Nays—None

(5)(4) ENFORCEMENT.—

(a) Notwithstanding any relief or claims afforded by federal or state law, any prisoner who is restrained or placed in restrictive housing in violation of this section may file a grievance with the correctional institution, and be granted a 45-day extension if requested in writing pursuant to rules promulgated by the correctional institution.

(b) This section does not prevent a woman harmed through the use of restraints or by placement in restrictive housing under this section from filing a complaint under any other relevant provision of federal or state law.

(6)(5) NOTICE TO PRISONERS.—

(a) By September 1, 2012, The department and the Department of Juvenile Justice shall adopt rules pursuant to ss. 120.536(1) and 120.54 to administer this section.

(b) Each correctional institution shall inform female prisoners of the rules developed pursuant to paragraph (a) upon admission to the correctional institution, including the policies and practices in the prisoner handbook, and post the policies and practices in locations in the correctional institution where such notices are commonly posted and will be seen by female prisoners, including common housing areas and medical care facilities.

(c) Each county or municipal detention facility and each detention facility operated by a private entity shall adopt written policies and procedures relating to the use of restraints and the performance of invasive body searches on pregnant prisoners.

And the title is amended as follows:

Remove lines 214-239 of the amendment and insert: providing definitions; prohibiting the involuntary placement of pregnant prisoners in restrictive housing; providing exceptions; requiring corrections officials to write a specified report if circumstances necessitate placing a pregnant prisoner in restrictive housing; providing requirements for the report; requiring a copy of such reports to be provided to pregnant prisoners in restrictive housing; providing requirements for the treatment of pregnant prisoners placed in restrictive housing; requiring pregnant prisoners to be placed in a designated medical housing unit or admitted to the infirmary under certain circumstances; providing certain rights for pregnant prisoners placed in a designated medical housing unit or admitted to the infirmary; expanding enforcement provisions to provide for grievances for violations relating to restrictive housing of pregnant prisoners; requiring the Department of Corrections and the Department of Juvenile Justice to adopt rules; requiring detention facilities to develop specified written policies and procedures; providing an effective date.
