkland, Coral Springs, Weston, and Wellington have far more similarities than they do with coastal cities. Fort Lauderdale, Pompano Beach, Deerfield, Boca Raton and Delray Beach should remain within one district for the same reasons.

The original intent of coastal and inland districts with a vertical versus horizontal orientation remains preferential for the community, its electorate and the economic well-being for all.

We urge Florida's House and Senate to revert the design for Broward and Palm Beach Counties' maps to a cross-county vertical orientation with minor modifications that would not split cities into multiple districts to the greatest extent possible.

Sincerely,

GREATER FORT LAUDERDALE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Dear Sen. Lee,

As a life-long resident of Broward County, local business owner and CEO of the Greater Fort Lauderdale Alliance, Broward's economic development organization, I'm asking for your support of Congressional Districts that fairly represent the federal priorities for the Floridians residing in Broward and Palm Beach Counties.

The coastal district for Congress (District 22) dates back prior to U.S. Representative E. Clay Shaw's service as a Southeast Florida member of Congress. For over 30 years, the legislature has honored the commonality of interests of eastern Broward & Palm Beach Counties. Currently, in Broward, the coastal Congressional District contains the eastern portions of Deerfield Beach, Hillsboro, Pompano Beach, Lighthouse Point, Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, Oakland Park, Wilton Manors, and Fort Lauderdale.

Of most importance to the business community is the fact that Port Everglades, one of our most vital economic engines, is within the boundaries of the current coastal district 22. The Port's federal priorities are a solid fit with the similarities in our coastal communities, which includes issues like dredging, beach erosion, cruise & beach related tourism and efficient coastal transportation systems, particularly along the Dixie Highway corridor and the Florida East Coast Rail line.

Much in the same way that a coastal district provides better representation for coastal cities located within two counties; an inland district best represents the priorities of its residents and the common interests of inland communities like Coral Springs, Weston, Wellington and Royal Palm Beach.

1. The coastal communities in Broward and Palm Beach have the common environmental interests of coastal flooding, tidal flooding from waterways and shore erosion protections. A coastwise oriented member of Congress is knowledgeable on these issues and how they differ from inland environmental concerns. Naturally she or he seeks to serve on Congressional Committees focused on coastal issues important to constituents.
2. Southeast Florida coastal communities have a greater financial dependency on beach related tourism than the inland western communities. While the impact of tourism and recreation on our coastal communities may increase the coastal infrastructure needs, the county's broader economic vitality provides employment opportunities and international business development for all of Southeast Florida.
3. The Federal Courthouses for the Southern District of Florida are located within the coastal Congressional Districts. The quality of those facilities and the federal funding necessary for the courthouses is a priority for members of Congress from those coastal communities in Southeast Florida.

While inland and coastal districts have differing priorities, it does not imply that one is more or less important. It tends to reason that a member of Congress will be more effective when they are permitted to serve on committees as subject matter experts focused on the specific issues that have the greatest impact on their constituents.

Please support a new congressional map for Florida that allows Broward and Palm Beach counties to share members of congress that correspond to inland and coastal districts.

With warm regards, I am

Sincerely,

August 11, 2015

Senator Tom Lee,

As President/CEO of the Greater Pompano Beach Chamber of Commerce, the area's preeminent business membership organization and a 56-year resident of Pompano Beach, I'm asking for your support of Congressional Districts that fairly represent the federal priorities for the Floridians residing in Broward and Palm Beach Counties.

The coastal district for Congress (District 22) dates back prior to U.S. Representative E. Clay Shaw's service as a Southeast Florida member of Congress. For over 30 years, the legislature has honored the commonality of interests of eastern Broward & Palm Beach Counties. Currently, in Broward, the coastal Congressional District contains the eastern portions of not only Pompano Beach but Deerfield Beach, Hillsboro, Lighthouse Point, Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, Oakland Park, Wilton Manors, and Fort Lauderdale.

Of most importance to the business community is the fact that Port Everglades, one of our most vital economic engines, is within the boundaries of the current coastal District 22. The Port's federal priorities are a solid fit with the similarities in our neighboring coastal communities, which includes issues like dredging, beach erosion, cruise & beach related tourism and efficient coastal transportation systems, particularly along the Dixie Highway corridor and the Florida East Coast Rail line.

Much in the same way that a coastal district provides better representation for coastal cities located within two counties; an inland district best represents the priorities of its residents and the common interests of inland communities like Coral Springs, Weston, Wellington and Royal Palm Beach.

Additionally:

A) The coastal communities in Broward and Palm Beach have the common environmental interests of coastal flooding, tidal flooding from waterways and shore erosion protections. A coastwise oriented member of Congress is knowledgeable on these issues and how they differ from inland environmental concerns. Naturally she or he seeks to serve on Congressional Committees focused on coastal issues important to constituents.

B) Southeast Florida coastal communities have a greater financial dependency on beach related tourism than the inland western communities. While the impact of tourism and recreation on our coastal communities may increase the coastal infrastructure needs, the County's broader economic vitality provides employment opportunities and international business development for all of Southeast Florida.

Dear Senator Galvano and Representative Oliva:

The Florida Legislature is undertaking the difficult process of creating new lines for numerous Congressional Districts in Florida. Upon the conclusion of that redistricting process, the Supervisors of Elections in each county in Florida will be required to review the new district lines and make changes to their county map and align precinct lines to the new district lines. With that in mind, the Supervisors throughout the state would like to reinforce concerns or issues which will be important in having the new plan in effect for the Presidential Preference Primary in March 2016.

- The Legislature should strive to draw lines maintaining intact communities and draw lines along county lines whenever possible. When district lines come close to political boundaries, but are not the same, it creates pockets of voters who are isolated from other community residents and precincts become difficult to locate for them. In 2011 the staff of the Legislature worked with election and census officials to establish "Voting Tabulation Districts" which took into consideration intact communities, traffic patterns and physical barriers. These are excellent guidelines to consider when drawing lines.

- Supervisors of Elections must begin issuing overseas military ballots 45 days prior to an election. Following the receipt of new district maps and creation of new precincts, those changes must be submitted to each counties Board of County of Commissioners which must approve the precinct changes. In order for the foregoing to take place, the Supervisors will need to have final district maps no later than December 1, 2015.

We appreciate your consideration of the foregoing and look forward to a successful redistricting process and 2016 elections in Florida. If we can be of assistance or there are any questions please contact me.

Sincerely,

Ronald A. Labasky

Resolution #15.03

WHEREAS, Leon County is the home of Florida's capital, where civic engagement is seen as a responsibility and a long honored tradition; and

WHEREAS, the Leon County School system is a high performing majority-minority school district, committed to educating the next generation -- not just for college and career, but also in the values of civic participation, civil dialogue, and engaged citizenship to sustain our participatory democracy; and

WHEREAS, the 2010 Fair Districts Amendment of the Florida Constitution requires the configuration of congressional districts that utilize existing political and geographical boundaries and are contiguous and compact; and

WHEREAS, congressional redistricting maps have been submitted to demonstrate the feasibility of keeping Leon County whole, while preserving minority access districts and complying with state and federal laws, including the 1965 Voting Rights Act; and

WHEREAS, Leon County is unique in its social and economic interests -- deeply imbedded in public service, primarily through government and education -- and, as the transportation/healthcare hub of the Big Bend; it stands to reason Leon County should be entirely represented by one member of Congress.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Leon County School Board and School Superintendent, respectfully beseech the Florida Legislature to

in congressional redistricting

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Leon County School Board and School Superintendent recognize the complexities of the reapportionment process and the requirements of state and federal laws, with appreciation for the role of the Florida Legislature in resolving this matter of importance to the future of our state and its local communities.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the superintendent and members of the Leon County School Board have hereunto subscribed their names, in Leon County Florida on this 11th day of August, 2015.

Hello.

I saw proposed redistricting maps that would split Leon County in two. My understanding of the constitutional amendment that the Florida voters passed is that it requires that existing jurisdictions be maintained whole to the extent possible. I don't see that splitting Leon County and Tallahassee meets that requirement and see no justification for this action to be taken.

I entreat you to respect the wishes of the Florida voters and to protect the integrity of all local governments, including Leon County and the City of Tallahassee in your new maps. If not, I would not be surprised to see another lawsuit and another costly special session to force compliance with our State's constitution.

Thank you.

Jay, I have been working with Supervisor Sancho and Chris on this, and we have been looking into what these new lines do to our ballot styles.

The way many of the new plan lines stray from our other district boundaries could result in more than 20 ballot styles in certain polling places during primary elections. This is more than we feel comfortable managing from a poll worker training perspective, because incorrect ballot styles will be given to voters.

I will be there most of the day today. If nothing else, we would like work with you on tweaking any plan moving forward to minimize the small deviations from other district lines that create these many new pockets of voters.

Thanks Jay. I am sure they are big shoes to fill and you get some extra practice in 2015.

I may not be able to make the meeting today, but we will have people there and I plan on watching on the Florida Channel. Maybe we can talk sometime soon. I would guess time is winding down on having plan in place by the end of next week.

We would like to work on Leon County somehow depending on how this moves forward. How useful would a partial plan submission be to the process? I have always thought that complete plans had a better chance, but that's just my guess.

Chris

Mr. Moore,

I am in fact attempting to fill John's shoes as staff director of the Senate's Reapportionment committee. They're much bigger than you might imagine.

I will in fact be at the meeting tomorrow and will be happy to talk with you there.

Jay,
Now that I hear John has retired, are you involved with the redistricting staff in the Senate?

I as wondering who might be at the meeting tomorrow on the staff side we might talk to at some point. The way Leon County is carved up in the most recent plan is far from ideal for our voters and some of the boundary lines could likely be improved if Leon ends up being split up and is not able to be kept whole.

I remember attending a Senate meeting from the previous redist. process back in 11/12 and the there were horizontal shaped districts for the panhandle that were drawn and then thrown out by the courts for not being compact. They looked a lot like the plan now, but the difference seems to be that District 5 carries a minority access tag, so there seem to be competing factors. Maybe you can help shed some light on that for me.

What scores do these districts carry in their current configuration?

Thanks

To Whom it May Concern,

As a citizen of Leon County and an elected state officer, it is my preference to keep Leon County within a single congressional district. Given the large geographic foot print displayed by the two district model being considered, the federal interests of Leon County's citizens would be severely compromised.

Please keep Leon County whole!

Regardless of which political party is in control, IMO the Florida Legislature needs to keep Leon County--the seat of Florida Government--together forever. No knee jerking allowed

This very stupid separation effort has been advanced and defeated--over and over and over for decades--including way back in the mid-1970s when (from my own personal memory as the House Rules Committee Staff Director) the Honorable Donald L Tucker was House Speaker; House Dean
Gus Craig (St. Augustine) was Chair of the House Rules Committee; Senate Dean Dempsy Barron was Senate President; and Senator W.D. Childers (Pensacola) chaired the Senate Rules Committee.

The separation idea was stupid then-- and is still stupid today.

I am a long time resident of Leon county and a retired public school teacher. It concerns me that the legislature is considering plans to draw redistricting lines that will divide Leon county. This is not a good idea. Leon county is an economically and racially diverse community of citizens that share many common interests , needs, and concerns that are unique in the panhandle area. The presence of a professional and highly educated population is also somewhat singular in the panhandle. Our community provides a great deal of leadership across a wide array of efforts in the Florida panhandle, from education, to environment, to business growth, and veteran care. To split Leon county into two different congressional districts will result in denying representation to a significant group of citizens and harm the potential for continued good works that result from the voice of Leon county citizens being heard.

Take another look at the map. There are other ways to achieve new district boundaries without splitting Leon county or any county. To ignore this issue and ignore the citizens of Leon county would be a mistake in ethics and common sense.

Dear Senate Committee:

RE: Make Leon County one Congressional District

Leon County (Tallahassee) Florida, as Florida's State Capital deserves and should be preserved as a 100 percent unified represented Congressional District.

As Florida's State Capital, Leon County is unique among 67 counties. The State Supreme Court, State Legislature, various state agencies, United States Federal District Courts, national and state forests and the several universities and colleges should be viewed and respected with overlapping mutual interest that can best be represented by being a 100 percent singular Congressional District.

The majority of these entities are located within Leon County District One. As the District One Commissioner for these multiple but similar interests, I strongly advocate that our federal, state and local governments and universities should not be split. We desire a single representative.

Leon County as a government has interests county-wide and it is confusing, disconnecting and unfair to split up our small community into separate congressional districts. We want a unified District.

From the context of constituent service—two Congresspersons serving a small community tend to cancel each other's effectiveness. They stagnate over protocol issues of not wanting to over-step their District lines. Moreover, having two congresspersons is confusing for constituents. Many people would simply not know who was their correct congressperson. Congressional representation should be made simple, not complex.

On behalf of my Leon County Constituents, I request that you not divide the host county for Florida's State Capital. Our interests are so strongly government and educationally related and interwoven. It would be a disservice to separate our state capital government community.

It would be a harsh act of sheer political gerrymandering to force Leon County's majority Democratic registered voters into a Republican represented Congressional District. Leon County is decisively a 52.5 percent democratic registered county.

Leon County, as of today has 99,483 Democratic voters to 51,563 Republican voters to 38,254 NPA registered voters. Translated this means Leon County is 52.5 percent Democratic; 27.3 percent Republican and 20.2 percent NPA. Its registered majority must not be watered down and politically marginalized to meet a Republican political agenda. Period.

Consistent with the Supreme Court's admonition to the Legislature I request that "where feasible, you respect political and geographic boundaries." I suggest that you also recognize the sociological realities that make Leon County a unique County as Florida's most highly educated citizenry.

For these reasons, I strongly urge you to consider the efficacy of a united singular Congressional District for Leon County as a whole.

Hello.

I saw proposed redistricting maps that would split Leon County in two. My understanding of the constitutional amendment that the Florida voters passed is that it requires that existing jurisdictions be maintained whole to the extent possible. I don't see that splitting Leon County and Tallahassee meets that requirement and see no justification for this action to be taken.

I entreat you to respect the wishes of the Florida voters and to protect the integrity of all local governments, including Leon County and the City of Tallahassee in your new maps. If not, I would not be surprised to see another lawsuit and another costly special session to force compliance with our State's constitution.

Thank you.

Good afternoon, Mr. Ausman, and thank you for your email.

Thinking about opportunities to present your map, the House Select Committee on Redistricting and the Senate Reapportionment Committee will be meeting concurrently tomorrow starting at 9:00 AM. The meeting will be held in room 412 of the Knott Building. I know that after the presentations are given by legal counsel and staff, there will be an opportunity for members of the public to speak about the base congressional map or present maps that they have submitted. I don't know when that portion of the meeting will begin, but the joint meeting is set to conclude at 6:00PM, so we anticipate that there will be plenty of time for the public to make comments.

The House Select Committee on Redistricting will also be meeting on Thursday, August 13. While that meeting's notice has not been finalized or published yet, I suspect that the meeting will begin at 9:00 AM as well. I also anticipate that there will be time in that meeting for the public to make comments or present maps. It is also my understanding that the Senate Committee on Reapportionment is meeting on Thursday 13th.

If you plan to attend one of those meetings, if you would please let us know. That way we can make sure to be prepared to have the technology set up so that you can present your map.

If you have any questions, please let me know. Thank you and have a great day.

Greetings,

The Fair Districts amendment of the Florida Constitution requires the Florida Legislature to create Congressional Districts that "shall, where feasible, utilize existing political and geographical boundaries."
The Florida Supreme Court ruled the Legislature adopted a Congressional District map with "unconstitutional intent" to benefit Republican Congressional incumbents and candidates.
The Court stated that the Legislature must be redrawn in an East-West manner. The plaintiffs map splits Leon County into two parts. This proposed district ignores the "where feasible" the Legislature shall utilize existing political and geographical boundaries.
The Court, in three other instances ordered new Districts "must" be drawn in order to avoid the splitting of political and geographical boundaries.
Data Consultant and GIS Specialist Matthew Isbell and I drew a Congressional District that accomplishes four goals:

1. It keeps Leon County whole and does not split the county;

2. It reaches the black voting age population requirements of the Florida Supreme Court;

3. It creates the east-west district the Court directed; and,

4. It gives the western portion of the District a good chance of electing one of our own to Congress.

This means a minority-access District is coming from Jacksonville to Leon County. State Senator Al Lawson of Tallahassee was repeatedly elected from a District with a number much below the 42.7% black voting age population (BVAP). In fact Senator Lawson was elected in a District with a BVAP on 29%.

The Supreme Court observed a District drawn with a 42.7% black voting age population would be acceptable (see page 82 of the Court's decision).
In addition to recommending an East-West District we have created a Disrict with a 42.2% BVAP and one which balances the eastern and western portions of the District.

Image the District as a barbell. On the eastern side of the District would be Duval with 42% of the Democratic registered voters and 38% of all the voters. On the western side would be Leon County with 38% of the Democratic voters and 43% of the total voters.
Such a District would be roughly balanced between Duval and Leon.
The western side of the District (Gadsden, Jefferson, Leon and Liberty Counties) would have 50% of the Democratic voters and 52% of the total voters.
The eastern side of the District (Baker and Duval Counties) would have 42% of the Democratic voters and 40% of the total voters.
The middle counties of Columbia, Hamilton and Madison would have 8% of the Democratic voters and 8% of the total voters.
I am requesting an opportunity to present this map to the Florida House and Senate redistricting committees.

11 August 2015

FOR IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE (Tallahassee, Florida):

The Fair Districts amendment of the Florida Constitution requires the Florida Legislature to create Congressional Districts which:

1. Do not favor or disfavor a political party or an incumbent;
2. Protect the equal opportunity of racial or language minorities to participate in the political process;
3. Do not diminish racial or language minorities ability to elect representatives of their choice;
4. Shall be contiguous;
5. Nearly equal in size; and,
6. Where feasible, utilize existing political and geographical boundaries.

While the first four requirements have priority over the latter two I am going to present a map for a North Florida East-West District which meets all six requirements with a special emphases on the Florida Legislature creating Congressional Districts that "shall, where feasible, utilize existing political and geographical boundaries."

The Florida Supreme Court ruled the Legislature adopted a Congressional District map with "unconstitutional intent". Whether we agree or disagree, whether we like or dislike, this ruling it is what brought us all together today.

The Court stated that the Legislature must redraw Congressional District 5 from a North-South orientation to an East-West manner. The plaintiffs map and the draft map proposed by staff splits Leon County into two parts.

The plaintiffs map and the staff's map do not meet the six criteria in the Constitution. First, I want to address the splitting of political boundaries.

The Court, in three other instances ordered new Districts drawn elsewhere in order to avoid the splitting of political and geographical boundaries:

1. Hendry County;
2. City of Homestead; and,
3. Two Congressional Districts which crossed Tampa Bay between Pinellas and Hillsborough Counties.

Data Consultant and GIS Specialist Matthew Isbell and I drew a Congressional District that accomplishes four goals:

1. It keeps Leon County whole and does not split the county;
2. It reaches the black voting age population requirements of the Florida Supreme Court;
3. It creates the east-west district the Court directed; and,
4. It gives the western portion of the District a good chance of electing one of our own to Congress.

The existing North-South alignment splits five of twelve municipalities. The plantiff's and staff map splits two (2) of seventeen (17) cities. The Ausman East-West districts splits none of the seventeen (17) cities in the District.

The existing North-South splits all seven (7) counties in it. The staff/plantiff map splits four (4) of eight (8) counties. Four (4) counties remain intact. The Ausman plan splits four (4) of nine (9) counties. Five (5) counties remain intact.

The current North-South alignment splits eighty-four (84) voter tabulation districts (VTDs). The staff proposed East-West district splits fifty-seven (57) voter tabulation districts. The Ausman plan splits only thirteen (13) voter tabulation districts.

The Ausman plan splits only 15% of the voter tabulation districts in the current plan and only 23% of what the staff proposes.

	Current North-South	Staff Proposed East-West	Ausman Proposed East-West
City Split	5	2	0
City Not Split	7	15	17
County Split	7	4	4
County Not Split	0	4	5
VTD Split	84	57	13

The Ausman East-West proposed district clearly meets the "where feasible, utilize existing political boundaries" better than either the current map or the staff proposed map. It shows it can be done and when feasible should be done.

The next issue I shall address the concerns of the current incumbent in Congressional District 5. The incumbent believes "Jacksonville has nothing in common with North Florida." When the incumbent said that I was unsure if she was complimenting North Florida or not, I suspect she was not.

Florida's constitution states the Legislature should:

1. Protect the equal opportunity of racial or language minorities to participate in the political process; and,
2. Not diminish racial or language minorities ability to elect representatives of their choice.

The Federal Courts in Martinez observed a District drawn with a 42.7% black voting age population would be acceptable (see page 82 of the Florida Supreme Court's decision).

The District being recommended today is in an East-West configuration. It has a black voting age population (BVAP) of 42.2% BVAP. The District also balances the eastern and western portions of the District but more on that later.

The United States Supreme Court this year, in Alabama Legislative Black Caucus v Alabama, stated black voting age population cannot be viewed in a vacuum. The Supreme Court emphasized that it is the "ability to elected a preferred candidate of choice" that is the pertinent standard, not a "particular numerical minority percentage".

If the Legislature respects the City of Tallahassee and Leon County's political boundaries when it creates a minority-access District from Jacksonville to Leon County it is extremely likely in practice that the Member of Congress elected will be an American of African descent.

Former State Senator Al Lawson of Tallahassee was repeatedly elected from a District with a number much below the 42.2% black voting age population (BVAP) recommended in the Ausman district. In fact, Senator Lawson was elected in a Senate District with a BVAP of only 29%.

There are currently nine (9) locally elected African-American public officials within Leon County and there have been quite a few who have retired from public office over the last thirty years.

Of those nine (9) now serving here is the percentage of voters in their district that are African-American.

- County Commissioner Nick Maddox, elected countywide, 27.9%.
- County Tax Collector Doris Maloy, elected countywide, 27.9%
- County Judge Augustus Aikens, elected countywide, 27.9%
- County Judge Nina Ashenafi Richardson, elected countywide, 27.9%
- Mayor Andrew Gillum, elected citywide, 32.7%
- City Commissioner Curtis Richardson, elected citywide, 32.7%.
- School Board Member Joy Bowen, elected in District 5, 34.4%.
- School Board Member Maggie Lewis-Butler, elected in District 3, 60.4%.
- County Commissioner Bill Proctor, elected in District 1, 61.4%.

Leon County has also elected countywide Supervisor of Elections Ion Voltaire Sancho even though our Hispanic/Latino population is in single digits.

It is clear Leon County and the City of Tallahassee as whole, intact entities voters for persons of quality without regard to racial or language characteristics.

The African-American portion of Democratic voters within the Ausman District is 61%. In Martinez the Federal Court found that black voters are afforded a reasonable opportunity to elect a candidate of their choice when "the black candidate of choice is likely to win a contested Democratic primary, and the Democratic nominee is likely to win the general election."

Barack Obama in 2012 carried the District with more than 63% of the vote and Bill Nelson carried it with more than 67% of the vote. The Democratic nominee is very likely to win the general election and so the question of "reasonable opportunity to elect a candidate of their choice" has been met.

The proposed Ausman District is fair. If you imagine the District as a barbell on the eastern side of the District would be Duval with 42% of the Democratic registered voters and 38% of all the voters. On the western side would be Leon County with 38% of the Democratic voters and 43% of the total voters.

Such a District would be roughly balanced between Duval and Leon.

The western side of the District (Gadsden, Jefferson, Leon and Liberty Counties) would have 50% of the Democratic voters and 52% of the total voters.

The eastern side of the District (Baker and Duval Counties) would have 42% of the Democratic voters and 40% of the total voters.

The middle counties of Columbia, Hamilton and Madison would have 8% of the Democratic voters and 8% of the total voters.

This gives the western side of the District an equal chance of elected a Member of Congress which will represent in full its interests.

Appendix A: Voting History of Leon County

Leon County's Recent History

There are currently nine (9) locally elected African-American public officials and there have been quite a few who have retired from public office over the last thirty years.

Of those nine (9) now serving here is the percentage of voters in their district that are African-American.

- County Commissioner Nick Maddox, elected countywide, 27.9%.
- County Tax Collector Doris Maloy, elected countywide, 27.9%
- County Judge Augustus Aikens, elected countywide, 27.9%
- County Judge Nina Ashenafi Richardson, elected countywide, 27.9%
- Mayor Andrew Gillum, elected citywide, 32.7%
- City Commissioner Curtis Richardson, elected citywide, 32.7%.
- School Board Member Joy Bowen, elected in District 5, 34.4%.
- School Board Member Maggie Lewis-Butler, elected in District 3, 60.4%.
- County Commissioner Bill Proctor, elected in District 1, 61.4%.

Leon County has also elected countywide Supervisor of Elections Ion Sancho.

Leon County voters are clearly able to evaluate candidates by their strength of character. The vast majority of our non-white elected officials have been elected even though the minority population falls way below 40%.

Appendix B: Relevant Quotes from Florida Supreme Court Decision

....the 2002 version of District 5 did not have a BVAP of over 50% and was not invalidated during Voting Rights Act litigation. See Martinez, 234 F. Supp. 2d at 1307 (noting that the BVAP of the 2002 version of District 5 was "only" 46.9%, but that the district "will afford black voters a reasonable opportunity to elect candidates of choice and probably will in fact perform for black candidates of choice").

League of Women Voters v. Ken Detzner, No. SC14-1905, Page 37

Since the Legislature cannot prove that the North-South configuration is necessary to avoid diminishing the ability of black voters to elect a candidate of their choice, we hold that District 5 must be redrawn in an East-West manner.

League of Women Voters v. Ken Detzner, No. SC14-1905, Page 79

The federal court in Martinez determined that the BVAP of 46.9% "will afford black voters a reasonable opportunity to elect candidates of choice and probably will in fact perform for black candidates of choice." The actual election results show this to be true—the district has continued to perform for the black candidate of choice in every election from 2000 through the present.

The challengers' proposed East-West configuration of the district has a BVAP of 45.12%—higher than the BVAP in the initial draft district drawn by Alex Kelly. This is well within the range of the 42.7%, 46.7%, and 46.9% BVAP percentages that were addressed by the federal court in Martinez and considered to be sufficient to "afford black voters a reasonable opportunity to elect candidates of choice" and to "in fact perform for black candidates of choice."

League of Women Voters v. Ken Detzner, No. SC14-1905, Pages 82-83

because the Legislature cannot justify this configuration, District 5 must be redrawn in an East-West orientation.

League of Women Voters v. Ken Detzner, No. SC14-1905, Page 88.

Accordingly, Districts 13 and 14 must be redrawn to avoid crossing Tampa Bay.

League of Women Voters v. Ken Detzner, No. SC14-1905, Page 92.

Because the Legislature's asserted justification for its configuration of these districts—to protect minority voting rights—simply cannot be justified, these districts must be redrawn to avoid splitting Homestead.

League of Women Voters v. Ken Detzner, No. SC14-1905, Page 94.

District 25 must be redrawn to avoid splitting Hendry County.

League of Women Voters v. Ken Detzner, No. SC14-1905, Page 97.

Second, the Legislature should provide a mechanism for the challengers and others to submit alternative maps and any testimony regarding those maps for consideration and should allow debate on the merits of the alternative maps. The Legislature should also offer an opportunity for citizens to review and offer feedback regarding any proposed legislative map before the map is finalized.

I am writing you today to express that I am completely opposed to splitting Leon County in the upcoming special session to reapportion Florida's voting districts. In the spirit of following the reapportionment process fairly and equitably, the process calls for following existing political boundaries where possible. Leon County is certainly an existing boundary.

Please do not split Leon County.

Comment or Question:
The Base Congressional Map for Leon County is wholly and completely unacceptable. To break apart Leon County is against the State Supreme Court's guidelines and is a mockery of common sense. The majority of Leon County has always been in District 2, with a small portion of it a part of District 5. This has never made sense. As the base map stands right now, there will be an even more divided county. Please leave Leon County as part of one district and assign it to its consistent Congressional District 2.

The Honorable Bill Galvano
Florida Senate

Dear Chair Galvano,

As Mayor for the City of West Palm Beach, I write today to ask that you amend the base map and restore the current political boundaries for Congressional Districts 21 and 22 to protect the area's unique characteristics and needs. The base map has created east/west districts for each of the Palm Beach and Broward Counties in direct opposition of the coastal communities' interest. These districts have remained largely north/south for decades.

The natural geographic boundary of the Atlantic Ocean in the 22nd district and many of the cities, including West Palm Beach, border the intercostal and ocean. Issues such as environmental and shore protections of the waterways, coastal flooding, and salt-water intrusion into the Lake Worth Lagoon are important issues to the residents living in West Palm Beach and are shared with the many coastal cities currently in District 22. West Palm Beach, Boca Raton, Delray Beach, Fort Lauderdale, and Pompano Beach are all growing communities that rely on the condition of our beach and waterfronts to attract tourists and maintain the region's coastal lifestyle and economy.

A key segment of Florida's multi-billion dollar marine and tourist industries are located in West Palm Beach and other areas in the 22nd district. District 22 also contains the Port of Palm Beaches and Port Everglades, two international airports and rail systems. The district has benefitted from having one Congressional representative that understands and can advocate for the central transportation needs of the community.

Given how well the constituents and the State of Florida have been served by the structure of these districts, I urge you to amend the base map and reinstate the north/south boundaries of Districts 21 and 22.

Sincerely,

Jeri Muoio

Subject: Congressional Redistricting

Dear Senator Galvano:

The Economic Council of Palm Beach County is a private business advocacy organization representing the top business leaders in our community. This letter is to express the Economic Council of Palm Beach County's opinion regarding the Florida Supreme Court's ruling on the state's Congressional districts.

The Florida Supreme Court recently ruled that the boundaries of certain Florida Congressional Districts violate the constitutional standards of redistricting. The Economic Council of Palm Beach County appreciates the Legislature's quick action to correct and create finality to this state's Congressional map.

The recently released base map, which was prepared by the Legislature's staff, has created east/west districts for each of Broward and Palm Beach Counties in direct opposition to our communities' interests. In the Supreme Court opinion, the questions associated with the current district 21 and 22 relate to a lack of justification as to their boundaries. In their present form, these two South Florida districts rely on geographical and existing political boundaries, as required by the Constitution, as well as many communities of common interest. We urge lawmakers to leave the district's boundaries unchanged to protect the area's unique characteristics and needs.

Examples for justification include the natural geographic boundary of the Atlantic Ocean in district 22 and most of the municipalities that abut the ocean in Palm Beach County. Water interests dominate the district's lifestyle and economy, more so than in neighboring district 21.

In addition, issues of beach re-nourishment, flooding and salt-water intrusion are important to residents and businesses in the municipalities of Palm Beach, West Palm Beach, Boca Raton, Delray Beach, and Boynton

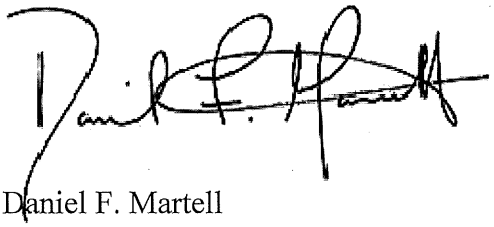
Beach. All are growing communities that rely on the condition of their beachfronts to attract tourists and keep residents interested in the region's coastal lifestyle and economy. Maintaining the roads, water, sewer and electricity close to the coast are concerns that present complex and different challenges to coastal communities different than the infrastructure needs in communities near or west of the Florida Turnpike. Property insurance is also an issue that presents special challenges in common to many residents and businesses in the eastern communities.

A key segment of Florida's multi-billion dollar marine and tourist industries are located in the 22nd district. Palm Beach County coastal communities such as Palm Beach, Riviera Beach, Delray Beach and West Palm Beach substantially rely on tourism more so than their neighbors to the west. Hotels, restaurants and shopping are all important business sectors that beachfront communities in both counties have in common.

The 22nd district also contains Port Everglades and the Port of Palm Beach, as well as two international airports and extensive rail systems. The district has benefited from having one Congressional representative who understands and advocates for the central transportation needs of the community, as well as a single member dedicated to advocate for the growing challenges facing Florida as the widening of the Panama Canal brings increased competition for new business along the Eastern seaboard.

The districts have remained largely north/south for decades. Their makeup and focus have ensured quality representation and leadership in Congress. Given how well the districts and the state of Florida have been served by the structure of these districts, the members of the Economic Council of Palm Beach County urge the Legislature to amend the base map, and keep the districts' political boundaries intact.

Sincerely,



Daniel F. Martell

Dear Senator Galvano:

The Alliance of Delray Residential Associations is a non-partisan civic organization comprised of 92 communities representing more than 250 associations located between the Everglades and the ocean in southern Palm Beach County.

This e mail is a request to amend the base map and restore the current configuration in place for Congressional Districts 21 and 22. The communities located in the two north-to-south corridors have been well represented for the past 30 years by leaders who understand the common interests of the residents. District 22, the "Coastal District" presents all the challenges that communities face being located along the Atlantic Ocean which include coastal flooding, shore erosion, shipping, ports, condominium living and intense tourism. District 21 includes communities that face the challenges of developing open land with new construction, planned communities, and infrastructure while maintaining and preserving agricultural and environmentally sensitive areas. These two Districts each require different research and a unique understanding of the issues so that the individual leaders can advocate for their constituents.

The Alliance respectfully requests that you abandon the east/west districts that were just created and restore the north/south boundaries which have served the people for three decades.

Thank you.

Dear Senator Galvano and Representative Oliva:

Thank you for the important work your legislative committees are conducting pertaining to Congressional districts. On behalf of, and as authorized by the St. Johns County Board of County Commissioners, I express our concern that the Congressional Reapportionment/Redistricting not fragment the representation of the St. Johns County community. As you know, currently St. Johns County is encompassed within a single Congressional district. The H000C9065 version proposed Congressional district lines divides St. Johns County into two separate districts.

We understand and are appreciative of the restraints the Committees and the Legislature as a whole must consider to satisfy all the constitutional and statutory criteria applicable to a Congressional redistricting plan. While St. Johns County contains many unique and diverse areas, ranging from the Nation's oldest city and heritage agricultural communities to some of the newest and fastest growing communities, St. Johns is a county of common goals and positive expectations for the future.

We respectfully request that St. Johns County remain as part of a single Congressional district, and if the Legislature determines that any division of the County for redistricting must be made, then St. Johns County be apportioned into not more than two districts.

Sincerely,

Rachael L. Bennett, Chair

Senator Galvano

We here in St. Johns County have learned of the proposed redistricting that would split our county in half! This would cause us to be a two congressional district county.
Senator that is not what is best for St. Johns County. As a former St. Johns County Commissioner I can tell you first hand how important it is to have a single point of contact and single voice. St. Johns County deserves better. We have been number one in education and health and more for years. We do it right here and do not wish to be split.
I would ask you to please reconsider the current plan and leave St. Johns County a single congressional district.
It is critical to us as good citizens that are proactive in government to remain a single congressional district.

Very respectfully,

FYI. Attached is a comparison of my summary tables for the two plans. The three key parameters presented are percent VAP for Blacks and Hispanics and the ratio of the perimeter to the square root of the area. This dimensionless ratio measures compactness as a decreasing number. By sorting each table in descending order, one highlights the less compact districts (generally minority districts with racial gerrymandering and their adjacent districts). Also the district with the Monroe county archipelago. Most of the districts give a ratio of about 5 to 7.

Very interesting starting point for the special session. Good luck.

Bruce King

PS. Unfortunately a typo in the address delayed this going out.

Since then I have submitted s10sc0037 which modifies C9065 to create a fourth Hispanic district. This was done by rearranging the split between District 23 and District 27, and then moving the eastern border of District 24 to US 1 to widen the land corridor between Miami Beach area and the rest of District 27. Each modified district was sequentially rebalanced for population.

Hope you find this of interest.

Dear Jason and Jay,

Thanks so much for getting my map submission and explanation online. Unfortunately, I am not able to attend the committee hearings on Thursday. Although I can't be there in person, I'm more than happy to answer any questions on my map on the phone (my cell number is below) or via email.

You'll see that your final plan, completed form and explanation has been given the plan number HPUBC0189 and can be viewed on both the House website www.floridaredistricting.org. You plan can also be viewed on the Senate website www.flsenate.gov/redistricting. It will remain there on both sites throughout the remainder of the process. We put it under the name William Kent Haeffner, I hope that was okay.
